

IMBLER PERSONALS

IMBLER (Special)—The calendar at the high school shows a number of important school events scheduled for the next week or so. The baseball team under the direction of Coach Menegat is getting a good workout each day after school. The team is short of experienced pitching material, but several boys are doing consistent work in the box and show improvement thus far. The first game of the spring schedule comes tomorrow, Friday afternoon, when Imbler meets Cove. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Saturday evening the A. G. S. party will be held in Wade hall and promises to be quite an event. It is an invitation affair. Mrs. Thomas is faculty adviser.

Tonight the sophomore class play "The Path Across the Hills" will be given. With nightly rehearsals the production is coming along nicely. Prof. Menegat is coaching the play.

Miss Bernice Black is back at school again after having gone through a siege of the mumps. Although other members of the family stayed out of school, none of them contracted the disease. Miss Lola Kassinger who has also been out on the same account is expected to be in school within the next few days.

Friday night, the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters give a dance for the benefit of Wade hall. It will be held at the hall.

On the same evening, preceding this party the regular meeting of the Imbler Parent-Teacher association will be held. This is a very important meeting with the annual election of officers to be one of the items of business.

The second issue of the Imbler Gossip, the official high school publication, is due for circulation soon. It is now on the press.

Supt. Morgan is kept exceedingly busy these days caring for his school duties and also superintending moving operations. The Morgan family and the Brown family are exchanging residences, the Morgans taking the large Westenskow house.

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

Harold Cole, a freshman, does way. Rides are offered some days not back for exercise. Every day but it is not the rule. While there are a number of Alice to Imbler to attend school, pupils out of school now with the and no day the past winter was too mumps, there are others coming stormy or cold for his little hike of back. The situation is being watch-something around four miles each ed very carefully and every precaution is being taken that the school work may not be greatly interrupted, as has been the case in some other sections of the county.

EGYPT BUYING CEMENT
CAIRO (AP)—Lack of stones and lumber combined with plentiful supply of sand and gravel, has increased Egypt's need for cement, and imports show steady and rather rapid growth. Most of it is bought in Yugoslavia, Belgium, Germany, the United Kingdom and France. Underground cellars, heretofore impractical because of the damp climate, have been made satisfactory by cement and waterproofing materials.

BROOM MAKERS TO MEET
ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Broom and brush manufacturers, distributors and users will meet here next week to discuss the possibility of decreasing the number of styles and sizes of household and industrial brushes and brooms. Over-diversification is said to tie up a tremendous amount of capital in snow-moving lines.

An English writer says American men are far behind the march of civilization. He must have seen a man taking a Peking-see out for a walk.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—George Woods, a farmer of the Evans & family was a business visitor in town the last of the week. Mrs. L. W. Minor received word from her mother, Mrs. Tennant, who recently went to Boise, Ida., that she was starting on her return trip to her home at Milk River, Canada. Mrs. Tennant spent the greater portion of the winter at the Minor home here.

T. G. Johnson, local dairyman who operates the milk route here, has been busy recently putting in some up-to-date equipment in the way of a vat and separator and cooler for handling the milk business.

Mr. Bales, manager of the Skaggs Safeway store here, has been confined to his home the past several days with the mumps.

Mrs. H. O. Anderson, Mrs. L. W. Minor and Mrs. J. B. Gastin were Enterprise visitors the latter part of the week.

W. M. Downing who has rented the Charles Klinghammer farm in the Leap section, was a business visitor in town during the past week.

Bruce Fisher, of Leap, has been busy recently setting his brooder house and equipment in shape for the arrival of a shipment of day-old chicks, which he expects during the coming week.

John Doud, of Promise, was a business visitor in town the latter part of the week.

Ted Brown has been busy the past several days splitting wood for C. F. Harmon.

L. V. Lathrop, of Leap, was a business visitor in town the latter part of the week.

Jess Allen, of Middle Valley, was in town recently. He states that he expects to move his cattle to range the first of the coming week.

C. F. Harmon and wife, of Leap, were in town the latter part of the week. Mr. Harmon coming in to consult Dr. Gregory.

A considerable number of farmers of the Lower Valley section were in attendance at a ditch meeting held at the school house Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Lathrop and baby who have been visiting relatives in this section for the past two weeks, left Sunday for their home at Payette, Idaho.

A special meeting of Wallowa grange No. 603 was held here Saturday afternoon, and was attended by a considerable number of members. A change in the time of meeting for the summer months when farmers are engaged in busy work was made. During the next few months but one meeting will be held each month this being at night, at which time efforts will be made to provide entertainment which will prove interesting to all.

"The political bee" has been buzzing considerably in this county during the past two weeks, with the recent announcement of C. A. Franter, to the effect that he would not again be a candidate for the position of joint representative from Union and Wallowa counties, the names of several other men of the county have been mentioned as possible candidates for this office, while none in this section with the exception of Supt. O. F. Camp-

You have never tasted fresh tea
(unless it was Schilling's)

Much as you may have enjoyed other teas - - you still have never known the fresh, fragrant flavor of tea as it is enjoyed in the Orient. This is not a criticism of other teas. For in spite of all precaution, no one could keep tea fresh - - until Schilling discovered the way. Schilling tea is kept fresh for you by a secret-patented process - - then preserved in a vacuum tin just like your coffee. There is no other tea flavor so delicious this side of the Orient.

Would you like to know what really fresh tea tastes like? Then try Schilling's - - just once. Try a tin of any size. Your grocer returns your money at once if, compared cup by cup with any other tea, you don't like Schilling's best!
