Kentucky Team Wins National Championship

CHICAGO, Apr. 5 (AP)—A clean play-off, hard fighting team from Ashland, Ky., is the national intercollegiate basketball champion for 1928.

Following through the University of Chicago's national tournament, which attracted star teams from 46 states, the Ashland team clinched the title Saturday night by defeating Canton, Ill., 15 to 10 in the finals.

BEAVERS, ANGELS SPLIT TWIN BILL

Portland Loses First Series by One Game—Missions Take 2 Sunday

Pacific Coast Standings table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct.

By the Associated Press. The Angels and Portland divided a twin bill, the Angels winning the first contest 5-3 and the missionaries the second 6-3, after an extra frame.

The Missions came to life with a vengeance by whipping Sacramento in both ends of a double header. Hitting let the Solons down with two safe blows in the morning game to win 5-0.

Seattle Wins One. After losing the morning game 7-1, Seattle broke into the win column for the first time this season by making three San Francisco hurlers for a 5-5 victory in the nightcap.

Hollywood won a raged afternoon exhibition from the Oaks 4-7, after Bill Murphy and Cecil Duff had hurled their way to a 2-2 eleven inning draw in the forenoon encounter.

Lindy Bombarded By Easter Eggs

LOS ANGELES, Apr. 5 (AP)—The Examiner says Colonel Charles Lindbergh was treated to an unique barbecue picnic near Carpinteria yesterday when Easter eggs—two dozen uncooked ones—were delivered as bombs from the air.

Lindbergh, as well as the other guests scrambled—for safety. The trans-Atlantic flier as well as several other persons were the guests of Joel Remington Pithian at the barbecue held near the Pithian estate. Soon after the picnic began, two of the guests were seen in close conversation and both left soon afterward for an airfield. After purchasing two dozen eggs they chartered a plane and flew over the picnic scene.

As the first egg "bombs" fell all of the guests fled to safety. Lindbergh, who is vacationing in Santa Barbara from his months of ovations and publicity, appeared to enjoy immensely the humor of the Easter eggings.
