AT THE THEATERS

Mystery Western Showing At The Star

An unusually powerful story, one with a background and characters particularly colorful for a Western, is showing today and Wednesday at the Star theater with Bob Steele, the 21-year-old FBO star, in the title role. It is "Driftin' Sands," Oliver Drake's adaptation of an original story by W. C. Tuttle. A dashing young cowboy, played by Bob, and known as Driftin' Sands, falls in love with the daughter of the rancher at a rancho on the Mexican border. His employer, a proud old Dan, is the father of a very beautiful girl, with whom Sands falls in love against his father's wishes.

Lots three (3) and four (4) Block six (6) Predmore Addition to La Grande, Union County, Oregon, for the purpose of paying claims against the estate.

WITNESS, the Hon. U. G. Couch, Judge of the County Court of the County of Union, with the seal affixed this 8th day of March, 1928. (Seal)

C. K. McCORMICK, Clerk.

E. R. Ringo, Attorney for Administratrix, M13-26-27-28

NOTICE OF FILING OF FINAL ACCOUNT

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.

In the Matter of the Estate of Cora A. Gray, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed his final account as executor of the estate of Cora A. Gray, deceased, and the County Court of Union County, Oregon, has fixed Monday, the 16th day of April, 1928, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at its court room at the court house in La Grande, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing any and all objections to the said final account and settlement of said estate.

Green & Hess, Attorneys for Executor, Mar. 6-12-27-Apr. 3.

press his fellow cowboys. After several wild circuits of the ranchyard, the machine suddenly strikes a snag and tosses him right over the corral fence onto the back of a steer which promptly proceeds to express its resentment of such incidents by means of the wildest bucking imaginable.

This is only one of the comedy scenes which make "Roarin' Bronco" unusually interesting western melodrama, and you'll be well rewarded if you visit the Star theater today or Wednesday where it will be one of the features of the double program.

"Baby Mine" Is Hilarity

Four characters—a dozen complications, and a veritable hurricane of fun—these are what make up the details of "Baby Mine," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's second hilarious vehicle for the comedy team of Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, waited to fame on a gale of merriment in "Bonnie," and now the comedy of a new series of larks at the Arcade theater, where it is showing today and Wednesday.

"Baby Mine" is just one laugh after another. Adapted from one of the most famous stage comedies, the screen version preserves all the original fun—to which is added not only the Dane-Arthur combination of laughmakers but Charlotte Greenwood, lady comedienne of "The Long Legs" and other famous stage shows. It's Charlotte's debut on the screen, incidentally—but judging by the laughs she gets it's not going to be her last appearance by a good deal.

The trio are responsible for a solid hour and more of chuckles, giggles and guffaws. The courtship of Dane and Miss Greenwood is extraordinarily funny, as are the varied episodes and complications over the stolen babies in the reconciliation scenes—and Arthur and the blueberry pie stage a series of scenes that reduces the audience to the verge of hysteria.

Louise Lorraine, who plays the "straight" feminine lead as the girl Arthur is courting, adds enormous to the ensemble of hilarity.

Principal comedy moments are in the clinic scenes at the "University of Vertebral Manipulation," in the chase for the stolen babies, and the hilarious courtship scenes between Dane and Miss Greenwood.

As aforesaid, there's not a serious instant in it—it is created solely to make people laugh; which it does—and how!

"No, Margaret is one of those four losers."

Jones: "I see the women are patronizing the barber shops as much as the men nowadays."

Green: "Yes, and doesn't serve some of those talkative barbers right?"
