

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special) — Charles Cleaver has resigned his position at the Western store and is devoting his whole time now to the care of his place on the edge of Imbler.

Wayne Welch left Thursday morning to resume his work at Willamette university following a brief visit at the home of his father, C. C. Welch.

An old-time dance is being given this Thursday evening at the Amusement hall by the Pythian Sisters.

Miss Anna Brooks leaves tomorrow for Portland and Newport where she will spend the summer.

Tomorrow, Friday evening, the juniors at the Imbler high school will present their annual play "The Go-Getters" at Wade hall. Members of the cast have been working on the production for the past several weeks under the direction of Mrs. Allen, high school instructor and a creditable evening's entertainment is promised. The junior play has always attracted a capacity house and it is expected that Friday evening's bill will be no exception.

An interesting general assembly was held in the high school auditorium last Friday. Besides the customary business session which was presided over by the student body president, Lynn Woodell, to several groups were awarded letters for work done so far this year. Supt. R. L. Morgan made the presentation to the following groups: Stock Judging: Marion Pugh, Lyle Ledbetter and Emory Oliver; football: Donald Brown, Fred Crowder, James Fehr, Harold Oliver, Marion Pugh, Ernest Pugh, James Redmond, Ekford Smith, Leonard Wagner, Lynn Woodell and Jack McPhail. Basketball letters will be awarded this week to Lynn Woodell, Gene Perry, Lyle Ledbetter, Virgil Choute, James Fehr and Ekford Smith.

Much spring plowing is being started in the vicinity. Until within the last few days, the ground has been too wet for any but a very few to begin spring work. The rain which started in this vicinity Wednesday night may retard the work for a few days yet, but it is hoped that may not be the case. Work is going on also in the orchards, where pruning is well under way and in many instances completed. Lambing which has occupied the time and attention of many sheep raisers around here is very largely over with high percentages reported in many bands.

COOLIDGE JR. IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22 (AP)—John Coolidge returned to Washington last night to spend a ten days spring vacation with his parents at the White House.

OUT OUR WAY

COVE PERSONALS

COVE (Special)—The MacKenzie Hall is now used as gymnasium by the school, and are doing a little remodeling on the stage. The work has fallen to the senior and junior classes, who are sharing the expenses. They have purchased plaster board for the back and sides and used stained strips to cover the seams of joining, making a very noticeable improvement.

The doll house made by the manual training class in almost completed. It is now being wired for electric lights.

With school work, stage building and vaudeville practices all week, the students and teachers have been unusually busy. Instead of having class, members of the Junior science class cleaned science cupboards Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. They arranged all apparatus and supplies in alphabetical order. This will facilitate matters greatly in next year's work.

Royal Horkgren missed the past week of school because of an attack of flu.

The girls' baseball team recently elected Stella Blank as their captain.

The seventh Junior vaudeville was put on Friday night to a very appreciative audience. Apparently it was a success as every one pronounced it a "good show."

High school was dismissed Friday afternoon to allow a final practice of the vaudeville on the stage.

The boys' baseball team elected Edward Bristow as captain.

Some people's idea of making may while the sun shines is to charge double when it rains.

There are still a few CHANDELIER ACROBATS

but MODERN HOMES have

G-E Convenience Outlets and Tumbler Switches

HERE we have a chilled, though skilled Chandelier Acrobat taking his morning exercise. Some day he'll really wake up, and call in an Electrical Contractor to bring his wiring up-to-date!

A G-E Twin Convenience Outlet would accommodate both the electric heater and a reading lamp—or provide an extra connection for the electric cleaner.

A G-E Tumbler Switch would be an equal blessing to this early riser, whose futile groping has so often resulted in a barked shiel! The tumbler switch snaps on or off at a touch of finger or elbow.

Easy, Quick and Inexpensive to Install

Either of these modern necessities can be placed in any room, wherever needed. Your Electrical Contractor will do the work in a jiffy—without damaging walls or woodwork, without inconvenience to you. The cost is moderate—the comfort, priceless!

But—whether you need a single fixture or a complete wiring or re-wiring job—be sure to specify G-E Wiring System materials. G-E means General Electric; and General Electric means lifetime equality. Your home deserves the best!
