Farewell Dinner Party Compliments Miss Bertha Bantz

A farewell dinner party was given last evening in honor of Miss Bertha Bantz, by her mother, Mrs. T. G. Bantz, at their home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Miss Bantz is a popular violinist and is well known in music circles here. She is already registered with Edward Hurlmann, of Portland, concert master of the Portland Symphony orchestra and will leave for Portland Friday evening of this week to begin her violin study there.

Twelve of her girl friends were guests at the party last night. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock around a table prettily decorated with a bouquet of daffodils as a centerpiece. Fortunes were found in the clever little place cards and were read during the dinner. Favors were distributed in keeping with St. Patrick's day. After dinner the girls enjoyed games and dancing until a late hour.

Those present were Misses Phyllis Barnes, Alice Cook, Margaret Deuhon, Mildred Courtney, Lena Campbell, Goldie and Gladys Owen, Jennie Nielsen, Seville Pratt, Effie Blanchard, Dean Wright, Bethel Trill, the honor guest and the hostess.

An interesting program has been arranged for tomorrow evening when Mrs. Jessie A. Hoskins will present Mrs. James McNamee, Mrs. Leal Russell and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell in a musicale at the ballroom of the Sackajawon Inn.

The program is varied, and each of the three soloists will sing three groups of numbers. Mrs. H. N. Ashby will be the piano accompanist.

Following is the program to be given: "Ave Maria".....Gounod Violin Obligato by Mrs. Leo Miller "Butterflies".....Lynn Sailer "The Winds in the South".....Lester Mrs. James McNamee "Jasmines of Kalowon".....Lester "Death of the Nightingale".....Lester "My Absence".....Schubert Mrs. Leal Russell "Every Kiss is a Song".....Massenet "Bird of Love Divine".....Wood "Sunlight".....Ware Mrs. Thomas Maxwell "La Cid" (Pleurez-Pleurez mys yeux).....Massenet "Fanchonette".....Kathleen Blais Clarke "Villanelle".....Eva Dell Acquin Flute Obligato by Adolph Siegrist Mrs. James McNamee "The Girl".....Brown "Where Go the Boats".....Peel "Cradle Song of 1915".....Kreiser Violin Obligato by Mrs. Leo Miller Mrs. Leal Russell "Homage".....Del Riego "My Neighbor".....Thomas "Summer".....Chaminade

The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock and an invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Honoring Miss Marian Warren on her 12th birthday anniversary a dinner party was given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John McHugh, at 1203 N avenue, Saturday evening.

The rooms were decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

Honor Miss Warren At Dinner Party

Honoring Miss Marian Warren on her 12th birthday anniversary a dinner party was given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John McHugh, at 1203 N avenue, Saturday evening.

The rooms were decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

After the dinner hour games and dancing were enjoyed.

There were twelve guests present besides the honor guest. They were: Margaret Davy, Marie Martin, Francis Martin, Josephine McHugh, Ole Mae Hough, Cornelia Daly, Genevieve Choate, Nancy Guild, Gladith Johnson, Gladys Roberts, Mildred Patten, Kathryn Anderson and Marian Warren.

Miss Warren received many beautiful and useful gifts in remembrance of her birthday.

Mrs. John W. Anderson was the inspiration for a delightful surprise party given Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reher, by her sister, Miss Minnie Reher, and her brother, Herbert Reher, the occasion being her nineteenth birthday anniversary.

The early part of the evening was spent in games and visiting and at 10 o'clock supper was served. Each place was marked with a clever place card on which the name of each guest had been made into a verse. Favors were made in various ways and were attached to the place cards. Other favors were bright carnival caps, small dolls and tiny pipes. A large birthday cake, with 19 pink candles, served as a centerpiece for the table.

After supper the party drove to Perry, where the evening was closed with dancing.

Those present were the honor guests, Mrs. John Anderson, Mr. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reher, Lucile Reher, Bob Carper, Lorraine Smith, Cecile Spain, Gladys V. Anderson, Louie Evans, Robert Cowan, Julia Freely, Howard Evans, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Anderson and the host and hostess, Miss Minnie and Herbert Reher.

Members of the Ever Ready young people's class of the Christian Sunday school enjoyed a "hard times" social Friday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. R. L. Putnam.

About 35 young people were present and games were enjoyed during the evening, after which refreshments were served.

HER CHARGES STIR HOLLYWOOD

When Mrs. Corabel Bernstein (above) sued Mrs. Lillian Coogan, mother of Jackie Coogan, for $750,000, charging alienation of affections, and named Mrs. Coogan co-respondent in a divorce suit against Arthur Bernstein, she sprang the most sensational legal action of base Hollywood in recent months. The documents charge a number of indiscretions on the part of Bernstein and Mrs. Coogan. Mrs. Bernstein's charges are denied by Mrs. Coogan. Bernstein is business manager of Jackie Coogan's film productions.

Tweed Is Favorite In Spring Mode

Nearly every important dress-maker shows tweed coats, capes and suits in the collection for spring and summer. Beige, gray, blue and multicolored mixtures are the favorite shades, with beige a long way in the lead. Coats and capes are usually full length, though there are various models of three-quarter and half length in the suit-type of costume. Wraps are unlined as a rule, but the rule has its exceptions particularly when the fabrics are of summer weight. The most frequently seen version of the spring tweed costume is the flat pleated, or circular skirt sewed

FRENCH RAILROADS LOSE

PARIS — Seven major French railroads operated at a deficit last year. Higher rates augmented gross receipts, but car loadings declined and operating expenses increased.

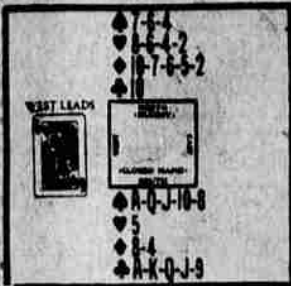

at the hip-line to a lighter top of plain material. Sometimes there is a belt to cover the joining of the skirt and top. Occasionally rows of embroidery take the place of belt. Another method of joining skirt and blouse is a small upstanding band of the skirt material which gives the impression of a tucked-in blouse. Paris calls this a trouser-top skirt.

Nearly all capes of tweed are cut full enough to be easily wrapped around the figure. They are carefully moulded around the shoulders so that they do not slip easily. Some tie at the throat with scarf collars. A few have military collars and others are collarless, meant to be worn with detachable fur neckpieces. Several designers show tweed scarfs, sufficiently wide to be worn as short capes, with tweed dresses.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Yesterday the following problem was given: The contract is Spades; South is Declarer, North is Dummy; the initial lead is shown. How should Declarer operate his twenty-six cards?

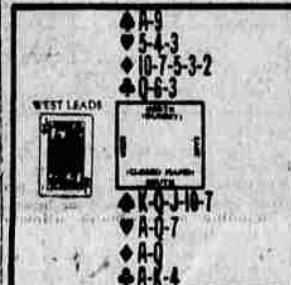

Declarer, planning his campaign, would see that he must lose the first Heart trick and that West will surely lead a second Heart. Should he refuse to trump this, there doubtless would be a third. If he did not trump he would discard Diamonds on the second and third Heart tricks and then East and West could lead a fourth Heart or shift to Diamonds; he could not pass a fourth trick and make game, so he might as well ruff at his first opportunity.

Declarer can see that his only chance for game is to make five Spades and five Clubs. With the adverse trumps drawn, there would be no doubt about the five Clubs; but to capture the King of Spades and make five Spades, the King must be held by East and two finesses doubtless will be necessary.

Declarer's Plan of Campaign Declarer will trump trick 2 with the Eight of Spades; lead the Nine of Clubs to trick 3, putting Dummy in with the Ten; and then lead a trump from Dummy and finesse. If the finesse lose, all hope for game will have gone with it; but Declarer will see that if the finesse win, he then can lead a winning Club from Closed Hand, trump it unnecessarily in Dummy, and lead a second trump from Dummy for a second finesse. This will give him a good chance to catch East's King of Spades (trumps) and make game.

Tomorrow's Hand

South is the Declarer playing a Spade contract. The question is: How should he plan to play the hand? Answer tomorrow. (Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST — Baked winter pears, cereal cooked with figs, bread, cranberry pancakes, sirup, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON — Creamed sardines, lettuce sandwiches, whipped fruit jelly, walnut wafers, milk, tea.
DINNER — Boiled mutton with caper sauce, steamed brown rice, turnips in lemon sauce, head lettuce with combination dressing, grapefruit pie, milk, coffee.

Brown or unpolished rice is more valuable as a substitute for potatoes than the ordinary white or polished rice usually used. The polishing removes most of the mineral matter. The grains of polished rice are white but not shiny.

Grapefruit Pie
One cup sugar, 1/2 cup water, 1 cup grapefruit juice, few grains salt, 4 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons powdered sugar.
Mix thoroughly sugar, salt and cornstarch. Add water and fruit juice and stir until smooth. Cook over a low fire, stirring constantly.

Insured Buying

There's a way of insuring your buying against wasted money and unsatisfactory merchandise. And that insurance costs you not a penny. It is always paid up to date and in full force.

That insurance is the advertising here in your newspaper. Advertised products are standardized, perfected and carefully priced before they are ever advertised.

Whether you are buying soap, clothing, shoes, toothpaste, food or electrical household appliances, the result is the same. You get reliable, economical merchandise whenever you buy by the advertisements.

Make up your insured shopping list in the comfort and quiet of your own home. Compare the merits of the products advertised. Study the way in which each is adapted to your needs.

You'll find advertising truthful, informing and interesting. That's the only sort that pays, you know.

Every dollar you spend on advertised merchandise is insured against waste
