Convict Quintet Sentenced For Guard Slaying

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 22 (AP)—Condemned to serve their "natural lives" in Folsom prison for the murder of Ray T. Singleton, guard, during the Thanksgiving riot and attempted break, five of the six leaders of the mutiny today were back in their cells at the penitentiary starting to serve their new sentences. The sixth likewise is back in his cell but is still serving on his old term as the formal court sentence has not been pronounced.

Wright Plane Is On English Soil

LONDON, Feb. 22 (AP)—The bi-plane in which the Wright brothers made their first successful flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C., landed on English soil from the Minneapolis Tuesday.

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special)—The Unity Helpers met last Friday at the home of Ella M. Walker. A short program was given, followed by a business meeting. Light refreshments were served. March 2nd, they will meet with Mrs. Tom Kasper.

COVE PERSONALS

COVE (Special)—The Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington, of Pendleton, bishop of Eastern Oregon visited Cove over Sunday. Services were held in the Ascension Episcopal church, the bishop being assisted by the Rev. M. Bradner. Holy Communion was celebrated at 3 o'clock, church school at 9:30 and at the morning service at 11, the Holy rite of confirmation was administered to a class of two and two others were added to the church membership being transferred from other churches. Bishop Remington gave a very stirring address on "Faith, Hope and Charity—these three, but the greatest of these is charity," taken from Cor. 13: 13.

UNION PERSONALS

UNION (Special)—One of the finest displays of taxidermy ever shown at Union may be seen this week in the show windows of the Allen cigar store. Nearly twenty deer heads, some mounted on small boards and some forming part of fine looking hall furniture, are being shown here for a few days before being delivered to the men who had ordered the mounting done. They form part of the skill in Union, Wallows, and Baker counties during the 27 days season. Besides the heads there are

OUT OUR WAY

Cap Tuttle made a business trip to Pendleton Saturday. LaMar Westenskow was a La Grande visitor Monday. Alvadore Andrews arrived home from Southern California last Friday night. He has been spending the winter there with relatives. Earl Lanman and his mother visited last week at Dayton, Wash. Mrs. Lanman has a sister there. Mrs. Homer Green was shopping in La Grande Monday.

on display several robes made from the deer skins, which are very beautiful. The work was done by James DeVore who lives on a ranch a few miles east of Union along Catherine creek. Mr. DeVore has been doing this kind of work for several years and his mountings are certainly works of art, as can be seen in the display in the Allen show window.

Cecil Griggs, head of the Agriculture department of the local high school, gave an illustrated lecture as part of the Epworth League program last Sunday night. His subject was "Going to Church Around the World."

was a visitor at Union last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Sturgill were also here from La Grande for the day. They were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sturgill.
