Watch Children's Health in Spring

Chicago, Ill.—Unsettled weather, indoor confinement, and lack of sunshine prompted Dr. Herman N. Burdese, Health Commissioner, to issue this warning to all parents: "Every child over one month of age should be given cod liver oil daily as a food."

And now, with that disagreeable fishy flavor all removed, youngsters lick the spoon and ask for more Coco Cod. For Coco Cod's a real cod liver oil, with every vitalizing vitamin of the pure oil, but with a rich chocolate taste that every youngster loves.

Remember, Coco Cod is a food, not a drug. Recommended by authorities and used by dietitians. Do you wonder that a million households now use Coco Cod? Any druggist can supply Coco Cod.

OFFICE CAT

Many artists have model wives, who can't cook, sew or keep house.

Lots of men who kick at the high cost of living smoke a dozen cigars a day.

If he says his wife doesn't understand him, he means she doesn't like to have him get drunk.

Teacher (to one of the boys who was cutting up in school): "James sit down in front."
James: "I can't, I'm not made that way."

What with dieting and modern fashion, the skeleton is coming out of the closet and clothes are going in.

If you believe a tramp can't be salvaged just tell him to go to the Salvation Army for help.

The coming presidential campaign is breeding a lot of talk, especially about prohibition. But there is one thing the wets and dries have in common. Each wants the other to dry up.

AT THE THEATERS

Chills, Thrills Plentiful In "The Gorilla"

For thrills, chills and a thousand laughs see "The Gorilla," the mystery comedy melodrama that opened at the Arcade theater last night for a three day run, with Charlie Murray and Fred Kelsey featured as the two demon sleuths, Mulligan and Garrity. "The Gorilla," written by Ralph Spence as a stage play, in its screen version is one of the fastest, spookiest thrillers to be seen here in some time.

"The Gorilla" himself is a weird, menacing looking ape, and every time he appears the crowds shudder as if he were right in the audience. Anyone who has seen the stage play will recognize the cast of players and the story plot—except the ending. That has been changed so that a complete surprise is sprung when the final scene is enacted.

The new screen team of Murray and Kelsey live up to their advantage. They make a typical pair of detectives who suspect everyone in the place but themselves.

Alfred Santel, the director, is to be commended on his clever handling of a difficult story. It is close-knit and full of action. The photography is eerie and weird and gives again that mystery angle which is carried out with all the thrills, without pistol shots or screams and other sounds usually found in a play of this type.

Situations are built upon situations, until almost everyone is implicated—also the gorilla.

An excellent cast, including Alice Day, Tully Marshall, Claude Gillinger, Walter Pidgeon, Guston Glass, Brooks Benedict, Aggie Herrington and Syd. Crossley, make up the inhabitants of the mystery house, Edward Small, of Asher, Small and Rogers, presents "The Gorilla" for First National.

Mary Pickford apparently believes that modern film audiences like wide variety in their pictures. In the last few years Miss Pickford has made a romance of Spain, a story of Old England and a drama of an orphan farm, and now in her current vehicle, "The Best Girl," she uses the modern five-and-ten-cent-store as the background for a comedy. The picture is showing at the Star theater tonight for the last time.

In keeping with the present day demand for humor, Miss Pickford secured the best obtainable staff of specialists to build up every possible opportunity for a laugh. Sam Taylor, whose work with Harold Lloyd has made him the most outstanding comedy director of the day had charge of the megaphone during the filming, and three of the foremost comedy constructors in Hollywood, Tim Whelan, Clarence Henneke, and Allen McNellie, exercised their talents to great advantage.

But comedy alone is not the only unusual feature of the picture. The appeal of an idealistic boy-and-girl romance is utilized. Charles Rogers, the young Famous Players-Lasky sensation playing the youthful hero, introduced by Charles Boucher, who has been Miss Pickford's camera man for the past ten years and who spent nearly a year in Germany studying the newest photographic technique for use in the film.

Kathleen Norris, the author of the original story which appeared recently in Collier's Weekly, used all the human interest and realism of her facile pen in the writing of it, and this has been transferred

Thrilling Western Showing At Colonial

Another distinctive western picture starring Bob Custer, popular star, is the current attraction at the Colonial theater. "Galloping Thunder," his latest production, is lauded by critics as undoubtedly Custer's best.

The theme concerns the robbery of a shipment bearing a fortune in gold, and its ultimate recovery by a daring cowboy after numerous thrilling reversals. One of the disheartening scenes in screen history is depicted in the leap of Custer and his heroism from the roof of a runaway express car to the swirling waters of a rocky stream far below.

Custer appears to exceptionally good advantage in the production. His riding is sensational, and he is effective as well in sustaining the sweet love theme intertwined with the fast-moving action.

Beautiful Anne Sheridan appears in the leading feminine role, her most important part since her "discovery" in Hollywood some months ago. Decided impetus is given to stardom as expected to be given by her sterling performance in "Galloping Thunder."

Director Scott Pembroke selected a most capable supporting cast for the production. Among the well known players are J. P. Lockney, Richard R. Bell and Fernando Galvez.

The production was adapted from the original story by W. Bert Foster. George Morgan prepared the continuity.

Miss Murray's price was arrested for speeding in California and gave as his occupation "husband." Diogenes! In Hollywood, too!

Feel Tired and Languid?

ALWAYS tired and achy? Sure your kidneys are working right! Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to remain in the blood and make one dull and languid, with nagging backache, headaches and dizziness. A common warning is too frequent, scanty or burning urinations.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and aid in the elimination of waste impurities. They are praised the world over. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's: Mrs. W. E. Smith, 238 Washington St., Eugene, Ore., says: "I have used Doan's Pills with benefit when my kidneys have not been functioning properly and my back has ached. The action of my kidneys was irregular and the backache made me miserable. Whenever I have used Doan's Pills for these attacks they have given me relief."

MOM'N' POP

I HAVEN'T HAD SO MANY LAUGHS IN A LONG TIME

NEITHER HAVE I—GEE, I INTENDED TO THROW MOST OF THIS OLD STUFF AWAY, BUT IT BRINGS BACK SO MANY MEMORIES, I JUST CAN'T—NOW JUST LOOK AT THIS PICTURE OF ADULT LIZZIE, TAKEN WAY BACK IN 1890—ISN'T IT FUNNY?

YEAH, SHE LOOKS LIKE SHE HAD A TUMMY ACHE—AND FOR HEAVENS SAKE, DO YOU REMEMBER THIS GIRL?

I'LL SAY I DO—IT'S MARTHA MARTIN—SHE'S THE ONE YOU USED TO GO WITH WHEN YOU WERE COURTING ME—AND THERE'S RUTH GRANT—ANOTHER OF YOUR SWEET-HEARTS

OH, DON'T BE FOOLISH, MOM—I NEVER CARED ANYTHING ABOUT ANY OF THOSE GIRLS

DON'T TELL ME THAT'S WHAT YOU USED TO SAY—BUT I FOUND OUT A PLENTY THAT YOU NEVER KNEW ABOUT—EVERY TIME I THINK OF WHAT I LET YOU GET AWAY WITH, IT MAKES ME FURIOUS—

—AND ANOTHER THING! DON'T THINK I'VE FORGOTTEN HOW YOU INVITED ME TO THAT SUNDAY SCHOOL SLEIGH RIDE, AND THEN FORGOT ALL ABOUT IT—AND TOOK LUNNIE MOORE

SAY! WHAT THE HECK WAS THE IDEA IN OPENING THIS TRUNK IN THE FIRST PLACE?

WELL, FRECKLES, WHAT'S WRONG? YOU LOOK AS IF YOU WEREN'T ENJOYING THIS OCEAN VOYAGE!

YES I AM ENJOYING IT, BUT I'M A LITTLE HOMESICK!

HOMESICK? WELL, WELL—WHAT IS THAT I CAN DO FOR YOU TO MAKE THE TRIP INTERESTING? JUST NAME IT AND I'LL DO IT FOR YOU—WAIT UNTIL WE GET TO AFRICA—THERE YOU'LL HAVE EXCITEMENT!

YES I KNOW, UNCLE HARRY!

I KNOW UNCLE HARRY WOULD DO ANYTHING FOR ME—WITH ALL HIS MONEY HE CAN GET ANYTHING—JUST ANYTHING—EXCEPT ONE THING—

AND THAT'S ANY FRIENDS THAT I LEFT BACK HOME—HERE I AM, WAY OUT ON THE OCEAN, WHERE I COULDN'T SEE THEM FOR A WEEK EVEN IF WE TURNED AROUND RIGHT NOW!!

ONE WEEK AGO TO DAY FRECKLES AND HIS UNCLE HARRY SAILED FOR AFRICA—AND THEIR DESTINATION IS STILL A LONG WAY OFF!!
