P. E. O. Chapter Enjoys Oregon Composer's Songs

Mrs. H. S. Brown and Mrs. A. H. Hunter were hostesses to Chapter I of P. E. O. yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Brown on O avenue. Dr. Margaret Ingle was program chairman and the subject was "Oregon Composers." She gave an interesting talk, after which she called upon various persons for musical numbers by Oregon composers.

Mrs. Ray Tuller sang "Yvette Yvonne" and "The Logical Owl" both by Dent Mowry. Mrs. Lynn Wright played three piano numbers, "Lover's Valse," "Dance Stan-Bo" and "Melodies and Legends" by Dr. Emil Enna, and Mrs. W. H. Rohnenkamp Jr. sang two selections by Katherine Glen, "Starlight" and "The Green is on the Grass," the words of the last number being by Ella Higginson, who is also an Oregon composer. Mrs. Harley H. Richardson played "Gavotte" and "Pierrot Dance" by Dent Mowry, and Mrs. George S. Blinnie sang two songs by Tom Tolson, "Fears of God" and "When I Was One and Pretty."

In addition to the program there was a short business meeting during the afternoon, which was presided over by Mrs. Lucy Stuebel, vice president. In the absence of Mrs. A. J. Richardson, who is president of the chapter, about 20 members attended the meeting.

In observance of Good Friday there was no social hour.

Francis Greulich received the guest prize. The home was prettily decorated in a color scheme of lavender and yellow, spring flowers being used. The card games were followed by a two-course luncheon.

Mrs. L. J. Lindsay will be hostess to the club Friday, April 20.

P.-T. Associations In Regular Session

Members and friends of the Willow Parent-Teacher association met at the school building last night at six o'clock for a potluck supper. The campfire girls sold coffee, candy and soda-pop during the dinner proceeds to go toward their fund for purchasing ceremonial gowns.

The business meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock by the vice president, Mrs. J. E. Bates, after which an excellent program was given. The first number was a musical skit entitled "A Sailor's Meditation." Walter Nitzel was the sailor; Mrs. Roscoe Clark, the Scotch lassie; Mrs. J. F. Hendrichson, the Japanese maiden; Mrs. L. W. Johnson, the Irish colleen; Mrs. F. D. Birch, the Spanish girl; Mrs. Earl Huff, the American flower girl; and Mrs. Eugene Miller, the Indian maiden. As each of the characters appeared Mrs. H. C. McClay sang an appropriate song.

Mrs. Fred Huff gave two readings, after which the final number on the program, a comedy stunt, was given. The stunt was Continuing our consideration of No Trump bids, some illustrations are given. Hands No. 1 to 4, which follow, all counting 12, should be bid by a beginner even when playing with his superiors.

Hand 1: A-X-X K-X-X
 Hand 2: A-X-X K-X-X
 Hand 3: K-X-X K-Q-X
 Hand 4: J-10-X-X J-10-X-X

Hands 1 and 2 have four suits stopped, the ideal No Trump division (4-3-3-3) and a Ten counted with the count of 12.

Hand 3: A-X-X X-10-X-X
 Hand 4: Q-10-X K-J-X-X
 Hand 5: A-X K-Q
 Hand 6: X-X-X-X 10-X-X

Hands 3 and 4 have not the ideal No Trump division but they have strength in the two-card suits, at least three cards in the defenseless suit (much better than a defenseless doubleton) and two Tens.

Hand 5: A-10-X A-Q-X-X
 Hand 6: A-Q-J-X-X A-X-10-X
 Hand 7: A-X-X K-Q-J
 Hand 8: X-X X-X

Hands 5 and 6 are two very strong hands, but dangerous for No Trump because each has a worthless doubleton in Suit 4. That, however, is not a No Trump bar and these hands afford a choice between bidding a No Trump and whether that suit happened to be a Major or Minor—a subject that will be considered later in this series.

The following summary of No Trump advice might be memorized. It will be useful.

- (1) A No Trump hand should have at least three suits stopped and a count of at least 12.
- (2) For the "count": Ace is 4, King 3, Queen 2, Jack 1.
- (3) For the expert, a count of 11 may do; for the beginner 13 is safer. But three Aces (12) is risky for the beginner and Ace, Ace, King (11) too weak for anybody.
- (4) A stopped suit contains in that case one of the following: Ace, King and one other, Queen, Jack and one other, Queen, Nine and two others, Jack-Ten and two others, Jack and four others.
- (5) No Trump should not be bid when the hand contains a blank suit, or a singleton lower than King; hands containing low doubletons are doubtful No Trumper.

MENUS

By SISTER MARY
BREAKFAST—Shredded fresh pineapple, cereal, cream, fried cornmeal mush, maple syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable goulash hearts of lettuce with French dressing, cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Stuffed pork tenderloin, grilled sweet potatoes, buttered spinach, stuffed apple salad, orange sherbet, milk, coffee.

Apples are cut in slices about an inch thick, pared, cored and dipped in lemon juice. One or two slices are arranged on a bed of lettuce and the cavities are filled with a mixture of cream cheese, chopped seeded raisins and chopped nuts. Cooked salad dressing masks the whole. If possible use "cluster" raisins, which must be plumped in boiling water before seeding.

Vegetable Goulash

One cup dried kidney beans, 1 cup diced carrot, 1 sweet green pepper, 1 large onion, 1-3 cup rice, 2 cups canned tomatoes, 1 pound fresh mushrooms, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon salt.

Soak beans in cold water to more than cover over night. Drain and simmer in boiling water for three hours, letting water cook away as much as possible without burning. Drain and add tomatoes, carrot, pepper minced, onion peeled and sliced, and salt. Simmer until vegetables are tender. In the meantime cook rice in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and add to vegetables. Saute mushrooms in butter. Arrange vegetable and rice mixture on a hot, deep platter, and sprinkle mushrooms over the top. The mushrooms can be chopped or left whole.

STYLE MAKERS BORROW FROM SALIOR UNIFORM

PARIS (AP)—The Rue de la Paix owes sailor collars, sailor hats and sailor colors to the navy this season.

The newest shade of blue is identical with that of the French sailor's uniform, slightly lighter than navy, not so light as Copenhagen. Sailor collars of pique are added to some of Tailor's afternoon and sport costumes. The white starched sailor hat is the most popular sport headgear along the Riviera.

RUBBER "HANKIES" FOR SEA BATHERS

PARIS (AP)—A designer of sports clothes and beach costumes has brought out rubber handkerchiefs, guaranteed to stay fresh and dry during a dip in the surf. They are worn tucked under the belt of the swimming costume, which is two piece, trunks and skirt, this season.
