Secretary of Labor Davis says the fact that a million men are out of work is not a grave situation, according to a dispatch. Of course that depends largely on whether or not you're one of that million.

Musolini has gone pretty far, and he'd better be pretty careful. He's just as likely as not to get on the D. A. R. blacklist.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

WALLOWA (Special)—Mrs. James Tuiley, a pioneer resident of this county, and who for many years has lived in town, is reported to be quite ill at her home here.

Mrs. Meek and sons and Earl Burchfield were Sunday visitors at Ed Bell's.
F. Harmon, who has been a patient at the hospital here for the past two weeks, is reported to be improving very slowly.

A number of local stockmen have been busy recently getting their cattle and other stock moved to summer range. The grass on the range is said to be making a very satisfactory growth.
Mrs. John Couch, of Leap, was a visitor in town the last of the week.

A crew of men are engaged in excavating for the basement of the new postoffice building which is being put up here. The new building will occupy the same location as the old frame building, which has been used for this purpose for the past number of years.

Ass. Harmon, of the Leap community, was a business visitor in town the first of the week.
Frank Walker, of Leap, was a

A mighty funny thing happened yesterday. Some of our business men were down to McMinnville to a sales meeting and the editor of the McMinnville paper pulled a funny one on them. They were speaking of advertising and the editor remarked that the Will Rogers type of advertising was one of the best, and then he pulled out a long strip of paper with a monkey's face at the top and says, there is only one man in Oregon that advertises in the Will Rogers class. I want someone to come over right away and put me on the back. I tried on a hat this morning and I found it was entirely too small. Will Rogers got his start with a rope on a stage. Claude Pratt got his start getting away from the rope. We both came from Oklahoma.

Different ones have been asking me that if I was going to be elected representative of Union county, what my platform would be. We will give them this answer that the platform should not be less than 14125 of solid concrete. But when it comes to policy, we never cross a bridge until we get to it. If I was a mind-reader I could probably tell you what some of the big issues that would be politicians will be trying to pull off down at Salem and of course my business is to go down and help stop them and start them. We have had long distance telephone calls and we have had literature galore warning us to spend good money for advertising to be elected, but we think this way, that if people are foolish enough to put us in knowing us as they do that—I was going to put in something ridiculous here but my vocabulary just fails me at this time. I can't think of anything ridiculous enough to compare myself with unless it would be a mule riding a bicycle or an elephant roosting in a cranberry bush.

Last but not least, Monarch paint goes further and our sandpaper will show you a rough time.

Hagen Surprises English Critics

LONDON, Apr. 26 (AP)—Walter Hagen took full advantage of his one day's chance to practice for his seven hole golf match with Archie Compston tomorrow and Saturday and was on the Moor Park course early.
He showed at the outset that he was able to hit a golf ball accurately in spite of his long absence from the game. To the several hundred members of a gallery following his casual practice he appeared to be on his game.
English critics were surprised when he dropped two balls about 150 yards from a hole and sent them spinning toward the flag with crisp shots of his masher niblick. He commended himself, the putts. Neither was more than a few feet from the cup.
