SINCLAIR IS NOT GUILTY, JURY HOLDS (Continued from Page 1)
"Not guilty," came the reply as the courtroom strained forward. "Oh, good," exclaimed Mrs. Sinclair as she began to cry. Friends led her into the corridor and as soon as Sinclair could force his way through the crowd he walked out, put his arm around her shoulders then slipping her arm through his, walked out of the corridor door.
Wants Spectators Before the jury filed into the jury room Justice Bailey warned the spectators that any sort of demonstration regardless of the verdict, would be promptly punished. Sinclair, although freed of the conspiracy charges today still is faced with two contempt proceedings. One of these is for his refusal to answer questions of the senate oil committee and he was sentenced to serve three months in jail for that. The other is for his hiring detectives to shadow the Fall-Sinclair trial jury last August. He was sentenced to six months for that. Both are pending in the circuit court of appeals.
Fall Charges Problem The conspiracy charge against Fall, which was severed from that of Sinclair, is still alive but what will be done about it by the government in view of today's acquittal, is problematical. Sinclair was placed on trial on April 9 to answer the charge which resulted in today's acquittal. The verdict marked the successful culmination of his six years' fight to prove he had not acted corruptly in negotiating the lease from Fall in April 1922.
FALL NOT SURPRISED PARADENA, Cal., Apr. 21 (AP)—"I am gratified, but not surprised by the acquittal of Harry F. Sinclair today," said Albert H. Fall, former secretary of the interior, in commenting on Associated Press dispatches from Washington today. Mr. Fall is a patient at the Las Encinas sanatorium here.

NYE SCORES VERDICT WASHINGTON, Apr. 21 (AP)—The acquittal of Harry F. Sinclair today on charges of conspiracy in the Teapot Dome lease was described by Chairman Nye of the senate investigating committee as "added evidence that it is apparently impossible to convict $1,000,000 in this country."
HEFLIN'S VIEW WASHINGTON, Apr. 21 (AP)—The Sinclair acquittal drew a quick reaction in the senate, Heflin, democrat, of Alabama, taking the floor to pronounce the trial as "another farcical performance." "The verdict is astounding," Heflin said. "In the face of the senate decision conceding Sinclair's oil lease because of fraud and corruption."

MILLIONAIRE IS KILLED THE PAS, Man., Apr. 21 (AP)—Carl Sherritt, millionaire prospector of The Pas, and stake of the Sherritt-Gordon mine in northern Manitoba, was killed today when a plane he was piloting crashed. Poley, Eva Quessenberry, Harry Wade, Lucie Spence, Ida. Wart, George Vance, Kate Page and William Wiggins and the hostess. The annual congregational meeting of the Lostine Presbyterian church was held Friday night in the church basement. Officers for the ensuing year were elected and plans for the year were discussed. All officers were re-elected. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gray, accompanied by Mrs. Steve Hodze, of La Grande, returned Friday from a trip to Idaho. They spent three days in Emmett where they visited a brother of Mrs. Gray. Mr. Gray says spring weather is as backward in that section as here. Ralph Quessenberry landed a fine 25 1/2 inch salmon out of the river just west of town. He had quite a tussle with the fish but finally landed him on the bridge. He had only a spoon hook with which to make the catch. Mr. Quessenberry also hooked a large bull trout but was unable to land him. W. L. Hunter, accompanied by Miss Blanche Allen spent Sunday in La Grande with Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Bade. Mr. Hunter consulted an eye specialist while there. He had the misfortune to get a splinter in his eye. Mrs. Bade returned with him. Fred Edwards and mother, Mrs. Anna Nolan, left Wednesday morning by auto for Portland where Mr. Edwards will attend to business matters while Mrs. Nolan will visit with her daughters, Mrs. Charles

125,000 BULGARS HOMELESS TODAY (Continued from Page 1) open when the quake brought disaster. Thousands of rose bushes were obliterated in the valley which is one of the beauty spots of Europe. Three fourths of Philippopolis was destroyed. The new quarter built in recent years around the railroad station and containing the principal tobacco factories was a mass of debris. Sanitary materials stored in an army depot were destroyed by fire. Churches, mosques and homes were broken ruins or piles of fire blackened debris. Sarfins still panicky today, the people fearing that the havoc wrought at Philippopolis might next befall the capital. WASHINGTON, Apr. 21 (AP)—The American Red Cross today transmitted $2000 through the state department to the Bulgarian Red Cross for relief of earthquake sufferers. LONDON, Apr. 21 (AP)—A Vienna dispatch to the Daily Express today said that a political upheaval at night resulted from the earthquake which devastated Southern Bulgaria. The people of Philippopolis, in the center of the stricken district, hold the government responsible for the disaster because, for the first time in Bulgarian history, a session of parliament was held on Good Friday, a holy day. The people are convinced that the catastrophe was punishment for this impiety. Procession of inhabitants passed
