TWIN ROBBERS

NEW ORLEANS, Apr. 5 (AP)—Twin robbers made their appearance here yesterday when two men dressed identically even to the shade of their scarfs, held up the cashier of the fashionable Bienville hotel and escaped with $300 and a number of checks.

BARNUM WAS RIGHT
She: Do you love me?
He: More than life.
She: Will you do anything for me?
He: Anything.
She: Wait here then and tell father that I've gone out with Bill. You see father doesn't approve of Bill.

Pocket books to fit the new sized currency are being designed. But to many citizens this will be regarded as a superfluous. Their pocket books are shrunk in advance.

Just a few more weeks and gardens will be making two weeds where one grew before.

Blowing off more than you can chew is all right provided you don't get indigestion!

Mrs. Smith—This "ere fellow thinks 'e can sing like Caruso.

Mrs. Brown—Well, they do say 'ow Caruso 'ad a beautiful voice but 'ow could they know, with 'im stranded on that island with nobody to hear him but Friday?

He (after long argument)—"I wonder what would happen if you and I ever agreed on anything."

She—"I'd be wrong."

Sorrows of Stone Age Steno

The boss came in with a peach of a grouch. Tossing his club into a corner, he belabored:

"Take a letter to the landlord. 'Dear Sir: This is the last time I'm going to ask you to get this place fixed up period unless you have that flock of snar-toothed tigers chased out of the next cave before the end of the week you can start looking around for another tenant semicolon I'm tired of trying to get anything done with those thimble-dats cats yowling all day. . . ."

"Oh, Mr. Steno, please don't go so fast! I've already broken my best chisel and smashed three fingers!"

"Can you fix me up to look like a Gump or a Stenard or even a Hottentot?" asked the nervous man, who had dropped into the customer's shop.

"Just what's the idea—do you want a costume for a masquerade party or what?" asked the puzzled shopkeeper.

"No," replied the man. "I am an Englishman and I have to go to Chicago on business."

FOR SALE

34 acres, all in cultivation. House, good barn, water right, near market road in Cove, fruit and berries and alfalfa land. Price $4200. Terms, $1000 cash, no payment on principal for two years; thereafter $500 and interest at 6%. Permit me to show you this.

IF you are paying more than $9.50 per month on your mortgage, which includes the interest and payment on the principal, it might pay you big dividends to call and have me explain my plan. You who carry straight loans, and are continually having to ask for extensions or pay the cost of new financing, should be very much interested in my plan. We all expect our "ship" to come sailing into our harbor, but so few of us are safe pilots, we make too many detours. If you have a loan or need one, come in and let us talk it over.

AT THE THEATERS

Romantic Tale Of Adventure Comes To Star

Featured in "Woman Wins," a Fox Films production said to be packed with humor and high adventure in foreign places, William Russell, June Collyer and Walter Pidgeon are coming to the Star theater Saturday only.

The story, written by Donald McGibney and James K. McGuinness, is laid in the old fields of Persia and centers about the love affairs of Russell, as a peacemaker, and Pidgeon, a United States consul, in the land of the pashas. June Collyer, cast as a beautiful American girl, is sent to Jeddah to serve as assistant consul to Pidgeon. Adventure and fast action combine here to keep the entire cast keyed throughout the length of the story.

Hard fighting, hilarious comedy and keen human values have been capitalized by Director Hay to the best possible advantage.

In the strong supporting cast are twelve nationalities, ranging from Russian to American, and all have ample opportunity to display their ability. Included in the cast are Haoul Paoli, world-famed athlete and present shot-put and discus champion of France; Duke Kahanamoku, celebrated swimmer and Olympic game contender; Theodore Kosloff, internationally renowned dancer, and a number of others. The list includes Ernie Shields, one of the best-known comedians in the motion picture industry.

An Andy Gump comedy will also be shown in addition to another comedy.

Richard Dix Chalks Up Hit At Arcade

Versatility is Richard Dix's middle name.

At least it ought to be. For almost a year, he has played in nothing except heavy dramatic and melodramatic roles. Now he makes an about-face and gives us a hilarious farce.

The new picture is "Sporting Goods," the new attraction for today and Saturday at the Arcade theater. It is sure to attract all of Dix's regular fans, and, in addition, everybody in La Grande who enjoys a couple of hours of almost continuous laughter.

For this picture is funny. There are funny characters, and funny situations, and funny "gags," all performed by a capable cast and directed in sure-fire fashion by Malcolm St. Clair.

Dix is cast in a typical "young-American" role that of a happy-go-lucky salesman, who gets into tremendous (and comical) difficulties which he solves a girl to think he is a multi-millionaire. As the girl was portrayed by Gertrude Gimstead, he is not to blame at all, incidentally.

Dix's deception gets him into deep water—some of it muddy water, too—but eventually he extricates himself, saves the girl's fortune and then gets, one himself and her, too.

One of the funniest sequences in the picture was Dix's poker game, in which the villain, played by Philip Strange, and two other men, try to cheat Dix out of his money.

CHEST COLDS

Apply over throat and chest—covers with hot flannel cloth.

VICK'S VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

only to be foiled by their own trickery.
In addition to the feature picture Hal Roach presents Max Davidson, the famous Jewish comedian, in "Should I and My Husband Come First" and a late Paramount News reel is also being shown.

SINGER HANGS SELF

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Apr. 6 (AP)—Joe Massaro, 34, who 18 months ago was a prosperous fruit merchant here, but who left to take is dead. He hanged himself here after layering a note, written in Italian, "this world is no good for honest people."
