ATHLETIC CLUB YEAR IS ACTIVE

Union Pacific Organization Has Membership of 568; Interest Keen

With the actual membership now 568, more than five times greater than in last year, interest keen in every division of sport and prospects good for successful participation in unit contests this summer, there is every indication that 1928 will be the outstanding year in the history of the local Union Pacific athletic club.

This was learned when H. A. Jack, president, and James Rosenbaum, secretary, outlined the 1928 program—a widely varied one that ranges from women's rifle teams and tennis to baseball. And what's more, every branch of competition into which the rapidly growing club has entered, is active. Nearly every week marks some special contest or work in the club.

Yesterday grading and leveling work on the club's baseball grounds located just east of the Second street viaduct on a full block, began. The block is the property of Claude C. Pratt who donated it for use of the club during the summer. In a short time, prospective members of the club's baseball team will be "warming up" for a busy season in Division No. 2, including Walla Walla, Rieth-Pendleton, La Grande and Huntington. The winner in this league will play the dinner of Portland, Seattle, Spokane and The Dalles at the Bonneville meet. Unit winner will participate in the system meet at Boise in August.

Tennis Courts Busy
The tennis courts owned by the club, and located adjacent to the depot, are in fine condition and are busy this spring, particularly on Sundays. Many employees and their families are taking advantage of the privilege of using the court.

Then, a branch that is a successful innovation to the club is the women's rifle team, which has been practicing regularly one night a week at the Oregon hardware grounds. The members will have a prize shoot, beginning tomorrow night which will continue for three Wednesdays. A number of prizes have been contributed for winners in this contest. Fifteen employees and associates are enthusiastically engaged in this sport and their present work insures lively competition for places on the team and good chances in unit contests. Last Wednesday when the contestants were required to shoot the regulation course of 45 shots with a possible score of 450 the following scores resulted: May Donovan, 386; Francis Meyer, 243; Neva Hannafield, 278; Margaret Donovan, 248; Winifred Blokland, 243. The following firms have donated prizes for the contest: Moyn, Druggs, toilet article sets; Justine Poolhall, ladies' flaking pole; Colonial beauty shop, permanent waves; Sacajawea Barber shop, ladies' hair cut.

The club officials expect to have a team of five girls to represent the division at the unit picnic.

Men Gunners Active
The men's rifle team, too, practices in the indoor range regularly, on Tuesday and Friday evenings, and as soon as weather conditions permit, will begin practice with the large bore rifles at the Ladd Canyon range. It too, is to have a contest with prizes to be awarded. The following firms are donating prizes: Jack Allen Supply company, a hunting knife; Carr Furniture company, a luggage carrier; Jack Brandt, a Ruess brake lining job; Sacajawea Inn barber shop, shave and haircut; Walter Palmer's Corner lunch, five dollar meal ticket.

The winter season just finished included successful competition in the basketball tournament at Portland, participating of two local members H. V. Almsmith and C. C. Howard, on the system championship bowling team, and an enjoyable indoor baseball series at the L. D. S. hall.

"Wiz" Kramer has pitched the Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National league cellar—a strange resting place for champions.

The big Frenchman blanketed the Chicago Cubs with three hits at Wrigley field yesterday while his team mates were running up six runs. Idle because of cold weather, the Boston Braves exchanged their seventh place post for the ninth, the local ranking at the bottom of the heap.

Some weird work by Willie Sheridan gave the Cincinnati Reds a 3 to 2 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals at Redland.

The cold and rainy day saw the American league successful in staging only two of its four scheduled games.

Owen Carroll pitched the Tigers to a five hit, three to nothing victory over the Chicago White Sox at Detroit. Bill Cissell, expensive Sox shortstop, personally accounted for two of the Tiger runs when he threw wild to the plate in the eighth inning.

The Cleveland Indians dropped their third decision of the season to the Browns at St. Louis, 4 to 2.

We have already sold enough wallpaper to paper a good-sized wheat field. Every time we sell an order of paper in a certain neighborhood we are just as sure to sell some more within a few days to that same neighborhood. Women are good at talking, you know, almost as good as men but not quite, and they advertise for us free of charge. A man came over from Union yesterday and bought enough paper for four rooms and it wasn't but a few minutes until a lady came in and bought quite a quantity of paper and she also remarked that she was another Union victim. We have a Montgomery & Ward catalog close by and we let the people see just how much they can save. It is really appalling. We have made it now so that people can come and buy their Monarch at a reasonable figure. It spreads farther, it looks better and wears longer. Co up on the pavement at the end of Main avenue and take a look at that street. It is another Monarch job. Remember when you want lacquer or any small cans of enamel we will give you the privilege of buying it at cost. This helps our trade and places you. If you want to paint your automobile or your kitchen chair now is your opportunity. We have all kinds of colors at the wholesale price. Good-bye, I am in a hurry.

Perhaps He'll Be a Champion

Willie Hoppe started shooting billiards when he hardly could see over the table. So did Jake Schaefer and little Walker Cochran's daddy. Little Walker is shown here with his father, the 18.2 balling billiard champion, as they started on a tour of the world. The little fellow still has to take a handicap from his father, but he is going on the theory that you can't learn too young.

Fred Smith, Former Amateur Champ, To Fight Allen Here on Saturday

Fred Smith, of Spokane, who is to fight Del Allen, of La Grande, in the 10-round main event of a boxing card in Rex hall Saturday night, will come to La Grande heralded as an opponent who will force the local leather pusher to the limit, according to word from the Washington city.

Art Holmes, Walla Walla, vs. Bud Andersons, La Grande, four rounds.

Russell Anderson vs. Glen Ford, both La Grande, four rounds.

Smith weighs 140 pounds, is 22 years old and has had 35 or more battles in Spokane, Portland, Seattle and Los Angeles in the last three years. He was champion amateur coast lightweight for two years and since turning pro has had seven fights, winning all but one to Benny Dodson. He scored victories over Chubby Van Hooser twice, knocked out Glen Maxwell, knocked out Dell Martin, of Spokane, in the first round and also knocked out Frank Holland in the fifth round.

Local fans, however, are expecting Allen to take the visitor into camp, having their beliefs on several recent fights in which Allen has won decisions. In his last two appearances in Astoria, in main events he has turned in wins and his fighting has won much applause.

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 24 (AP)—Armand Emanuel, young undefeated San Francisco boxer, kept his record unblemished when he fought Mike McTigue, twice light heavyweight champion, in a ten-round draw in their bout at the Army last night.

A near capacity crowd saw the 22-year-old San Francisco attorney, a protégé of Jack Dempsey give the veteran New Yorker a tough evening. Most of the newspaper critics allowed him an edge in a majority of the rounds although the referee Toby Irwin, flattered that McTigue was entitled to an even break because of his aggressiveness.
