WEATHER CAUSE OF LOW SCORE

Local Trapshooters Turn in 66 in Oregonian Telegraphic Tourney

La Grande trapshooters slipped still further down in the percentage column in the Oregon telegraphic tournament yesterday by turning in a 66, three men shooting 22 out of 25 birds.

Weather conditions are held largely responsible for the failure to make a better showing, and the Wins, Fin and Fleetfoot club was not the only team to suffer. Several other clubs suffered slumps Sunday although a few, under better weather conditions, turned in excellent scores. The Washington county club, one of three La Grande clubs against, went straight scoring a perfect 75. Alford, another opponent of La Grande, shot a 73. The Union score was not given this morning so it is uncertain whether La Grande lost more than two out of the three or not. If La Grande won from Union her percentage is now .509, if she lost to Union it is .417, if she tied with Union it is .455.

Scores made by Art Weagle, Alvin Bennett, Samuel W. H. Holmen, camp, each 22, were counted in the Oregonian's official listing.

Besides Washington county, Esterville, Bandon, and Lane county turned in 75's.

Mat Promoters in Chicago at "War"

CHICAGO, Mar. 12 (AP)—The wrestling match between Ed "Strangler" Lewis and Alex Garkawienko, mammoth Russian, will be held tonight as scheduled. Chairman Paul Prehn, of the Illinois state athletic commission, declared today, Samuel P. Luzzo, the other member of the commission, was just as determined in his effort to prevent it, but he had not announced his course of action.

Billy Sandow, Lewis' manager, declared the trouble, which has split the two-man athletic commission wide apart, was a promoter's war, and asked for police protection tonight. It is the first time Lewis has appeared in Chicago since the Illinois legislative committee investigated the wrestling situation here a year ago.

Southpaw Runs Afoul of Police

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Mar. 12 (AP)—Tuba Benton, former major league southpaw pitcher, now with the Mirasol club, ran afoul of the curfew law and a theological policeman last night with the result that Benton is nursing a pair of black eyes and other injuries.

Following a series of safe robberies police were ordered to question any one found on the streets after midnight. Patrolman C. W. Thurman, once a Baptist theological student and lay preacher, attempted to question Benton who reported the queries and after a brief contest was taken to police headquarters from where he was taken to a hospital. No charges were filed.

Hoop Drawings To Take Place On Wednesday

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 12—Final plans were completed Saturday for the Oregon state high school basketball tournament at Salem, March 13 to 17, in the Willamette university gymnasium, announced Roy E. Cannon, secretary of the high school association. The drawing for the teams will be at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon instead of at 2 o'clock as previously announced. This change was made in order to permit programs to be made and to help the sale of reserved seats.

The list of passes was cut down to a minimum this year; only the eight players and the coach of each team will be given passes to the games.

"There is less danger of the strong teams being eliminated at the start," said Secretary Cannon, "because there are at least five powerful quintets entered this season. We have decided to go through the drawings and take the chance that these stronger outfits will be paired so that they will not be eliminated at first. The tournament will be better, from every angle this year because the teams as a rule are much better than those in 1927."

The sale of tickets for the semifinals on Friday will start at 9 o'clock, and that for the finals on Saturday will start at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

No team will play more than two games a day at the tournament. Many will play only one.

The coaches of the teams need not be present at the drawings Wednesday, but a representative from each team should be there, Secretary Cannon said.

Several teams have made arrangements with Roy (Spec) Keene to practice on the floor Tuesday.

The winners in the districts have been decided. The latest information released from the office of the secretary:

- District 1—Wallowa.
- District 2—McLoughlin-Union high school of Milton-Freewater.
- District 3—The Dalles.
- District 4—Medford.
- District 5—Marshfield.
- District 6—University High school of Eugene.
- District 7—Salem.
- District 8—Tillamook.
- District 9—Astoria.
- District 10—Washington high school of Portland.

ARTHUR NEWTON LEADS IN RACE

Rhodesia, Road Runner, 44, Continues to Hold Lead in Elapsed Time

By Russell J. Nowland. (Associated Press Sports Writer.)

NEEDLES, Cal., Mar. 12 (AP)—Dust was replaced by the muddy waters of the Colorado for the start of today's abbreviated lap of the transcontinental foot race.

A few hundred feet from the starting line some thirty rowboats powered by Mojave Indians waited to transport the weary survivors of blistered soles and fallen arches across the river.

The little mining town of Ontman was the destination of today's 17-mile course, less than a third the distance of yesterday's Danby-to-Needles run.

Although he came in second by a matter of five minutes in yesterday's 57 miles, Arthur Newton, 44-year-old Rhodesia road runner, held down first place in elapsed time at the close of the day. He had jogged the 296.4 miles from Los Angeles in 44 hours 48 minutes, 40 seconds. Other leaders in the race which will pay the winners $48,500 at the New York end were Andrew Payne of Claremore, Okla., 49:32:25; Ed Gardner, Seattle, 50:32:02; Aras Sammling, Detroit 51:29:25; John Cronick, Saskatoon, Sask., 51:28:25.

Cronick led the field into Needles yesterday by covering the day's stretch in 5:44:20. Olli Waininen, 56-pound Detroit Finnish runner, who had held a position among the leaders consistently during the earlier stages of the race, fell before yesterday's hard grind and was carried in from a point five miles out. Seth Gonzales, of Denver, another prominent marathoner, also was a victim of exhaustion 11 miles out. To continue in the race each would be forced to return to the point at which they fell out to start today's race.

WANAMAKER GRID STAR

NEW YORK—From a Princeton classmate, Parke H. Davis, football authority, comes an account of how the late foodman Wanamaker, merchant prince, started against Harvard in 1884: "Running from his position in the line on what today would be called a tackle end he hammered his way fifteen long and difficult yards to the crimson goal line for a touchdown." Wanamaker was also a skilled baseball and cricket player when in college.

Sharkey, Risko To Don Gloves In Gotham Ring

NEW YORK, Mar. 12 (AP)—Jack Sharkey, of Boston, who already has made two unsatisfactory attempts to prove himself the logical challenger for Gene Tunney's crown, will go into the elimination lists for the third time tonight against Johnny Risko, the Cleveland baker boy, in a 15-round match in Madison Square Garden. The bout is scheduled for 10 p. m., eastern time.

The Boston boxer's fame, brought to the peak by his victory on a foul over Harry Wills, went into a partial eclipse when he was knocked out by Jack Dempsey in the seventh round at the Yankee stadium last July.

Heavy odds are being quoted on Sharkey to win, some at 13 to 5, these being based principally on the fact that the hub boxer easily outpointed Risko in their first fight but at that time Risko was a novice while Sharkey had been a professional for more than a year.

Risko has punching ability and endurance although he is considerably lacking in ring science in comparison with Sharkey.

The boxers will enter the ring on even terms of weight with Sharkey scaling 191 pounds when he concluded training and Risko slightly more than 190.

If Risko can land a haymaker on the Bostonian's jaw, Cleveland perhaps will send forth for the first time a challenger for the heavyweight title. Station WJZ New York and affiliated stations will broadcast the fight.
