Pacific Coast Standings table with columns for Team, W., L., and Pct.

Twelve hits was the sum total of the Portland batters' efforts in sixteen innings off two Mission hurlers, and not a Beaver dented the plate in the two games, both of which the Missions won, 7-0, and 1-0. Career Reads Like a Story

Not many months ago, Tom Heeneey, rugged New Zealand fighter, arrived in New York, broke and discouraged. His first few fights created but little attention and now he is to fight Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, for his title in New York on July 17. Tex Rickard is promoting the bout.

Uhl Hangs Up Third Straight Victory Sunday

American League Standings table with columns for Team, W., L., and Pct.

By the Associated Press. George Uhl, great right hander of the Cleveland Americans apparently has returned to the form that enabled the Indians to give the New York Yankees a stern but futile chase for the American league pennant in 1926. His third straight triumph of the present campaign was scored, 2 to 1, over the Browns at St. Louis yesterday. Ineffective pitching sent the Washington Senators down to defeat, 8 to 5 at the hands of Boston at Capital.

First game of the series at Chicago, 50,000 persons, the largest crowd that ever saw a ball game in the city, were on hand. Rain forced postponement of the National league set ten-between Brooklyn and New York and St. Louis and Cincinnati as well as that between the Yankees and Philadelphia in the junior circuit.

Marathoners Plod In Rainy Weather

CONWAY, Mo., Apr. 23 (AP)—"It ain't gonna rain no more," was never written with the Ozarks in mind, C. C. "Cross Country" Pyle's trans-continental foot racers declared as they moved eastward to Waynesville, 60 miles from here today. Sunday's 43.1 mile lap from Springfield through rain that fell intermittently, did not find the runners and walkers unprepared, as most of them donned slickers before starting and wore them through the day. Andrew Payne, Claremore, Okla., and Peter Gavuzzi, Southampton, England, continued their so-called "sister act" for first place with the former's elapsed time of 3:15:31.49, giving him a 36-minute advantage for the 1,885 miles. Gino Milk, Trieste, Italy, apparently disregarded the clouds Sunday on the Springfield-Conway lap which he covered in 6:12:03, to lead the pack for the day's run. Allan Currier, Grants Pass, Ore., finished Saturday in 5:47:53, with elapsed time 298:05:47. Courtship demonstrates that a young man's arm goes to waist just as frequently as his opportunities. Some women's work is never done, because, in fact, it's never begun.

GENE TUNNEY TO START TRAINING

Champion In New York, Reconciled To One Title Fight Per Annum

NEW YORK, Apr. 23 (AP)—Gene Tunney is back in New York, ready to start training for his heavyweight title defense against the plodding Anzor, Tom Heeneey, in July, and quite reconciled to Tex Rickard's program of one championship "shot" a year. After a week here Tunney plans to start on a program of light training in Speculator, N. Y. Tunney arrived from Miami Beach, Fla., yesterday, in time to characterize as "ridiculous" reports that he had planned to tour Europe on a "honeymoon" after he battles Heeneey.

Laughs at Marriage Talk. "Do you know," queried the champion, "any one of sound mind who has a business paying him at least $250,000 a year who would jeopardize all that by getting married? Last year I received $1,000,000 for taking seven punches on the chin. After all, the man who is not willing to do that, is just plain selfish." "Backing Tex Rickard's selection of his opponent, Tunney said he believed Heeneey was the best of the challengers.

Returns Colors. The champion has conscientious scruples against wearing the national colors around his waist. Representatives of the Tough Club, a social organization, presented a belt of red, white and blue to Gene Tunney when he arrived, but the champion turned it back with the request that some other color scheme be used. "You can dock the bill of a general with the colors of the American flag but they should not be used to drape around the portly stomach of a fighter," the champion commented in returning the gift.

PIRATES WIN FROM BAKER IN SLUGFEST

St. by Pilette. In the visitors' half, Benedict smacked out a double and Benny homered over right field fence, leaving the count La Grande 6, Baker 2.

La Grande sluggers went wild again in the fifth, accounting for three more scores. Goleman started the merry-go-round with a single into center field and Robertson scored him with a three-base clout into the right garden. LaSalle singled down third base line, scoring Robertson. He came home later when Buckner, with two down, leaped on one for a single. LaSalle hits for circuit. Baker gathered in two hits in the next two innings but no runs, the Pirates scoring in the seventh when LaSalle smacked out the fourth home run of the day, with nobody on base. The visitors ran their score up to 6 in a short-winded rally in the eighth. Layman filed out to Robertson, Sowers was thrown out at first and Erickson went to first when Spud muffed a speedy roller. Kennedy hit a two-bagger in to left field that scored Erickson and came home himself on Pilette's single. Brentano filed to Goleman, retiring the side. The two Baker runs, however, merely whittled La Grande's appetite, and the last of the eighth was a rout. Buckner, first up, was issued a free pass to first and Helms sacrificed him to second. Stokke hit a single into right field, Goleman singled into the same man on a fielder's choice that went astray, and LaSalle filed to center field. With four runs in Davis was thrown out at first. Russell Replaces Erickson. In the last of the eighth, Dr. R. G. Marshall, Baker manager, pulled Erickson, the crowd booing his decision to send in Russell, relief pitcher. As a matter of fact, the crowd had been booing Dr. Marshall rather consistently during the last six innings because of his continuous protesting of Umpire

Pilette's decision. Finally, La Grande's lengthy receiver, Ray Baker, became disgusted and told Dr. Marshall where to head in. Pilette did even more. He called over Policeman Claude Cooper and from then on, Dr. Marshall had very little to say to anyone excepting his own players. When Erickson stroled from the mound, the crowd gave him a big hand. The boy has a dazzling assortment of curves, drops, etc., but the Pirates sluggers simply wouldn't be fooled.

Pirate Lineup Strong. As a whole, the La Grande team looks stronger than any club ever gathered here. Pleading was excellent, one of the two errors being possibly due to the rough condition of the field; hitting was satisfactory, and the team was hustling from start to finish, completing plays with amazing regularity. La Grande had a pinch double play in sight in the sixth inning started by LaSalle, but it happened to be the third out. Another time the crowd figured that La Grande scored a double play but the base umpire figured different, and that was that.

After the game, Harris French, manager, furnished the members of his club with a dinner at the Scajawewa Inn, as a reward for winning the first game of the season.

Today the Bearded Beauties, a be-whiskered club from Benton Harbor, Mich., are to play the Pirates an exhibition game, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Next Sunday La

Behind the steady pitching of Jake Meyers, the Pendleton Buckaroos defeated the Walla Walla Bears in the opening game of the Blue Mountain baseball league here yesterday, 6 to 2. Meyers allowed five scattered hits, struck out 11 and fished three Bears to first. Pendleton drove Paris from the mound in the third inning with a three-run spurge and fell on the offerings of Mardis, his successor, for another in the sixth and scored two in the seventh.
