Program Enjoyed By Neighborhood Club Members

Members of the La Grande Neighborhood club enjoyed an interesting program yesterday afternoon when the regular meeting was held at the La Grande hotel, with Mrs. Howard Miller as program leader. "Dramatic Interpretations" was the subject, and two plays were presented by Mrs. Miller. The first, "Before Breakfast" by Eugene O'Neill, she acted out, the play calling for only one character. The second, "The Twelve Pound Look" by Harriet Beecher Stowe, was acted out by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Howard Miller, and both were enthusiastically received by the large number of club women who had gathered for the meeting.

Mrs. Miller is a very able dramatist and both plays were presented in a most excellent manner. The program opened with two of Victor Herbert's numbers, which were played by Mrs. H. M. Bay on the orthophonic, which was furnished through the courtesy of the Adlee Music company. This week is Herbert week. Mrs. Edna Halley Stonebraker sang a group of three selections, "Long" by W. Hartford, "Call of the May Time" by Brahe and "Your Picture" by Del Negro, which were well received by the audience.

During the business session two new members were admitted to the club, Mrs. Edward Hancock and Mrs. Frances Groulch. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Sherwood Williams, and several reports were given. Mrs. H. M. Bay, who is chairman of the orthophonic, which was furnished through the courtesy of the Adlee Music company. This week is Herbert week. Mrs. Edna Halley Stonebraker sang a group of three selections, "Long" by W. Hartford, "Call of the May Time" by Brahe and "Your Picture" by Del Negro, which were well received by the audience.

The club president reported that word had been received from the health report sent in to the Oregon federation health chairman, and that La Grande ranked fourth in state in health and hygiene conditions. The report was prepared by the community service and welfare committees of the club, assisted by Miss Alice Marquardt, county health nurse, and Dr. A. L. Richardson, city health officer. The report was sent to the state health chairman, Miss Lenore Blakely. Five reports were chosen from those sent in from clubs all over the state. La Grande ranking fourth. These five reports will be sent to the national chairman to compete with other towns all over the United States.

Mrs. H. G. Smith, chairman of the art department, outlined the program for the next meeting of the club, which will be in charge of that department. "Society of Oregon" will be the subject, and will be presented by Harley H. Richardson. Mrs. G. J. Frankel, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will visit the local club on that day, April 24. Other clubs of Union county will be invited to attend. Tea will be served by the social committee. The Women's Benefit association met last evening in regular session at the K. P. hall. The meeting was called to order at 7 o'clock and the members of the guard team and officers practiced for about an hour before the regular lodge session began. Three candidates were initiated, after which the remainder of the time was spent making plans for a special meeting, which will be held Friday evening.

Mrs. Minnie W. Adyotte, supreme president, and Mrs. Adelaide Paolard, district deputy, will be in La Grande at that time and will meet with the review at the La Grande hotel promptly at 7:15 o'clock. Plans for the district rally to be held at Baker May 11 will be completed at that time and other business of the organization taken up. All officers and members of the local review are requested to attend. A buffet lunch will be served.

Announcement was made that the Junior W. R. A. will meet Saturday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Hadden, when Mrs. Conrad Nelson, junior commander, Mrs. Bert Webb, queen advisor, will be hostesses. This meeting will begin at 2 o'clock, and after the regular session refreshments will be served.

After Lent Party At Sacajawea Inn

The first and one of the most outstanding after-Lent parties took place yesterday afternoon at the Sacajawea Inn, when Mrs. J. T. Richardson and Mrs. W. G. Sawyer were hostesses at an attractive Easter Tuesday luncheon.

The original effect was carried out in the decorations. Luncheon was at 1 o'clock in the Indian grill, where two long tables were arranged. Bouquets of blue and yellow iris in brass bowls and brass candlesticks with tall taper candles in old rose and Chinese blue, tie with yellow Japanese tassels were used to decorate the tables. Place cards were in the form of little Japanese women, carrying a dainty parasol. Covers were laid for 52 guests.

After luncheon the party adjourned to the social hall on the mezzanine floor, where 12 tables of bridge were formed. Here the incense burned and the guests were called to order by the sounding of oriental gongs. Bouquets of blossoms were arranged about the room and on the branches were found tiny Japanese parasols and butterflies.

Prizes were in keeping with the other features of the party. Mrs. L. K. Kinzel made high score during the afternoon's play and the second prize went to Mrs. H. N. Ashby. Mrs. Charles Blazeman received the consolation prize.

Members of the Monday Bridge club were entertained Monday afternoon at a bridge-luncheon at the Sacajawea hotel when Mrs. P. A. McDonald and Mrs. Dwight Jessie were hostesses.

It was the regular meeting of the club and after luncheon in the Indian grill at one o'clock three tables of bridge were at play in the parlor on the mezzanine floor. Mrs. J. T. Richardson made high score at bridge and the second prize went to Mrs. J. P. O'Connell.

L. H. S. Freshmen Entertain Mothers

Between 60 and 75 mothers of freshman students of the LaGrande high school gathered in the auditorium of the school building Monday afternoon when the members of the class gave their annual tea honoring their mothers.

An interesting program was given during the afternoon, furnished entirely by members of the freshman class. Miss Barbara Pidecock played a piano solo; Miss Ruth Black sang "You're the Best Little Mother That God Ever Made," accompanied by Miss Barbara Hiatt; Nick Hughes gave a reading "God's Masterpiece," and Miss Revell Pratt played a violin solo, "Mother's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Hiatt.

The program was under the chairmanship of Russell Nelson and opened with a short talk of welcome to the mothers, given by Cecil Black, president of the class. Gold and green, the class colors, were used to decorate the room. Yellow daffodils and green candles were used on the tea tables and Mrs. J. T. Longfellow and Mrs. E. D. Towler poured. They were assisted by Miss Hickford, Miss Southard and Miss Holt, freshman class advisors, and 12 girls of the class.

Miss Jacqueline O'Brien was chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. Veda Hargenson had charge of the decorations. Nine girls of the high school girl graduate class of the First Presbyterian Sunday school gathered in the community room of the church last evening when the regular meeting was held there, with the teacher, Miss Hudd, Anderson, and Miss Corrine Baker as hostesses.

During the meeting the Rev. J. George Walt, pastor of the church, spoke and Miss Anderson discussed "Ambitions." At an appropriate hour the hostesses served refreshments. The next meeting of the class will be May 1, when Misses Grace Oelke and Clara Shepherd will be hostesses.

The Marjith Sunday school class of the First Methodist Episcopal church met in regular session last evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Griffin on Main avenue. Mrs. Phil Daniels, vice president of the class, presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Victoria Galbraith, who was unable to attend because of illness.

About 12 members were present and games were enjoyed during the evening, after which the hostess committee, consisting of Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Jack McGhean, Mrs. Nellie Piper, and Mrs. Phil Daniels, served refreshments.

at their home in North Union. A four-course dinner was served at 7:15 at a table attractively decorated in keeping with the Easter season. A large basket of yellow daffodils was used as a centerpiece and yellow taper candles, were at each end of the table. The menu followed the color scheme of white and yellow.

After dinner the time was spent socially. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kiddle and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wardell, all of Island City, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kiddle, of La Grande.

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Members of the T. R. club were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stevens Wednesday evening at their home in South Union. Three tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. Bert Knight and George Winslow won high and Walter Cook received consolation prize. After the card game a two-course luncheon was served.

Bouquets of yellow daffodils and pussywillows were used as decorations. UNION, Ore. (Special)—The regular meeting of the Methodist Aid society was held Wednesday afternoon in the lounge room of the church with Mrs. W. Halsey as hostess. Following meeting business, an interesting program was given with Mrs. William Kielblock in charge. Afterwards the remainder of the time was spent socially, and the hostess served refreshments.

GRANGE HALL, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. J. E. Anson entertained nine children at an Easter party at her home here Sunday afternoon. During the afternoon, the children enjoyed games. One feature was an Easter egg hunt where each child was requested to hunt the egg that had his name on it. At about 4:30 o'clock the children were seated at a prettily decorated table and ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Dee Davis assisted Mrs. Anson in serving.

GRANGE HALL, Ore. (Special)—Honoring the birthday anniversary of their niece, Miss Irma Puckett, of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kries entertained at a one o'clock dinner Sunday of last week at their home here. Covers were laid for 14 around a prettily decorated table, which had a large bouquet of flowers as a centerpiece. A beautiful birthday cake, made by Mrs. Jas. Clyde, was a feature. After dinner the remainder of the day was spent visiting. Those present besides the honor guest and the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. George Puckett and son Owen, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Clyde and son Maurice, Mrs. Luella Rand and Carl Weemar.

Woman's Club In Interesting Meet

UNION, Ore. (Special)—About 30 members of the Woman's club were present Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Pursel with Mrs. E. Miller and Mrs. William Titus assisting. The early part of the afternoon was taken up by the business session, with Mrs. Frank Connor, vice president, in charge. Mrs. Walter Cook, chairman of the Mason's banquet, reported $170 made, which was turned over to the building fund. Miss Alice Marquardt, county nurse, spoke of the tuberculosis convention to be held in North Union June 18. C. L. Cadwell, of the Sportsmen's club, extended an invitation to the women to attend a fish feed in their honor Monday evening, April 16.

Mrs. Connor read a communication from Mrs. Sherwood Williams, of the La Grande Neighborhood club, in appreciation of the program given there by the Union club. Mrs. Walter Cook, treasurer of the library, stated that more reading material is needed.

It was announced by Mrs. S. E. Miller, president, that Mrs. G. J. Frankel, state president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, would make an official visit here Apr. 27. Mrs. Miller also read a communication from New York in reference to the world court.

Mrs. Roy Conklin had charge of the afternoon program, which was opening by the singing of "America." Mrs. Edith Phyl was piano accompanist.

The subject for the afternoon was "American Artists" and Mrs. Conklin read an interesting paper on the life of John Sargent, also described a number of his paintings. Two readings "District School" and "The Wind" were given by Mary Jean Tailman. Mrs. Adrian Goodbrod sang "Lay My Head Beneath a Rose." A dance was given by Elaine Hess. Mrs. E. E. Pursel, one of the oldest members of the club, reviewed early work of the club, which was organized here in 1882. The first meeting place was in a little building in North Union at the edge of Catherine creek, which they used for 10 years as a reading room and library. In 1893 they turned the library over to the city and the club secured aid from the Carnegie fund from which the present library was built. Mrs. Pursel also spoke of the proposed new club building.

Before adjournment, the hostess served refreshments. UNION, Ore. (Special)—An enjoyable party was held Friday afternoon at the Union hotel when Mrs. George Baird and Mrs. Tony D. Smith were joint hostesses to the members of the Carnation and Lucky Thirteen clubs.

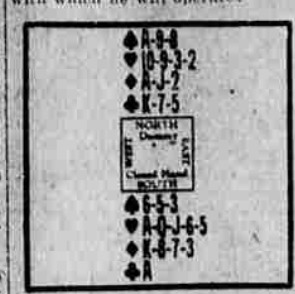

Twenty-eight guests were served a four-course luncheon at 1:15 o'clock at a long table decorated in yellow and white, with bouquets of daffodils predominating. Place cards and score cards were suggestive of the Easter season. Six tables of bridge were formed later in the hotel living room. Mrs. Bert Knight made high score. Mrs. L. S. Davis, second and Mrs. W. R. Phillips, consolation.

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Honoring their sixteenth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Knight entertained a number of friends Saturday evening at a dinner party

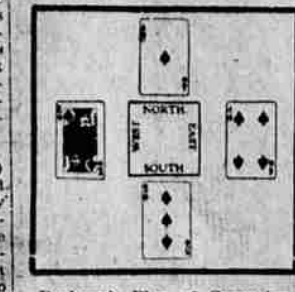

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Yesterday the following problem was given: The contract is Hearts; South is Declarer, North is Dummy; the play to the first trick is shown. How should Declarer plan his campaign as soon as he sees Dummy's hand and knows the exact twenty-six cards with which he will operate?

The first trick:

Declarer's Plan of Campaign—Declarer with a strong hand, should count his losers. Unless able to get a discard before the adversaries obtain the lead, he will lose two Spade tricks; he may also lose one Heart and one Diamond. If all four of these tricks go to the adversary, game will go with them.

The thoughtful play would be to try the trump finesse, hoping to exhaust the adverse trumps without losing a trump trick. If that succeeded, to lead the Ace of Clubs from Closed Hand, put Dummy in with the Jack of Diamonds (taking a successful Diamond finesse for granted), then let Dummy lead the King of Clubs on which Closed Hand discards a Spade. Played in that way with both finesses succeeding, a Small Slam would be made; but should the Heart finesse lose, the two Spades would be lost immediately and then Declarer's chance of going game would depend upon the Diamond finesse. Of course to lose game he would have to lose both finesses; the odds are against that, but such luck is encountered often. Declarer should not take that risk when he has a certain game within sight. Dummy should lead a small Club to trick 2, Closed Hand winning with the Ace; then Closed Hand should lead a small Diamond to trick 3, the Ace in Dummy winning. Dummy then should lead the King of Clubs, giving Closed Hand a Spade discard; after which, the trump finesse can be tried with safety. If it loses, one Spade and probably one Diamond will be lost but at least four-odd will be made if it wins, at least five-odd will be made. By playing in this way, the chance for a Slam grows dim, but the certainty of a game is ensured. (Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

MENUS

BREAKFAST—Baked baldwin apples, cereal, cream, tomato omelet, cinnamon coffee cake, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable loaf, cheese muffins, meringue pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER—Haddock stew, stuffed celery salad, rhubarb tapioca pudding, eye rolls, milk, coffee. The whites of eggs are used to make the meringues and the yolks are used in the custard for the luncheon pudding. About 1/2 cup granulated sugar is added to the stuffy beaten egg whites with a few grains of salt and vanilla. This is dropped from a teaspoon onto a sheet of "foolscap" paper stretched on a damp board and the mixture is baked in a slow oven. The crunchy little puffs are served with "balled" custard.

Haddock Stew—One pound haddock, 3 medium sized onions, 3 cups diced potatoes (raw), 2 cups diced carrots, 1 cup diced turnips, 1 cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 2 cups boiling water, 4 tablespoons butter or drippings, 1 1/2 cups hot milk, 1/2 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon flour.

Add onions peeled and sliced and cook for five minutes over a low fire. Add vegetables and water and simmer, closely covered for 15 minutes. Add fish, skinned, boned and cut in two-inch cubes, and simmer about 10 minutes. Add hot milk, salt, pepper, paprika and Worcestershire sauce. Melt remaining butter and stir in flour, add enough hot liquid from the stew to make mixture of a consistency to pour. Push fish and vegetables to one side of kettle as much as possible and add butter and flour mixture to liquid, stirring carefully. Bring to the boiling point and shake kettle to thoroughly blend all ingredients and simmer without bubbling for five minutes longer. Serve from a deep plate or shallow vegetable dish.

HIGHEST RENT GOES UP

PARIS—The highest renters in Paris have to pay more rent. For 40 years the owners of the Eiffel Tower have paid but $200 a year on the land where the tower stands. The council plans to raise this amount, therefore the radio operators who work on the little top platform almost 1,000 feet high, will find their rental increased by the owning company.
