AT THE THEATERS

All Elements of Film Story In Fox's Latest

"So you're looking for a job in a musical comedy?" inquired the theatrical manager. "What can you do?"

"I can sing," modestly replied the pretty applicant.

"Go on, girl! This ain't no church!"

"WHY, OF COURSE NOT?" She (demurely) to you consider my legs long?"

"The Misses! I assure you I never even look at them."

A typewriter is one who typewrites on the typewriter, and the typewriter is a machine on which the typewriter typewrites. Now, the typewriter who typewrites on the typewriter typewrites on the typewriter until there is no more typewriting to be typewritten by the typewriter on the typewriter who typewrites on the typewriter typewrites.

With a cast headed by George O'Brien and Lois Moran, Fox Film's "Sharp Shooters," which opened last night at the Star Theater and which will be shown again tonight for the last time, is a production instilled with comedy, drama and romance enough to please any type of fan.

It is from an original story by Randall H. Paxe and revolves around a young dancing girl in French Morocco and an American soldier. From there, the action goes to the New York East Side, where Lois follows George. It is only after a series of dramatic incidents in a bootlegger's dive that George finally realizes his great love for the girl.

Both O'Brien and Miss Moran are splendid in their respective roles. George gives his best in spontaneous comedy and Miss Moran is always lovely in her shaded dramatic work, drawing sympathy from the most critical fan.

Tom Dunlop and Noah Young as the comedy relief are splendid as the sailor buddies of O'Brien. Nancy Carroll adds to her laurels as the girl from the East Side and William Demarest is a splendid heavy.

J. G. Hyston directed the picture and is to be commended for making the best of every situation, making it a smooth running picture rife with interest in every scene. Marion Orth wrote the scenario.

but at the same time it was astounding to the officers."

In the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, which is showing today and Saturday at the Arcade Theater, Haines plays a West Point cadet in a romance of love and football at the government's military academy. Much of the picture was directed at West Point by Edward Sedgwick, with the regular cadets appearing with the actors. Major Moore supervised the military details.

Joan Crawford played the heroine and Ralph Emerson, Neil Neely, William Bakewell, Leon Kellor and others of note are in the cast. It is an original story by Raymond L. Schreck.

The great Army-Navy football game, with the thrilling finish, spectacular maneuvers and dress parades of the cadets and scenes on the Hudson filmed on the famous steamer "The Witt Clinton," are among the interesting details of the big production.

PONDOSA PERSONALS

PONDOSA (Special) — Loren Harris and family, of Perry, visited friends here last Friday.

Torval Hanson and family were guests at Harvey Larsen's home Saturday and Sunday.

Archie Kelley has left Pondosa, although his two daughters are still here staying with friends. Kelley's are the second family to move from here.

Also, although one family moved away from here Saturday, two families moved the same day. They were Archie Stephenson and Jake Murray. Both of them are from Perry.

A farewell surprise party was given Tuesday evening on Hazel and Carmen Kelley at the home of George Tolbertson.

The Pondosa girls gym club discontinued Monday night as they intend to have a picnic Wednesday.

Naomi Robertson and Carmen Kelley made a trip to La Grande yesterday. Mrs. Bonham and Mrs. Thompson were there Sunday.

Some of our leading politicians seem to be pretty hard-boiled in oil.

Don't Keep Half-Empty Bottles of Cod Liver Oil

New kind of cod liver oil has a rich chocolate taste that children love.

Mothers now need not force sweetly, fishy oil on children under doctor's orders.

For this pure cod liver oil, Coco Cod, has all the needed vitamins, in full strength. Yet its taste is so pleasing that children squeeze the bottle for more.

Any drug store can supply Coco Cod.

You who carry straight loans, and are continually having to ask for extensions or pay the cost of new financing, should be very much interested in my plan. The night has a thousand eyes, but nobody has yet been able to count the number the neighbors have.

A modern dance is one of those affairs you go to like a lion and go out like a lamb.

A gentleman who was suffering with liver trouble was told by his doctor that if he laughed fifteen minutes every day before each meal his condition would improve. One day in a restaurant, while having his lunch, a man at the opposite table walked over and said in an angry tone, "What are you laughing at?"

"Why, I'm laughing for my liver," he replied.

"Well, then," said the offended gentleman, "I guess I had better start laughing also, as I ordered mine half an hour ago."
