DR. MILLIKEN AND MISS L. HUNDERUP TO DIRECT CLASS

met with the Children's World Crusaders Sunday morning, May 6, at 9:45 o'clock. Miss Hunderup will conduct a model service for the junior department of the Sunday school and Dr. Milliken will be the speaker during the morning services. That evening at 7:30 o'clock the final study classes of the institute will be conducted. The school will be conducted on the same plan as the inter-denominational institute last year, and credits will be given for the work completed. There will be two sessions each evening and it will be necessary to begin with one class and continue this study throughout to obtain credit. Workers of the Baptist church are especially urged to attend, but an invitation is extended to the general public.

Yesterday morning at the First Baptist church Miss Henrietta Palling, Columbia District secretary of the World Wide Guild, spoke to the local guild during the Sunday school hour. She told of the guild work in the district and of the annual guild house party. Miss Palling has a sister who was a missionary in India for five years and told something of the work there.

During the church service the Rev. Mr. Mauger, of Baker, was the speaker, and he gave an interesting talk on "The Divinity of Christ," in which he translated the meaning of the scripture showing the virgin birth of the Christ, and how it was a super-human being. Last night the Rev. Mr. Mauger spoke for a second time, having as his subject "The Crucifixion Line."

Obituary
WILLIAM EDWIN MARSHALL
William Edwin Marshall passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Parker, 1905 S. avenue, this morning after a long illness. He came to La Grande about four days ago from Burns in Haverty county, where he was a stock man and rancher, to be with his daughter. He was born March 7, 1861 and was 67 years one month and 18 days of age. He came to Island City May 13, 1873 from Duncan county, Mo., arriving October 6, 1874. He was married to Catherine Jones August, 1884 at Elgin, and to them nine children were born, four of whom died in infancy. One son, Frank, passed away Jan. 26, of this year at Wallawa and the body of Mr. Marshall will be laid to rest beside the grave of his son at Wallawa.

Two sons, Jess, of Los Angeles, and Robert, of Santa Anna, Cal., survive him. One sister and one brother were with him at the time of his death. Other relatives arrived here this morning. Among them were a sister, Mrs. Anna Cain, of Spokane; a niece, Mrs. Violet Amacher, of Bingham Springs; a brother, John Marshall, of Estacada; sister, Mrs. Lou Stratton, of John Day; and a niece, Mrs. Vivian Puett, of Prairie City. Two daughters, Mrs. Letha Parker, of La Grande, and Mrs. Nellie Shorrod, of Wallawa, also survive.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church at Wallawa. The body is at the Snodgrass and Zimmerman mortuary.

member. The meeting extended over Saturday and Sunday and was well attended.
A large congregation attending the services yesterday morning at St. Peter's Episcopal church, and the Rev. Oliver Riley gave an excellent address. This evening the Washington club meets at Homan hall for a dinner meeting. St. Peter's guild will serve the dinner.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel will be the speaker at the "New Convert Day" at the Central Christian church, and the morning service which was especially for the new members of the church, was well attended. A large crowd also attended the yearly conference of the primary association of the First Ward of the Latter-day Saints church yesterday afternoon, when demonstrations of the past year's work were given by the children of the association.

Catches Big Fish And Wins U. P. Prize
A 21-inch steelhead, caught a week ago Sunday by Richard Polson won first prize in the Union Pacific employee's contest which was held April 15-22 inclusive. Mr. Polson brought in the huge fish on the first day of the contest, after a fishing trip on the Wallawa. All efforts through the week to beat his mark failed and he was given the choice of a hunting coat or pair of boots, which were offered as prizes by Clit's Clothing. The fish weighed six pounds and four ounces.

The first week of the fishing season ended yesterday with a busy and enjoyable day for the anglers. Many carloads of local sportsmen were out and most of them returned with fine catches.
From all reports, A. L. Parsons was "chump" for La Grande yesterday, with a 26-inch steelhead.
