AT THE THEATERS

Jannings Scores At Arcade In "Last Command"

If Emil Jannings continues making such great pictures, critics throughout the world will find it hard to procure adjectives to adequately describe them.

Jannings has scored again, this time in a remarkable characterization as a military general. His newest Paramount picture has been titled "The Last Command," and it opened a three-day engagement at the Arcade theater this afternoon.

This American-born German actor presents in this new production so commendable a figure that it cannot be compared to those of "The Way of All Flesh," and "Variety."

Added to this remarkable characterization is an able director, Josef von Sternberg, who directed "Underworld," and a supporting cast that might be classed as "all-star" the list of players including William Powell, Evelyn Brent and Michael Visaroff.

"The Last Command" is a story of the red revolt in Russia, showing Jannings as a mighty general, strictly military but beloved by his men. He befriends a girl but imprisons her companion, the girl in turn saving him from death at the hands of the blood-mad revolutionists. He then comes to America in search of this fair savior, and there the thread of the story takes a strange twist.

It is a gripping story, one with poignant love and drama, mystery, and thrills, so far different from "The Way of All Flesh" and "Variety" that it is hard to believe the same star played in them all.

Great settings mark "The Last Command" as an elaborate production, and the fine acting of everyone, particularly that of Jannings, marks it as one of the mightiest pictures ever made.

Comedy, Thrills In Hoot Gibson Film at Star

A race against his bitter enemy and the law, with a girl as the prize, is one of the thrilling scenes in "The Rawhide Kid," the Universal picture to be screened at the Star theater today and Friday. Hard - riding, straight - shooting Hoot Gibson is the star of this clean, vigorous drama, replete with thrills, comedy and romance.

Universal has given Hoot a wonderfully gripping play and to it has been added a splendid supporting cast. Frank Hagney, as J. Francis Jackson, does his best by fair means and foul, mostly foul, to win the girl and thwart Dennis O'Hara, the latter impersonated by Gibson.

Then there is Harry Todd, one of the screen's finest comedians, who gives to his characterization some of the best work of his career. William H. Strauss, a stage actor for many years, adds much with his characterization of the father.

This latest Gibson play gives the ever popular Hoot a rare opportunity to display his wonderful horsemanship for he rides like a whirlwind in one of the most spectacular horse races ever filmed. Universal gathered together a wonderful group of cowpunchers who push Hoot hard for the honors as the wildly galloping animals do all the tricks and stunts known in racing.

Pretty Georgia Hale, who may be remembered for her stellar work in Charlie Chaplin comedies, plays the leading feminine role opposite the popular Hoot with Tom Lingham and others appearing in prominent supporting roles. Del Andrews directed the picture.

In addition to the feature picture, two comedies of outstanding merit will also be shown. One stars Charley Chase in "The Family Group" and the other one is "Smith's Cousin" with Mary Ann Jackson.

Dr. Frank Speaks At Forestry Conference

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Mar. 29 (AP)—"Patent medicine minds which look for a panacea that will provide an immediate cure for our problems," are blamed by Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin for the lack of a satisfactory solution of reforestation questions. There are no "pink pills for pale forestry", he told the Wisconsin commercial forestry conference last night.

Industries and agencies interested in reforestation from every section of the country are represented at the conference which is the first of its kind ever held in the United States. It is sponsored by the United States chamber of commerce.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia usually start with a cold. The moment you get those warning aches rub on good old Musterole.

Musterole relieves the congestion and stimulates circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Have Musterole handy for emergency use. It may prevent serious illness.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.
