Student Recital Given Saturday At Robinson Home

A student recital of interest took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. Robinson on Fourth street when she presented several of her violin and piano students. About 25 mothers and friends of the pupils heard the program. The numbers were announced and a short explanation given by the student before each selection.

Four violin pupils played, Norma Hinkle, Anita Herman, Ernest Higgs and Gerald Butcher. Those playing piano selections were Robert Brack, Joanna Leslie, Josephine McHugh, Mildred Brack, Evelyn Griffith, Mildred Rutherford and Lynn Barnes.

Recitals of a similar nature are given by Mrs. Robinson about once each month.

Tomorrow's Neighborhood club program will be a review of the grand opera "The King's Henchmen," and is expected to be unusually interesting. Mrs. George S. Birnie has charge of the afternoon's program and the story of the opera, which is written by Edna St. Vincent Millay, will be read by Mrs. Howard Miller.

The music for the opera is by Deena Taylor. Mrs. A. L. Richardson, coloratura soprano, will sing several of the very difficult arias, and Mrs. Birnie will give a criticism of the opera. Mrs. Harley Richardson will play the overture for the three acts.

The regular business meeting of the club will precede the program, with Mrs. Sherwood Williams, president, presiding.

A delightful party was given by Mrs. J. E. Landers at her home at 2809 North Fir street Saturday in honor of the second birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Virginia Helen. After games were enjoyed the little guests were seated around one large table, which was decorated with tiny baskets and candies at each place and a large birthday cake, with two lighted candles as a centerpiece.

The children present were Catherine Edwards, Pauline Edwards, Ruth Seward, Eleanor Seward, Loretta Puckett, Barbara Lewis, Junie Edwards, Winto Puckett, Richard Trevey and the little honor guest, Virginia Helen Landers.

Mrs. Landers was assisted by Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. Trevey, Mrs. Stearns, and the grandmother of the honor guest, who came from Bendleton for the occasion.

Assembly Initiates Three Candidates

Three candidates were initiated Saturday evening when the regular meeting of the La Grande assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls was held at the Masonic hall with a number of visiting Masons and members of the Eastern Star present.

During the evening Miss Mabel Morton, an honorary member of the local assembly and a past mother advisor of Raymond, Wash., gave a short talk. An invitation from the Baker Eastern Star chapter, inviting the Rainbow assembly to visit Baker and put on the lodge work there was read and accepted. Miss Mildred Hoyt, member of the advisory board, who has charge of the play to be given by the Rainbow order and the DeMolay chapter, announced the cast for the play. Miss Bernice McKinney's team was ahead in the membership contest at Saturday night's meeting.

The next meeting of the Rainbow assembly, which will be held Saturday evening, Mar. 24, will be a social meeting.

The juveniles of the Royal Neighbor lodge met Saturday afternoon at the home of the director, Mrs. William Winburn, with 18 members in attendance. There was a short business meeting during the early part of the afternoon, followed by a short musical program. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lutan, Mrs. Gladys Hough and Mrs. Eula Webb.

The next meeting will be held Mar. 24 at the K. P. hall.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft juveniles met Saturday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias hall with a large attendance. After the regular business meeting a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The Women of Mooseheart Legion met at Eagles hall Friday night when a program was given. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg furnished a number. Mrs. Wallace Cass played several piano selections. Miss Louise Shanks played a piano number. Mrs. Don Shanks sang a solo, Miss Gertrude Swarts sang two numbers and Miss Nora Sittler danced.

After the program a social time was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. Refreshments were served.

Musical Will Be Given Wednesday

La Grande music lovers are looking forward to an interesting program on Wednesday night of this week when Mrs. Jessie A. Hoskins will present Mrs. James McNamee, soprano, Mrs. Leal Russell, contralto, and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell, soprano, in a musicale at the Sacajawea ballroom.

The program begins at 8:15 o'clock, and each of the soloists will sing three groups. Mrs. N.

H. Ashby will be the piano accompanist.

An invitation is extended to the public to attend. Special invitations are not necessary, and all interested are cordially invited.

GRANGE HALL (Special)—"Beauty Spots in the Northwest" was Miss Minnie Hojman's program subject Friday afternoon when the Country Women's club met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Lindsey. After each woman present had described some scenic spot that appealed to her, Miss Holman read an instructive article entitled "Beauty in Nature" in which many scenic beauty spots of the northwest were described.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Lindsey. Guests present for the meeting were Mrs. A. P. Davis and Mrs. Reece McAllister. One new member, Mrs. Sara Anson, was added to the club roll.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. A. Holman, Mar. 23.

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Wednesday evening was the occasion for a surprise dinner party honoring the birthday anniversary of Ira Kennedy. The party was given by Mrs. Kennedy at their home on Cove avenue, and an excellent dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock with covers laid for 14. A large birthday cake served as a centerpiece for the dinner table.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagey and three children, Beulah, Darrel and Moryd, Mrs. Agnes Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Masterton, Lester Masterton and Ed Donn.

Mr. Kennedy received a number of gifts in remembrance of his birthday.

Announcements

The Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at 6:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. M. Pierson, 1302 Tenth street, Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 14.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST — Sliced fresh pineapple, cereal, cream, broiled cottage ham, reheated potatoes, corn muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Vegetable chowder, toast sticks, salmon and shredded lettuce salad, marmalade shortcake, milk, tea.

DINNER — Fish loaf, scalloped potatoes, cabbage and apple salad, rhubarb pudding, milk, coffee. The luncheon-dessert is rather out-of-the-ordinary and very good. It's most acceptable just at this time of the year when fresh fruits are not as plentiful and inexpensive as they will be later.

Marmalade Shortcake
Two cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup butter, ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ cup milk, 1 egg, 1 cup orange marmalade.
Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and cinnamon. Work in butter. Beat egg until light with milk and add to dry ingredients. Mix to a soft dough. Divide into two equal parts and roll on a lightly floured board to fit a round cake pan. Put one piece of dough in an oiled and floured pan, spread with marmalade and cover with remaining dough. Bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven and serve cold with whipped cream.

The lower layer of dough should be pushed high at the edges, making the center slightly hollow. Brush the edges with water before fitting on the top layer and press edges firmly together. This prevents the marmalade from running out of the cake while baking.

DIVING FOR GOLD

NEW YORK—That's gold in their waves. Divers are exploring the bottom of Hudson river for bullion that fell overboard while being loaded on the steamship Roma to be sent to Italy. A keg containing $50,000 has been brought to the top. As much more is missing.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

I am continually emphasizing the importance of planning a campaign. Every Declarer, as soon as he sees his Dummy, should map out in his own mind what result he will try to attain and how he proposes to produce that result with his twenty-six cards.

Today's Hand (Hearts Trump)

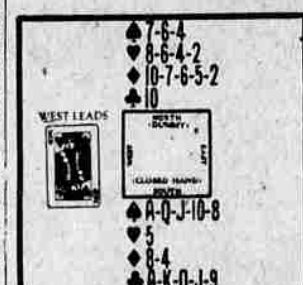

Supposing that Declarer wins the first trick, how should he plan his play?

In this case it must have been quite evident to the Declarer when he played the first card from Dummy, that the King of Clubs should be his selection. With an opening in Closed Hand there would be no point in underplaying the Queen. With eight Clubs in Declarer's two hands it was not likely that the adverse Clubs were divided 5-0 and therefore there was every chance that the first trick could be won.

When East followed suit, it became evident that the remaining adverse Clubs were divided either 3-0 or 2-1, and even if the division were 3-0, ruffing two Clubs would establish four good Clubs in Dummy and give South four discards. To carry out this plan, Dummy needs two entries — and has them in the Jack and Seven of Hearts. Declarer can see that it would be inadvisable to try for a discard by leading the Ace of Clubs immediately, because one adversary might be out of Clubs and able to trump; and he also can see that by leading the Deuce of Clubs to trick 2, ruffing it with the Eight of Hearts, and then leading the Nine of Hearts to trick 3 and winning it in the Dummy with the Jack, he surely would be able to establish his Clubs and, by obtaining the desired discards from Closed Hand, make a Grand Slam. Unless he establish these Clubs, he would have to lose one Spade; and the difference between the two scores would be 68 points.

To carry out his complete plan, Declarer should lead a second small Club to trick 4 and ruff high from Closed Hand; then when the adverse trumps are exhausted, put Dummy in with the Seven of Hearts (the Six having been retained in the Closed Hand for the purpose) and run Dummy's four established Clubs, discarding thereon Closed Hand's three Spades and Queen of Diamonds.

Tomorrow's Hand

Spade contract; South Declarer; question: How should the Declarer plan to play the hand? Answer tomorrow.

AT ELEVENTH HOUR SHE WON'T WED

What was to have been the second honeymoon of Franklin S. Harding, 61-year-old Chicago millionaire and Miss Anne Livingstone, 30, Tulsa, Okla., divorcee (above) seems to have been called off. A pre-nuptial dinner was given by Harding, the minister engaged the wedding supper arranged, and all that. There seemed to be no hitch, yet when Miss Livingstone was asked to sign a paper waiving her claim to the wealth of her prospective husband for $100,000 to be paid upon his death, she refused. Thus ends the chapter.

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special) — The regular meeting of the parent-teacher association will be held Thursday evening at the school house. An interesting program is being arranged which all members of the organization should hear.

The Pythian Sisters have issued invitations for their annual St. Patrick's Day ball. This will be held on Friday evening of this week. This has always been a very large and most enjoyable affair, and this year promises to be no exception.

Mrs. Jonathan Cleaver and little daughter, Barbara, have returned to their home in La Grande following a visit at the Charles Cleaver home.

The parent-teacher association served lunch to the teachers and others who attended the Teachers' institute here Saturday. About 90 were served. With everything donated the ladies cleared around $40 which will be applied on the debt on Wade hall.

Chicken pox has been interrupting the work at the school to a certain extent and now mumps have appeared among high school students. Imbler, in this regard, is falling in line with Elain, Cove and other towns of the county, where mumps have had full sway now for some time.

Prayer services were held both morning and evening by the Church of God congregation. Services held by this group and a Sunday school maintained by the Methodists constitute the religious services held in Imbler on Sundays.

The demonstrators of the alumnae were served a supper Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Welch, with about 25 people attending.

Hil Reese, of Union, was a business visitor here Saturday, loading the car of cattle shipped to the Portland market that evening.

E. E. Hurley, of La Grande, was visiting home and his former Imbler friends Saturday in between sessions of the teachers' institute. A number of Imbler residents attended the funeral Sunday of W. A. Baker held at the Summerville chapel. Mr. Baker was very well known here.

Prof. Menegat, of the high school made his call for baseball last week and met a very generous response. Enough men have been coming out to make two good teams.

Miss Eva Ledbetter who went to Mossyrock, Wash., the first of the month, intending to complete her year's work after having had an enforced vacation of seven weeks on account of a serious operation, did not remain in Mossyrock but returned home and will take the remainder of the school year to recover completely and regain her former strength. Miss Ledbetter was, for three years, one of the most successful teachers in our high school.

ENTERPRISE PERSONALS

ENTERPRISE (Special)—A. K. Parker, cashier of the Enterprise State bank, and his wife are in Portland this week where Mr. Parker went on business. They expected to visit friends in Portland and Longview, Wash., before returning home.

and burial took place at the Enterprise cemetery. Deceased leaves a brother, Ed Hinton, a prominent stockman of the Chemung county.

W. J. Ortmann opened his new hardware store to the public Saturday morning and many friends called to wish him well and extend their good will. Mr. Ortmann recently purchased the hardware stock of LeRoy Parsons at Lostine and moved it to this city.

C. H. Zuercher recently made a trip to Boise, Idaho on business connected with the Oregon City Woolen Mills of which he is the local representative.
