Club Women And Campfire Girls Will Entertain

About 150 little garments made by the Campfire girls of La Grande as their national campfire birthday project for Red Cross relief work will be on display when the La Grande Neighborhood club, together with the Campfire Guardians' association, entertains at a silver tea Saturday, March 30, from 2 until 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Adolph Siegrist, at the corner of Walnut and Washington.

These children's garments which will be exhibited are to be distributed by the local Red Cross chapter among the needy families of La Grande and vicinity by special permission of the national campfire headquarters. Campfire girls all over the nation are carrying out the same project.

Mrs. Sherwood Williams, Neighborhood club president, will preside over the program, which includes several interesting numbers. The Neighborhood club youth quartet, under the direction of Mrs. Leo Miller, will play several selections. Mrs. W. H. Holmenkamp Jr., Mrs. Leo Russell will each sing a group of numbers. Miss Ruth Johnson, member of the La Grande high school faculty, will give a piano recital. Miss Dorothy Brown will furnish piano music. Misses Barbara and Beverly Guye will play a piano duet and Adolph Siegrist Jr. will play a lute solo, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Meyers at the piano.

Both the Neighborhood club members and the Campfire Guardians will share honors as hostesses. The rooms will be decorated in keeping with the spring season with daffodils and pussywillows, in a color scheme of yellow, silver and white.

All Neighborhood club members, mothers of campfire girls, and others interested in the campfire girl work are invited to attend. The proceeds from the tea will go into the service fund of the campfire girls.

A special meeting of the Riverbank Parent Teachers' association was held last evening at the school building when two motion picture machines were demonstrated by a representative of a school supply company of Spokane. The association has been considering the purchase of a picture machine for the use of the school students in their regular study for some time, and the 20 members at the meeting last night were well pleased with the demonstration.

Both machines were of a portable type, one being a motion picture machine with a stereoscopic slide attachment, and the other a motion picture machine only. No action was taken on the purchase of either machine; however, if the association does decide to buy, the machine will not be delivered until next September, when the next school term begins.

Club Adjourns Until Next Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard and Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Bramwell entertained the members of the Tuesday Evening Bridge club at an attractive bridge-dinner last evening. Dinner was at 7 o'clock at the Foley hotel, and afterwards the party adjourned to the Eberhard home, where four tables of bridge were at play during the remainder of the evening. Mrs. Harley Smith made high score among the women players and the men's prize went to Grant Fogle.

It was the last meeting of the club this season. After the card games the club adjourned to meet again in the fall.

Complimenting Mrs. Cyril Griffiths, formerly Miss Isabella Miller, whose marriage was a recent event, Miss Gladys Miller and Miss Hulda Anderson entertained a few intimate friends at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at the William Miller home on H avenue.

The affair was a surprise to Mrs. Griffiths and a delightful evening was spent visiting and knitting glass towels for the honor guest, Mrs. Griffiths received many lovely gifts.

At a late hour the hostesses served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths left here Saturday morning for Pocatello, Ida., where they will make their home after a day spent here visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. M. Miller. Their marriage took place here Sunday, March 11.

Four women from the La Grande Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge went to Union last evening, where they attended the regular meeting of the Union lodge. Those making the trip were Mrs. Ray Buell, Mrs. Jack Hilary, Mrs. H. A. Maguire and Mrs. Tall.

After the regular lodge meeting there was a social hour, during which time refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. W. Leighton entertained at a birthday dinner party Saturday evening honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Leighton. Covers were laid for 10 around a table which was prettily decorated with bouquets of the season's flowers as a centerpiece. An excellent dinner was served.

Miss Liletta Leighton was the inspiration for an attractive dinner party at the Sacajawea Inn above was home from Willamette university for the spring vacation. Mrs. R. E. Tyler and Miss Leona Welch were the hostesses. Miss Leighton returned to Salem to resume her studies Sunday. She is a senior at the university and is house manager and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha.

Guests Arrive In Old-Time Costumes

GRANGE HALL. (Special)—When the members of the Country Women's club assembled Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Holman in regular session those present were reminded of bygone days. Many of the members came dressed in old-fashioned costume and the program was carried out along the same lines. An interesting feature of the afternoon was an Auction Sale conducted by Mrs. C. E. Roebuck and Mrs. Charles Zant. Every article in the sale represented a picture and the highest bidder paid for her purchase in beans. Mrs. C. E. Golden and Mrs. J. E. Anson each gave a reading.

Preceding the program a short business session was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. R. A. Masterton.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Holman, assisted by her daughter, Miss Minnie Holman, served a two-course luncheon to the 35 club members and two guests present. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. R. A. Masterton, April 13.

GRANGE HALL. (Special)—Mrs. Charles Gekeler was hostess to the Birthday Dinner club Thursday at her home here. At 12:30 o'clock dinner was served at one large table, where covers were laid for 14. During the afternoon the hostess exhibited many articles which she had obtained while abroad during the time of the World war. Mrs. Gekeler, who spent 18 months in the service as a nurse, told many interesting incidents which occurred during that time, most of which was spent stationed at Manila.

Mrs. Knoch Johnson, who makes her home near Hot Lake, and Miss Mildred Spencer, were guests. Mrs. George Hughes joined the party at the afternoon.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. I. D. Snautz, April 26.

Announcements

The executive committee of the Woman's society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. A. Fox, Wednesday, March 28, at 2 o'clock. All officers and chairmen of committees are expected to attend the meeting.

The Bible Searchers' class of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the community room of the church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. William Condit, Mrs. W. P. Mohr and Mrs. E. G. Kirby as hostesses. Members are asked to bring a needle, thimble, thread and scissors.

The Woman's Benefit association will meet promptly at 7 o'clock this evening at the K. P. hall. There will be a social time after the regular meeting and plans are to open the meeting early to have more time for the party afterwards. Cards will be played.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. S. Hanson, 1294 Sixth street.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed rhubarb, cereal, cream, potato omelet, crisp toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Lima beans baked with cheese, beet and cabbage salad, prune whip, milk, tea.

Dinner—Codfish pie, apple and raisin salad, cherry pudding, milk, coffee.
These are well balanced menus planned for meatless days in Lent. The codfish pie is rather out of the ordinary and very good.

Codfish Pie
Three-fourths pound salt codfish, 2 large sweet green peppers, 1 tablespoon olive oil, 1 onion, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1 bouillon cube, 1/2 cup boiling water, 2 teaspoons flour, 6 medium-sized boiled potatoes, 4 tablespoons buttered bread crumbs.

Let fish soak in lukewarm water to more than cover for three hours. Drain and shred. Simmer over a low fire until tender. Drain. Put oil in frying pan, add onion, peeled and minced with parsley, and cook until onion is a pale straw color. Add peppers, seeded and cut in shreds and tomatoes. Simmer 20

OUT OUR WAY

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Yesterday the following problem was given: The contract, Hearts; South Declarer; North, Dummy; the initial lead is shown. How should Declarer operate his twenty-six cards?

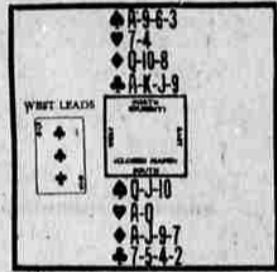

Declarer's Plan of Campaign? Declarer will see that his combined hands will produce six trumps tricks, two Diamond tricks, one Spade trick and two Club tricks, so there is no question about the game; but with so strong a hand he wants at least a Small Slam. If he should depend solely upon the success of the Club finesse for his slam, he would fail if the King of Clubs be held by West, because he has a losing Spade in each hand. Getting one discard from Closed Hand on Dummy's Ace of Diamonds will be either a Spade which Dummy could trump, or a Club which would be a winner even if the Club finesse should fail. Getting two Spade discards, however, would be a very different story because Declarer then could make a Grand Slam if the Club finesse won, a Small Slam if it lost. In order to try for the double, declarer should attempt to establish Dummy's Diamonds, as follows: Pass the first Diamond trick up to the King in the Closed Hand; trick 2, lead a small trump from Closed Hand, winning in Dummy; trick 3, either the Ace of Diamonds or a small Diamond from Dummy. The small lead is a shade the safer because it is just possible that the opening Diamond lead was a singleton. That is not likely but there is no need to take an unnecessary risk. Declarer, leading a small Diamond from Dummy to trick 3, will trump with an honor in Closed Hand and note carefully whether both adversaries follow. If they do, he will lead another small trump from Closed Hand to trick 4, winning in Dummy; and if the adverse trump is followed by another Diamond, followed by another Diamond. If the adverse trumps are not all exhausted, he again will lead a small Diamond, trumping high and carefully noting whether both adversaries follow. If they both follow this time, the adverse Diamond division will have been 4-3 which is probable, and Declarer will be able to get his two discards. For a third time he will put Dummy in the lead with a trump, lead out the Diamonds and secure two discards, thus getting rid of the two losing Spades. He will then lead the Jack of Clubs from Dummy, playing the Ten on it from the Closed

Hand, and add bouillon cube dissolved in water. Stir flour to a smooth paste with a little cold water and stir into tomato mixture. Cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Cut potatoes in thin slices and cover the bottom of a buttered baking dish. Add a layer of fish, cover with sauce and add another layer of potatoes, fish and sauce until all is used. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Serve from baking dish.

Well, we still have the lame ducks with us in Washington—not to mention the silly geese.

Tomorrow's Hand

South is the Declarer playing a No Trump contract. The question is how he should plan to play the hand. Answer tomorrow.

COVE PERSONALS

COVE (Special)—Supt. Roy Conklin, of Union, visited the Cove schools on Friday afternoon. Little Billy Gale, of Union, is a guest at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Bloom. The present corps of teachers in the Cove school will nearly all remain for another year. Those planning to stay are Prof. J. R. Price, Mrs. E. E. Coad, and Mrs. Fletcher of the high school, Mrs. J. E. Mills, Mrs. Ray Duncan and Mrs. Conklin of the grades. There are 3000 bootleggers in Washington, says a statistician. That may be one reason why much of the legislation is all wet.
