Members of Clio Club Entertained At The La Grande

Mrs. F. R. Appleby entertained the members of the Clio club and several guests yesterday at an attractive 1:15 o'clock luncheon at the La Grande hotel. Luncheon was served in the hotel dining room, and the tables were prettily decorated with mixed bouquets of spring flowers, made up of jonquils, sweetpeas, roses and other flowers of the season.

After luncheon the guests were taken to the Appleby home on First street, where five tables of bridge were at play during the remainder of the afternoon. Mrs. Chase Bohlenkamp made high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. Jerome Foley. Mrs. Herman Siegrist received the consolation prize.

Miss Nell Grinnell was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club last evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Julia Holmes, on Fourth street. Three tables of bridge were at play during the evening and high score went to Mrs. Anna Pollock. After the card games a two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. A. T. Hill will be the next hostess to the club, Wednesday evening, March 14.

A surprise party was given last evening honoring Mrs. G. N. Tarlington, mother-in-law of La Grande assembly No. 13, Order of Rainbow for Girls, by the girls of the assembly, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

About 40 girls gathered at the Tarlington home at 5:30 o'clock and a potluck supper was enjoyed. After supper the girls played games and visited for about an hour. Miss Mildred Hoyt, member of the advisory board, who will have charge of the play, "The End of the Rainbow," which will be presented by the Rainbow assembly, the DeMolay chapter assisting, explained the play and the various characters. Tryouts for the play will be next week.

Miss Anita Erickson, worthy associate advisor of the assembly, presented Mrs. Tarlington with a gift of appreciation from the girls, a picture "My Dream" by Hacker, after which Mrs. Tarlington responded with a short talk expressing her thanks.

Mrs. Carrie Steincamp, also a member of the advisory board, was present for the party.

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Mrs. Bert Knight was hostess to the Birthday Dinner club at her home at Union, Wednesday. At 1 o'clock dinner was served on a prettily arranged table around which 10 covers were laid. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to music and visiting. Two new members, Mrs. E. O. Payton, of La Grande, and Mrs. Knight were added to the club and Miss Velma McCull was a guest.

Local W.B.A. Gives Leap Year Party

One of the largest parties to be given this year by a local fraternal organization took place Wednesday evening when the Woman's Benefit association entertained their husbands at a Leap Year party at the K. of P. hall, with 70 persons attending. Mrs. Adelaide Paekard, district deputy of the W. B. A., was here from Portland especially for the event, for which an elaborate program, including a one-act comedy was arranged. Mrs. Paekard made a very interesting talk.

Mrs. E. N. Jensen, president of the organization, presided at the business session preceding the program. Initiation was held at this time and one candidate was taken into the organization. After the business meeting a one-act comedy was presented, under the direction of Mrs. Herman Goeck. It was entitled "Mrs. Hunt Advertises for a Cook" and was an original and humorous feature, well presented, that drew hearty applause. Mrs. Lenora Ostland took the part of the Irish cook; Mrs. Helen Lane was Gretchen, the German cook; Mrs. E. L. Lindheller was Helga, the Norwegian applicant; Mrs. May Wiley, Dinah, the negro cook; Mrs. Enterline, the American cook, and Mrs. Ivy Thomas, Hop Flee, the Chinese cook. Following the comedy, games were enjoyed. "Five Senses," a guessing game, was played and the first prize went to Mrs. Kate McDonald. Mrs. Adelaide Tucker received consolation. This was followed by a hat and coat race between the men and the women in which the men were victorious. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stillinger sang a duet, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," as a musical number.

Partners were chosen for supper and, with Mrs. Stitzinger playing a grand march, marched into the banquet rooms, where an excellent supper was served. The tables were attractively decorated with carnations which were furnished by the Rohan florists. Mrs. Della Harnden was chairman of the refreshment committee, with Mrs. Nellie Chariton, Mrs. Helen Lams, Mrs. Elsie Veach and Mrs. Wetzel assisting.

A quiet wedding that united two out-of-town persons was solemnized late Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lovell on Y avenue. Matilda Alice Greer, of Washington county, Idaho, at that time became the bride of Sylvester Downs, of Portland. Only immediate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Mrs. R. L. Putnam.

CONTRACT BRIDGE. Continuing the subject of No Trump jumps from the point at which we left off in last Saturday's article, it will be remembered that the jump of partner's one No Trump to two was urged with any such holdings as two Aces, an Ace and a King-Queen, two King-Queens, an Ace-Queen and a King, or three Kings. This is a wise plan to follow and an easy one to remember as far as it goes, but there are many combinations of high cards which are not exactly any of those named, but which would justify a jump; therefore a count which can be used in any case and which will work to the best advantage in the long run is more satisfactory for the majority of players than attempting to memorize and differentiate between various combinations.

The simplest count, and one which seems particularly adapted to this situation, is the reckoning of an Ace as four, a King as three, a Queen as two and a Jack as one; using that count, it seems safe to make the general rule that any hand counting nine is strong enough to warrant jumping partner's No Trump from one to two. Of course by this is meant any hand in which a suit-lead would not be a better declaration than two No Trumps. When vulnerable Mr. and Mrs. Downs left for Portland where they will make their home in the future.

able or when the hand, while counting nine, does not look particularly attractive for a jump (possibly by reason of some very short suit or possibly by reason of the fact that the No Trump is a non-dependable player) it may be advisable to raise the limit to ten; but nine justifies the jump in the majority of cases.

Illustrations of hands which contain the minimum strength for jumping partner's one No Trump to two follow:

- |        |         |          |
|--------|---------|----------|
|        | No. 1   | No. 2    |
| Suit 1 | A-X-X-X | A-X-X    |
| Suit 2 | 10-X-X  | Q-X-X-X  |
| Suit 3 | 10-X-X  | K-X-X-X  |
| Suit 4 | X-X-X   | 10-X     |
|        | No. 3   | No. 4    |
| Suit 1 | K-X-X-X | K-Q-X    |
| Suit 2 | K-10-X  | Q-X-X    |
| Suit 3 | K-X-X   | J-X-X    |
| Suit 4 | X-X-X   | J-10-X-X |
- The suits are numbered, not designated by name, because when determining whether to jump (the hand containing no suit-lead), it is immaterial in which suit the strength is held.
- Tomorrow, the double jump. (Copyright John F. Dille Co.)

cup light brown sugar, 1 egg, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 cup finely chopped nut meats, few grains salt.

Melt butter in a smooth saucepan. Add sugar and heat over a low fire, stirring constantly. When thoroughly blended remove from heat and let cool. Add unbeaten egg and beat mixture hard. Sift flour, salt and baking powder and add nuts and vanilla. Spread the mixture in a shallow, square pan lined with paraffin paper and bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven. Remove from pan and let cool. Then cut in narrow strips and serve.

Maybe the reason Mr. McAlbin is against Mr. Smith is because Al is the candidate from the great open places.

Well, things could be worse. A young man named Hickman isn't bothered at all by insurance men, to these little sticks.

Look Over Our Want Ads for Bargains

Question—
 Is it by chance or is it because Mrs. Reynaud has had experience and training, that permanent waves given by her please the most fastidious?

Answer—
 It is not a matter of mere chance. Our permanent waves please the most fastidious because Mrs. Reynaud learned the art from Miss Hudson, official demonstrator and instructor for the Northwest in Leon Oil Permanent waving.

RECIPE for CHEERFUL Breakfasts

A morning appetite is easily discouraged. There are times when cold toast or charred toast is almost a tragedy. That's why people are turning to toast made electrically, right at the table where it can be watched and served piping hot at exactly the right moment.

A Westinghouse Turnover Toaster brings every convenience of electric toasting to your breakfast table. It takes a full sized slice of bread in each rack; it toasts quickly and evenly; lowering and raising the rack turns the slice for toasting the other side. No trips to the kitchen; no fuss or bother. It's truly a recipe for cheerful breakfasts.

Westinghouse made the first toaster with the turnover feature. It still makes the best.
