GIANT GODFREY WINS A DECISION

Bounding Basque Makes Negro Extend Himself to Take L. A. Fight

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 29 (AP)—George Godfrey, heaviest of listiana's battlers, today was established even more firmly in the status that long has been claimed for him by his backers and admirers—that chief menace of the heavyweight division.

Before the greatest crowd ever to witness a ring spectacle in the far west the giant negro last night clubbed and mauled his way to a referee's decision over Paulino Yegudin, the bounding Spanish Basque. But it was only after the squatty woodchopper of the Pyrenees, fighting for a shot at Gene Tunney's crown, had lashed the big negro into giving his best to win.

It was a one-sided affair insofar as physical measurements were concerned, but what the Basque ring idol lacked in size he made up in fight and a stout heart. Godfrey, at 22½ pounds, outweighed his stock adversary by 44 pounds, towered over him by several inches, and outreached him by several more.

Nip and Tuck

The wild rushing Paulino opened at the going with a two-handed flailing attack. Godfrey, however, aided by his superior bulk tied him up shortly after and through the early sessions of the fight the negro held the advantage. Yegudin climbed into his bigger opponent steadily enough to take the second.

In the sixth, the woodchopper again was able to wield his slashing attack, and continued on the aggressive throughout the next two rounds taking them ring-siders agreed. He bared in continuity, pumping with both feet to the body and face. Several times he lashed the ring goliath into the ropes or a corner and worked steadily on his mid section.

But there Godfrey, stung by the "mitte" that faced him, stopped the march of the basque, setting upon the black haired Spaniard with his clubbing blows to the body and crossing to the face. In the tenth Godfrey continued the mauling of his smaller opponent beating him from rope to rope throughout the round.

No Knockdowns

There were no knockdowns and at no time did either of the battlers appear in danger of a knock-out.

The attendance at the fight set new marks in western boxing history. Official figures showed that 36,605 persons paid $125,191 to see the giant negro gain the verdict over his basque rival. However, officials revealed that the unofficial attendance was closer to 48,000, if those who used passes, and the "help" were included. The

Georgie Dixon Wins in Fifth In Portland Go

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 29 (AP)—Georgie Dixon, Portland negro middleweight boxer, knocked out Herman Auerbach, Salt Lake, in the fifth round of their scheduled 10-round main event last night, with a terrific right to the chin. From the going Dixon carried the fight to his equally willing opponent but Dixon's blows carried dynamite. Auerbach's seconds threw a towel in the ring to avoid his being counted out. He had to be carried to his corner. The battle was one of ferocity from the start and it took a stout-hearted fighter to stand up under the solid blows exchanged. Dixon's blows were the more effective throughout. There was no clinching. Auerbach received an unpopular decision over Dixon three weeks ago.

Jimmy Dolan, Los Angeles, won his third successive match here, when he took a six-round decision over Eddie Cartwright, Portland. George Hyatt, won over Hobby Lamar, both of Portland, six rounds. Joe Mandillas, a clever and strong young lightweight from Los Angeles, won a technical knockout over Hobby McIntyre, Salem in the third round. Ired Mays was given a four round decision over Billy Watson in the curtain raiser.

Mile of Century Will Be Run in N. Y. Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 29 (AP)—Lloyd Hahn, Ray Conger and Dr. Otto Peltzer toe the mark in Madison Square Garden tonight for the "mile of the century."

Hahn, best of the current American milers, must be at top form to beat not only the German ace but Conger as well. The Illinois A. C. flash in fact, may prove to be the man that Peltzer and Hahn must beat. At the shorter distances—1000 yards and 1,000 meters—Conger has victories over both his rivals.

Regardless of the outcome one fact seems definitely established—that the indoor record for the mile of four minutes, twelve seconds, will be seriously threatened. Hahn's whole campaign this year had been designed to peak him for an attempt tonight to shatter the record held jointly by Joe Ray, and Faavo Nurmi.

In the two-mile handicap run Ray makes his first serious attempt at a comeback after a three-year vacation from the boards. His opponents include Leg Lormond, sturdy Boston A. A. distance runner, and Eddie Kirby of the Newark A. C.

Falt Ekins, all-around athlete of the University of Nebraska, is entered in the Septathlon against such outstanding rivals as Harold Osborn, Tony Piansky, Berliner and Emerson Norton.

Poet Laureate of California Passes

BERKELEY, Cal., Feb. 29 (AP)—Ina Coolbrith, 85, poet laureate of California died at the home of her niece here shortly after midnight this morning. She was critically ill early in the winter, but rallied, and had been in comparatively good health until shortly before her death.

Heirs of Puritan stock, Miss Coolbrith came to California 77 years ago and got her first glimpse of western life in the mining camps. She became the only woman member of the early day Bohemian group in San Francisco and through her literary accomplishments was hailed as "the sapphire of the west."

In 1895 Miss Coolbrith's best known book "Songs From the Golden Gate" was published.

A party of Indiana motorists reported that it had been chased by a ghost. But in this case, the wraith was not to the swift.

Well, spring fever is coming on. Wallpaper is beginning to sell. People are coming after turpentine and other people are beginning to paint up their houses.

You can paper a room for 85c or you can paint your entire house for $5.20. I am speaking about the dog house.

I was going to tell you a lot of other things but the sun is shining through the window and I feel like spring fever is coming on—good-bye.
