Goitre Not a Disease
MILWAUKEE DOCTOR MAKES Remarkable Discovery

Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 762, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a permanent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. AT THE THEATERS

"Picture At Arcade Reaches Mirth Extremes"

If life was made for laughter, whoever attends the Arcade theater while "The Cohens and Kellys in Paris," the Universal-William Beaudine production, is the fortunate. It will give a complete life during the run of the picture.

"The Cohens and Kellys in Paris," is life jammed with wholesome human touches of pathos and comedy. It is a beautiful painting from the delicate brush of the great artist, William Beaudine, director of "Little Annie Rooney," "Starrows" and "Hold That Lion."

Each member of the all-star cast is admirably chosen. It is not a farce comedy, but it is drama of the relations between the Irishman and the Jew told with an eye always on the comic possibilities of the tale.

George Sidney, who was featured in the role of Cohen in the first "Cohens and Kellys" headlines in the screamingly funny adventures of the Irish and Jewish families in Paris. J. Farrell MacDonald is co-featured as Kelly and gives an inimitable portrayal. Vera Gordon and Kate Price are back again in their original roles of Mrs. Cohen and Mrs. Kelly, louder and funnier than ever.

Gertrude Astor furnishes 50 per cent of the good looks and many of the laughs in this hysterical production. Sue Carol represents the remaining 50 per cent of beauty and charm, while Charles Delaney is appealing as young Mr. Kelly who marries the pretty Cohen girl and thereby engages the two families in a mad rush to Paris to break up the racial mixture, so that the Cohen grandchildren will not be little Kellys.

Everything that can happen in Paris happens to the Cohens and Kellys, including an apache dance and a duel. The whole thing ends with one of the most exciting and hysterical sequences ever screened.

"Where are you going, son?" "Going to the circus, father."

"Where did you get the money?" "Mother gave me a quarter for telling her that I saw you kissing the maid."

"Here's half a dollar, son; go back and tell her what an awful liar you are."

"I shall never marry," William declared, "until I meet a woman who is my direct opposite."

"Well, Bill, said Aggie, "that shouldn't be difficult. There are a number of intelligent girls in school."

2500 Policemen Play In "Shield of Honor"

Not even a policeman will be able to find a technical fault in the manner in which the actual police drill team members in "The Shield of Honor," the Universal which comes to the Star theater here Friday and Saturday were handled.

They are said to be perfect in every detail for with the exception of the more prominent figures in the picture all the other police officers are members of the Los Angeles Police Department.

During the making of the picture the policemen forgot they were just acting before the camera and entered into the spirit of the thing with great gusto. They went through their maneuvers and drills with the same enthusiasm as they put in their everyday work.

The sheriff of Los Angeles was also an interested onlooker of the making of the picture for his department of public protection supports an airplane and he readily appreciates what its addition to metropolitan police forces will do in checking the nefarious operations of criminals and law breakers.

The stellar cast embraces such players as Neil Hamilton, Dorothy Guitler, Ralph Lewis, Nigel Barrie, Thelma Todd, Claire McDowell, Harry Northrup, Joe Glard and others. Emory Johnson directed the picture which is from the story written by Emilie Johnson.

KLETZING FILES

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 19 (AP)—Lewis M. Kletzing, field director of the national law enforcement league, filed his nominating petition for the republican nomination for sheriff of Lane county late yesterday afternoon. He has resigned from the law enforcement league.

I want your attention for a little while so you can enjoy a little more savage amusement while I do some more bragging. This morning we sold 51,000 shingles—10,000 of the $1.95 No. 2 cedar shingles right out of the car door, and 41,000 of the Extra Star-A-Suns. Another dealer bought 25 packages of our Kalsmine yesterday to re-sell again, so you see we are selling it pretty cheap when another dealer comes and buys it here and sells it again. You had better hurry if you want to get some of this 20% Kalsmine because it is going like feathers in a thunder storm. We have another large shipment of insect oil coming in. We are selling the steel empty barrels for 81¢ apiece. We are sending a Kalsmine out this morning, two shingles, two carpenters and a would-be painter. The reason I said would-be is because the painter was standing right close to me and when I said would-be he doubted up his fist. He has only had about 35 years experience and still he has to carry a drop canvas, but they seem to give you work anyway. He is so jolly about everything he does that some way he gets by. A tall, jolly-looking gentleman down by the U. S. bank met me the other night and asked me how long it took me to think up my ads. He should have known that I don't think them up. We just scramble them like eggs.

I am just receiving pay at this very moment for one empty lined oil barrel and two packages of Kalsmine. Can you hear the money rattle? Just hold the line a minute while I give the gentleman the right change and then I will go ahead with my ad. We are all set now. Remember as when you want the 100 per cent pure Monarch paint or barb wire think of whoever you please but come here after the posts and barb wire. I want to say hello to the people around the hill neighborhood and over at Cove.
