AT THE THEATERS

"The Border Whirlwind" At The Colonial

The story of a man who vows to catch the mysterious figure who has been bringing death and destruction to the entire countryside is told in "The Border Whirlwind," starring Bob Custer which is now playing at the Colonial theater. The killer is known as "The Scorpion," and so far all who have tried to trail him have met the same fate—death. However, Tom Blake, the part played by Custer, is young, dauntless and full of daring courage. In addition to this he is known in the desert country as the best rider and all look to him to rid the country of its menace. He is spurred to desperate action when his father is killed by the unknown enemy, and finally through his sweatheart, comes upon a clue for the identity of the mysterious person. It is only after a ride over a mountain trail which none have dared before, and an escape from his captors which is remarkable for its ingenuity, that the intrepid Tom is able to fulfill his vow. The girl's role is played with charm by the lovely Sally Long. Others in the cast are: Josef Swickard, Wilbur Higby, Winifred Landie, Philip Steiman, Baby Nelson, Julian Elveto and Evelyn Sherman. The direction was handled by John P. McCarthy.

"The Chaser" Is Uproarious Film Comedy

Uproarious action, a strong comedy theme which is also human in its application, the inimitable Langdon pantomime and a succession of "gags" that are guaranteed to tear peals of laughter from a wooden Indian combine to make Harry Langdon's latest comedy one of the most delightful fables of celluloid entertainment of the year. "The Chaser," as his most recent vehicle is called, revolves around the adventures and difficulties of a husband who is almost "kissless." Osculatory starvation, a theory of handling husbands evolved by a stern mother-in-law, seems to work for a time; but when Harry finally does embark on a kissing campaign, what happens is a positive panel! "The Chaser" is playing at the Star theater for the last time tonight. Gladys McConnell has the principal feminine role and twenty-five famous bathing beauties decorate the cast. Bud Johnson and Helen Hayward are also seen in support of the star.

"Burning Daylight," the first National picture coming to the Star theater Thursday and Friday is taken from Jack London's famous novel of the same name, and after a manner epitomizes the life of the author himself. London, after a battling existence at sea and in the wilds of Alaska, came back to civilization and tried to enjoy himself. So does the famous character, "Burning Daylight," in this story. Milton Sills is starred, with Doris Kenyon, Arthur Stone and others in support.

Comedy Showing Now At The Arcade Theater

A new co-starring team of screen luminaries makes its first local appearance in the Universal-Jewel production, "The Irresistible Lover," which is showing at the Arcade theater today and Thursday and from all indications will soon be the comedy team of pictures. Norman Kerry and Lois Moran are perfectly suited for each other, cinematically speaking, of course, and with continued capable direction, such as "The Irresistible Lover" boasts of, should go far together. Each is a perfect foil for the other and both are very pleasing to the eye, which is of paramount importance.

The story concerns the continual hot water in which Kerry finds himself because of his many and varied love affairs. He falls in love with blondes, brunettes, red-heads and in-between with equal abandon and falls out just as easily until he meets Miss Moran. From then on his efforts are confined to convincing her of his real worth. He eventually succeeds, but not before he has lost her several times and provided the audience with more amusement than they have seen in many a day.

The supporting cast includes among many others, Myrtle Steiman, Gertrude Arthur, Arthur Lake, Lee Moran, Phillips Smalley, and George Pearce. "Rainy Days" may be made bright, indeed, if you spend the afternoon or evening at the Arcade theater, where the latest hilarious offering of Hal Roach's rasnals, the kiddies of "Our Gang" are now to be seen in their latest opus, entitled "Rainy Days." It is declared one of their greatest comedies.

Jumps From Eiffel Tower to His Death

PARIS, Mar. 21 (AP)—The balloon jumper Botal in testing a new parachute jumped 380 feet to his death yesterday from the second platform of the Eiffel tower. Tests had been made successfully previously with sandbags, but when Botal jumped the parachute failed to open. He was the second person to die in attempting a parachute jump from the tower.

Scores of tests have been made from the Eiffel tower, with dumplings since the war. Most of these tests have been successful but a man has never yet succeeded in floating down from the tall tower.

What we crave to know is where and how the point of a fountain pen picks up all those fuzzy little woolies which it always is dragging around in its teeth.

"Ethel," he said, "I have seen the doctor. He said I must give up smoking at once. He tells me one lung is already nearly gone." She flinched; a look of agony came over her pale young face. "Oh, Raymond, can't you hold out a little longer, till we get enough coupons for a new rug?"

DIVORCE
They used to be rare. But now a divorce. Appears to be merely a matter of course.

"Been on a hunting trip, eh? Did you bag anything?" "Oh, I got some ducks." "I told you you didn't shoot 'em; bought 'em, most likely." "I did both. Unfortunately, just as I was putting them in my bag, the farmer who owned them came along."

"Yes, bo, I am an athlete of the first water. I throw the dimes for 'em." "Well, you're an individual. I throw the switch for the C. & O."

Masie—"He's got a lot of culture, hasn't he?" "Mac—" "Yes, but it's all physical."

Better begin right now if you want to do your next Christmas shopping real early.

A lot of unhappiness is caused by trying to keep up with others who are trying to get ahead of others.

Guaranteed

If you are going to invest in guaranteed securities, it would be well to investigate just the extent of the guarantee, as it does not always guarantee full payment, but merely guarantees the bond itself. The paper on which the guarantee is written is worth very little.
