The regular meeting of Lutheran Ladies Aid society was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Clausen with 25 persons in attendance. There was no business session and Dr. George H. Hillerman, who is conducting a Lenten mission at the English Lutheran church here, led in the devotional and gave a very instructive and inspiring talk on what women had accomplished in the work of the church.

A social hour was enjoyed following Dr. Hillerman's talk, when quilt blocks were passed and among the members. On Wednesday of next week the women will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Wurt to complete the quilt.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met in regular session at the Knights of Pythias hall last night. During the business meeting of the lodge one application for membership was received.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft are erecting a new headquarters building in Portland and are planning a dedication of the new structure next year. The Grande Ronde circle voted last night to send Captain Gertrude Sullivan, 16 guards, a flag bearer and a banner bearer to Portland for the dedication, and the lodge will begin work immediately to raise money to defray the expense of the trip. Plans were made for a dance to be given Thursday evening, April 12, at the Sacajawea Inn, to which the public is invited.

A social hour, consisting of music and games was enjoyed before adjournment, with Mrs. Miss Smith and Mrs. Evalena Kellogg in charge.

The Sewing Circle of the Church of God met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. M. Zigler, 1716 Cherry street. The afternoon was spent in making quilt blocks, and talking over plans for future work.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Fager and Mrs. Zigler.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

Yesterday, a number of illustrations were given showing North hands that should jump South's major suit bid from one to two and hands which are just short of the strength requisite for such jump. There is one point, however, in connection with the jump which was not considered and that is the value of an Ace, King or Queen of the suit that is jumped. How valuable the honor is depends greatly on the number of cards of that suit the jumper holds. When, in addition to the honor, he has three small cards, the combination is worth more than a side Ace. For example Ace-x-x-x, King-x-x-x or Queen-x-x-x needs only the assistance of a side King to justify the jump. Ace-x-x or King-x-x may be considered the equal of a side Ace; and Queen-x-x as the equal of a side King. That is, with one of these holdings in the trump suit, the side strength requirements may be reduced as indicated.

With Ace-x, or King-x, of the suit to be jumped, the honor should be counted merely as a part of the normal support and the side hand should have practically the total jumping strength which is required as a complement to x-x-x of the suit bid.

Four small cards of the suit (x-x-x-x) being more than normal support is an element of strength to be considered. When the side hand, in addition to this holding, has an Ace and King, the jump should be made. Illustrations of minimum jumps from one to two in which the strength in the hand being jumped affects the situation follow:

Spades (Partner's Suit)	No. 1 A-X-X-X	No. 2 A-X-X
Suit 2	K-X-X	K-X-X-X
Suit 3	X-X-X	X-X-X
Suit 4	X-X-X	X-X-X

With No. 1, the jump should be made because the fourth Spade combined with the Ace of Spades gives sufficient strength to jump should not be made because the hand has only three Spades and is on a par with a hand in which the trump strength is x-x-x and in which the side strength consists of an Ace and King of different suits.

Other hands with which the jump should be made are:

Spades (Partner's Suit)	No. 3 Q-X-X-X	No. 4 K-X
Suit 2	A-X-X	A-X-X-X
Suit 3	X-X-X-X	K-Q-X-X
Suit 4	X-X-X	X-X-X

Spring Weather Prevails Over Wallowa County

WALLOWA, Ore., Mar. 23. (Special)—Ideal spring weather conditions have prevailed over this section of the country during the last several days. The freezing at night has become much less than that of last week. Bright warm days are causing the remaining snow banks to melt away rapidly and all streams coming off the hills are running full blast. The frost has been leaving the soil gradually for the past month and has let a large amount of the moisture from the snow and rains go into the ground. The ground is very soft at present, with many deep mudholes in the dirt roads. However, with continued sunshine, the roads will be dry in many parts of the country in a few days.

Grass has started up rapidly during the past week, and some stock have been taken off the feed yards and placed in some of the pastures. M. J. Seiver recently moved a bunch of sheep from his farm on Diamond Prairie to the McDonald hill pasture a few miles east of town. The long spell of winter when large amounts of feed were required to keep stock in good condition, cleaned up the greater part of the large quite tart with lemon juice and vinegar and thickened with a little flour.

Salsify Salad
Four roots oyster plant or salsify, 1/2 cup diced celery, 2 pimientos, 1/4 cup English walnut meats, French dressing, lettuce.
Scrub salsify and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Drop immediately into cold water and rub off skin. Cut into dice. Combine with celery, pour over French dressing and let stand on ice for thirty minutes. Arrange on lettuce, garnish with strips of pimientos and sprinkle with nuts. This is an excellent salad for this time of year. Salsify is at its best and quite inexpensive.

Our Customers are Found in Every Part of the City

Ours is a neighborhood, suburban food store—but our "neighbors" are found in every corner of the city of La Grande and throughout the surrounding country.

There must be a good reason—a satisfying reason—for the large business enjoyed by Joel's. It's true that our policy is to undersell on quality foods—a policy made possible by the low overhead expense of a residential location—but few people buy because of price alone. Perhaps it's because we sell satisfaction as well as food—friendliness, courtesy, personal attention, every item guaranteed, credit convenience, our own delivery. It pays in many ways to shop at Joel's.
