Church Programs In City Sunday Are Promising

Campfire Girls Will Give Ceremonial; Two Missionaries Will Speak at Nazarene Church

A number of interesting programs will be given in the local houses of worship tomorrow, both during the morning hour and in the evening. A pipe organ recital and a ceremonial by the Ozoka campfire girls group will feature the morning services at St. Peter's Episcopal and at the First Methodist Episcopal churches, respectively.

Two missionaries from China will visit the Church of the Nazarene tomorrow, and will be the speakers both morning and evening. There will be a special Bible service at the Central Christian church during the morning hour of worship. The Rev. Nelson Knight, formerly pastor of the Church of God here but now at Elma, Wash., is here and will have charge of Sunday's services at the Church of God, which is expected to be unusually interesting.

Episcopal Church
Besides the organ recital with Mrs. R. G. McCall at the organ assisted by Mrs. Leota Simpson, soloist, there will be an interesting morning service at St. Peter's Episcopal church Sunday morning. The Rev. Oliver Riley, rector of the church, will give a sermon on the subject "The Temptations of Jesus," at 11 o'clock and Mrs. Florence Lynch-Miller will sing a solo "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord," by Hambden. Holy Eucharist is at 8:45.
The Wayfarer's Guild will meet at 6 o'clock at the church.

First M. E. Church
The Sunday ceremonial given in the evening at the First Methodist Episcopal church by members of the Ozoka campfire girl group, under the direction of Miss Arts Ver-hey, is expected to attract a large crowd. No better or ranks will be sawarded the day being Sunday, but the ceremony will embody the ideals of the campfire organization and will include several of the most popular musical songs. The regular opening and closing services will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Parker.

The Bible school will open at the usual hour, 9:45 o'clock. During the morning hour of worship, at 11 o'clock, the pastor will speak on the subject "Playing the Game." Sherwood Williams will sing a solo.

The Junior and senior Epworth League societies will meet at 8:20 o'clock at the church. The public is invited to attend all services.

First Presbyterian Church As the Sabbath bells ring the First Presbyterian church will conduct its invitation to the public to attend the morning services of worship at 11 o'clock. During this hour, the pastor, the Rev. J.
George Wain, will speak on "Light of Redemption," a sermon adapted to the first Sunday of the Lenten season. The choir will sing "Thine All Loveliness, Maria," by Pfeif-fer. Mrs. Harriet Richardson will be at the organ console and Mrs. A.
J. Richardson is director of the choir.

During the evening service, at 7:30 o'clock Miss Edith Maguire will preside at the organ and will sing "Psalms of David" by Harwell as a prelude and as an offering will play "Offertory" by Beethoven.
The choir will sing "I Come to Thee" by Roma. The Rev. Mr.
Wain will have for his subject "Chosen Sins."

The Sunday school opens at 9:45 o'clock with classes for all ages. The Christian Endeavor society will meet at 10 o'clock. The junior at 2 o'clock and the intermediate, senior and young people's societies at 6:30 o'clock.

Church of the Nazarene
Two missionaries from China will visit the local Church of the Nazarene Sunday and will speak during the morning services at 11 o'clock. The Rev. H. A. Wiese, who served one term in Chinese missionary fields and was compelled to return home because of the war conditions, although he hopes to return soon, will be here. Also the Rev. Ida Vieg, who served for 15 years in China doing benevolent work.
Both of these workers are serving under the Nazarene Missionary board. They will have with them many interesting articles, which they will exhibit during the services.

Sunday evening's service will be under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society of the church, and both Mr. Wiese and Miss Vieg will take part. Mrs. Lester Long is president of the local missionary society.

Accompanying the two missionaries are Mrs. Edith Whitelock, president of the North Pacific District Women's Missionary society, and Miss Mary Cove, National Woman's Missionary society worker from Massachusetts, and they will also take part in the day's services. A collection is expected to the public to attend.

The Auto Race contest, which has been under way in the Sunday school for about six weeks, will close this Sunday. The primary class won first place in the race last Sunday, but one more car is given a chance to win second place.

Central Christian Church
A special Bible service and a Bible exhibit will be a feature of Sunday morning's services at the Central Christian church. All Bibles with an interesting history are wanted for exhibit. A fascicle of the smallest testament will be on display. There will be special music and a special sermon by the pastor, the Rev. H. L. Putnam, on the subject "The Matchless Bible."

Preceding the church services, which are at 11 o'clock, the Sunday school will meet at 9:45. The Junior, intermediate, young people's and senior Christian Endeavor societies meet at 6:30 o'clock.

There will be an evangelistic service in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, when the pastor will speak on the subject "The Central Figure of the Gospel." Music will be furnished by the orchestra and choir.

English Lutheran Church
The Rev. L. H. Awe, pastor of the English Lutheran church, will bring a special message Sunday morning on the subject "The Meaning of Jesus." The morning church service begins at 11 o'clock, and is preceded by the Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock, with graded instruction for all, followed by an appropriate worship period.

The young people of the church will meet Sunday evening at the home of Miss Eleanor Dahl, 2704 Second street. The topic for discussion will be "Phixing Pair with the Great Leader," Miss Natalie Ebert will lead the meeting.

Church of God
The Rev. Nelson Knight, now pastor of the Church of God at Elma, Wash., is in the city and will have charge of the services both Sunday morning and evening at the Church of God. The Rev. Mr.
Knight will be in La Grande until Friday of next week and services will be held every night. Preparations are being made to have three seats in the church by tomorrow night, so that a large crowd can be accommodated.

M. E. Church South
"God Wonders and Cares for His People" will be the subject on which the Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor of the M. E. Church South, will speak Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock hour of worship. Sunday school will meet at 9:45 o'clock, preceding the church services.

Organ Recital Will Be Given Sunday Evening

Mrs. R. G. McCall Will Appear in Program, Assisted by Mrs. Leota Simpson, Soloist.

The program arranged for Sunday evening's organ recital at St.
Peter's Episcopal church is one of annual interest and is expected to draw a large crowd to that church tomorrow evening. Mrs. R. G. Mc-Call, who is known to be a fine musician, will be at the console, and assisting her will be Mrs. Leota Simpson, soloist, of Portland. Although Mrs. Simpson has never been heard in La Grande local music lovers are looking forward to her appearance Sunday night.

In addition to the musical program, which is the sixth of a series to be given at St. Peter's church here, the Rev. Oliver Riley, rector of the church, will give an address.
Following is the complete program:

M. E. CHOIR TO PRESENT MUSICAL TRIO

Musical lovers of the city will be given an opportunity to hear a good program Wednesday night when the Musical Trio concert company will appear at the First Methodist Episcopal church here under the auspices of the church choir.
The company consists of a trio of European artists, Gladys Davies, dramatic baritone, William Hor Jones and Jeanette Christine, soprano.

"Occasionally when local conditions are right," Mrs. Claude Cooper, acting director of the choir, said today, "this company consists of an arrangement like this, although it sacrifices a considerable amount financially to bring the program to a smaller town and present it at such a cost that none will be barred from attending by excessive door charges."

Suggests Reading For Lenten Season

The Rt. Rev. John Gardner Murray, D. D., presiding bishop of the Episcopal church, recommends to "men, women and children, of all communities or of none," a fragment of reading during the Lenten season of Chapter 12 of the Epistle of Paul, the Apostle to the Romans.
"To read and understand this chapter of Scripture at this time," says Bishop Murray, "will do no one harm, and great good may result therefrom."

Dr. Murray, who is also bishop of Maryland, with his coadjutor bishop, the Rt. Rev. Edward T.
Helfenstein, D. D., have recommended the passage not only for reading by the Maryland congregations, but as the topic for frequent sermons by the clergy during Lent.

ENGINE EXPORTS DECLINE
WASHINGTON — January exports of 48 locomotives were the smallest in two years, department of commerce reports show. In January, 1926, 124 locomotives were exported and in January last year 57 were shipped to other countries. Exports last year were 1974 engines as compared with 1723 in 1926. March, May, September and October appear to be the busy months for export shipments.

Shipments after which Holy Communion will be observed.

The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and the Epworth League will have charge of the evening service, beginning at 7 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Lighting Gospel Mission Preaching services are at 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:45 in the evening at the Light House Gospel Mission Sunday. Services are also held every Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock. L.
A. Bellhouse, pastor, announces.

Christian Science Church Services are held regularly every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, corner of First street and Washington avenue. The subject for tomorrow morning is "Christ, Jesus." Sunday school meets at 9:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, which include testimonials of healing. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building, corner of Adams avenue and Elm street, is open every day from 12 o'clock until 1:30, except Sundays and holidays.

WINNINGS

A new floor has been laid in the kitchen of Hennes hall by the women of St. Peter's Episcopal Guild of the Episcopal church.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Parker returned yesterday from Boise, Ida. where they spent all of this week.
Mr. Parker is pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

A representative of the Hinner Organ company of Illinois was in La Grande during the week to tune the pipe organ in St. Peter's Episcopal church here preparatory to the recital Sunday night. An exact duplicate of the St. Peter's church organ has been installed in the Episcopal church in Pendleton.

Mrs. Harriet H. Richardson will be at the organ console at the First Presbyterian church again tomorrow morning, after an absence of several Sundays, while she has been in the east.

The Church of the Nazarene will have a number of visitors over Sunday, including the Rev. H. A.
Wiese and the Rev. Ida Vieg, both missionaries from China, working under the Nazarene Missionary board. Mrs. Edith Whitelock, president of the North Pacific District Women's Missionary society, and Miss Mary Cove, National Woman's Missionary society worker from Massachusetts.

A church attendance campaign will be launched in the Central Christian church next Sunday, March 4. All are urged to plan to attend that day.

The young people of the English Lutheran church will meet Sunday evening at the home of Miss Eleon-or Dahl, with Miss Natalie Ebert as leader.

The Rev. Nelson Knight, former pastor of the Church of God here, arrived in La Grande Wednesday from Elma, Wash., where he is now pastor, and will have charge of tomorrow's services at the local Church of God. He will also conduct meetings here every night this week until Friday when he will return home.

There will be prayer and Bible study Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Holy Communion will be ph-served Sunday morning following the sermon at the Island City Community church.

There will be special recital meetings Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 2 o'clock at the Lighthouse Gospel Mission.

The First Baptist church recently purchased new song books to be used in the regular Sunday song service.

The most astonishing thing about people who make fools of themselves is that they seem to enjoy it so thoroughly.

Annual Mission Rally Will Be Held Wednesday

The annual Union County State Missionary rally of the Central Christian church will be held Wednesday afternoon and evening in the local church. The session begins at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. At 6:30 o'clock there will be supper for the church officers served by the women of the church, and in the evening there will be a program of addresses in the auditorium.

The theme of the rally will be "Pentecost." The meeting is for members of the church of this county, and it is expected that about 100 persons will attend. C.
P. Swander, state secretary, will lead the rally and others who will speak are the Rev. Guy Drill, pastor of the Pendleton church, and the Rev. G. L. Matlock, pastor of the Christian church at Baker.

Gallies will also be held in other Eastern Oregon counties. Tuesday Mr. Swander, accompanied by Mr. Matlock and Mr. Drill and the Rev. H. L. Putnam, pastor of the local church, will go to Baker to conduct a rally in that county, and Thursday they will hold a similar meeting for Walla Walla county churches at Enterprise.

The purpose of the rallies is to promote state mission work.

Wallowa Minister Resigns Position

WALLOWA, Ore., (Special) — The Rev. J. A. Durbin has resigned his pastorate of the Wallowa Church of the Nazarene and with himself left for their new home near Caldwell, Idaho, this week, where Mr. Durbin will have charge of an 8-acre planting of potatoes.

The Rev. Theo. Warfield, a young family man of Nampa, has been called here as his successor and is expected to fill the pulpit next Sunday.

Elect Campbell President Of Wallowa Club

WALLOWA, Feb. 25 — O. P.
Campbell, superintendent of schools in Wallowa, last Thursday night was elected president of the Wallowa commercial association at a meeting of the board of directors held in the forest office.

E. P. Johnson was elected vice-president, N. J. Billings, secretary, and Roy Johnson, treasurer.

Mr. Campbell yesterday named his membership committee for the year and divided it into two sections, one for the city and one for the rural, to be as follows: city—L. P. Allen, chairman, Bruce Cox, E. A. Searle, H. M. Vaughn, Wade Hall, J. L. Maxwell and C. W. Allen; rural—A. W. Johnson, chairman, L. J. Willette and E. P. Johnson.

EFFICIENCY

SUCCESS depends more upon health than upon natural ability, education or genius.
The man who laughs at mediocrity and failure is the one who radiates health and good cheer; who goes about with the confident smile that can come only with the knowledge that all is well with his human machine, and who has the pep and stamina to stick with the game.

You cannot divide your working hours with a grumbling stomach, a balky liver or a stubborn kidney and reach anything like 100 per cent efficiency. Shortness of breath, palpitating heart, darting pains, headaches, colds—all are Nature's warning that the human machine is out of adjustment.

Call today and let us explain how Chiropractic adjusts you back to health and efficiency.
Consultation is without charge and puts you under no obligation.
