Boxing Card In Rex Hall Here Tonight at 8:45

The stage is all set for the first boxing card of the spring season in La Grande this evening.

Allen, La Grande boy who has disposed of 17 men, since he started pushing leather, via the knockout route, will tangle gloves with Fred Smith, of Spokane, who has a record every bit as good as Allen's although it isn't quite as lengthy.

One of the snappiest scraps of the evening is expected to be the six-round semi-final, wherein Mickey Duncan, 145, of Walla Walla, will endeavor to hang one on another one of La Grande's comers--Kermit Davis--who this season at 140, Davis is a clever fighter with few defeats and his work is always popular with the fans.

Smith arrived in La Grande today and is confident of victory. However, he expects a hard fight with Allen.

Present indications are that the card will draw a large audience.

Danny Lewis Wins From Idaho Fighter

PENDLETON, Apr. 28 (AP)—Danny Lewis, Portland welterweight, knocked out Harry O'Brien of Coeur d'Alene in the fourth round of a ten-round bout here last night.

GETS HOLE IN ONE

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Ed Crowley, University of Oregon track and golf star, joined the Hole-in-One club Friday, when he sent a long shot across a water hazard on the green and into the cup.

American Athletes Eye 400-Meter Event—Olympic Champ Not to Run

40-METER CHAMPIONS NEW YORK (AP)—Olympic 400-meter running champions and their times: Year Winner Country Time 1896—Burke, U. S., 1:54 1:55 1900—Long, U. S., 1:49 2:45 1904—Hillman, U. By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK (AP)—Scotch bagpipes and American elbows figure conspicuously in the dramatic history of the Olympic 400-meter footracing championship.

Liddell, the spindly-shanked little Scot, won the title in 1924 in what undoubtedly was the greatest Olympic "400". Within two hours the Olympic record was shattered three times.

Liddell will not be back to defend his laurels this year. Horn in China, the son of a missionary, Eric is now at Tientsin, teaching in the Anglo-Chinese College. There he has found his life's work.

It may be just as well for others hopeful of taking over his title at Amsterdam that Liddell isn't coming back. In his most recent competitive appearance in China the Scot won three races in one afternoon, the 100 meters in 10-4.5, 200 in 21-2.5 and 400 in 50-1-10 seconds, all close to record time.

America hasn't won the "400" since 1912 but only an accident prevented the final that year from being monopolized by five swears of the Yankee shield, D. B. Young of Amherst was disqualified in the final (plate for showing the Oregon man, Braun, who thus, although beaten, entered the final with four Americans.

Charley Reidpath, the old Syracuse star now living in Buffalo, was victorious in a thrilling final but he was compelled to set a new Olympic record of 43-1-5 seconds to dispose of Braun who finished a close second, beating out the other three Yankees—Lindberg, Meredith and Hoff.

R. G. D. Rudd, the great South African, and Liddell have kept the Union Jack flying at the top since the war but another Syracuse product of Tom Keane's skillful coaching may be the one to bring victory back to America again this year.

Barly Ray Barbut, football star and a quarter-mile of 45-second caliber, is among America's main hopes. Tierney, Spencer, Toss, Phillips and Alterman are other "400" candidates. But Eric has another ace in J. W. J. Hinkel, the Cambridge crack, eager to carry on where Rudd and Liddell left off.

Twenty years ago the 400-meter final provoked one of the biggest rowing controversies of all time. In fact chiefly as a consequence of this race British and American athletes ties virtually were severed and a feeling of unfriendliness acquired that existed for years afterward.

It all happened because J. C. Carpenter, Jr., of Cornell was disqualified after finishing first, British officials charging he "bored" or pocketed and elbowed Lieut. Wyndham Haldwell, the English star, as they entered the stretch. Carpenter and W. C. Robbins, another American, both finished ahead of Haldwell but it was declared "no race" and ordered rerun. When the Americans, protesting violently, refused to do so Haldwell circled the track alone and was declared the champion.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE ADVANCED

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—The baseball schedule of the Willamette Valley league has been set ahead for another week with the cancellation of the Eugene-Bend game here and the Albany-Salem game at Albany.

Bend was scheduled to be here today and Salem to be at Albany tomorrow. Wendling will play at Cottage Grove tomorrow. If the weather permits, and the two teams will be idle the following week, evening the schedule again.

This is the second week of advancement of the schedule because of inclement weather.

OREGON NET STARS WIN

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Oregon net stars defeated Reed College tennis players in a tournament held here Friday.

Featuring the matches with fast double between Latta and Trewholme for Reed and Powell and Cross for Oregon. The score was 6-4 and 10-3.

MAYOR WALKER MEETS SCULPTOR

NEA Atlanta Bureau New York's Mayor Jimmy Walker went to Stone Mountain the other day in the name of the nation, the gigantic Lee Memorial now being carved on the face of the cliff. Here he is shown meeting the sculptor, Augustus Lukeman, right, who has had charge of the work since the figure of Lee and his famous horse, Traveller, was begun. The unveiling took place 63 years to a day after the surrender of General Lee at Appomattox.

Walter Hagen Barely Saves Golf Match From Being Complete Rout

MOOR PARK, England, Apr. 28 (AP)—Walter Hagen barely saved his golf match with Archie Compston over 72 holes for 750 pounds from becoming a rout today. He went to lunch dourly 18 and was unable to win but one hole of the 18 played this morning.

As Hagen was in a hopeless position Compston needing to have one hole this afternoon to win, it was announced that the two men will play an exhibition match after Compston finally clinches the victory.

All through the 18 holes, Hagen fought heroically, but the lucky Englishman never gave him the ghost of a chance. Compston went around in par figures of 70 against Hagen's 74.

Never before had Hagen suffered such a defeat nor had he ever lost seven consecutive holes so decisively.

Compston excelled in driving and on the greens. Hagen displayed a glaring lack of ability to stop a ball on them from an approaching distance. He was woefully without heretofore Britain had marvelled.

At the first hole Hagen won today, the thirty-ninth, he missed his putt from a yard. He then practiced five putts from the same position before he sank one.

While Hagen was winning his one hole of the round Compston took five. The Englishman took the 44th with a birdie 3 and Hagen practically gave him the 45th. As a result of ragged putting Hagen halved the 46th with Compston at 3. The big gallery cheered his tee shot on this hole when it stopped within a yard of the pin but Hagen's putt hung on the edge of the cup and Compston who was out driven was able to make the par figure with Hagen.

New York Teams Both Unseated In Big Leagues

National League Standings table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct. Rows include Brooklyn, New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Boston.

American League Standings table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct. Rows include Cleveland, New York, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Boston, Detroit.

By the Associated Press A combination of adverse weather and fortuitous hitting resulted in new leaders being at the top of both major leagues today.

The weather was adverse insofar as it concerned New York's Giants and Yankees both of whom were forced to remain idle yesterday and see themselves slumped into second place in their respective league standings.

The opportune hitting was done by Brooklyn and Cleveland and enabled the Robins to oust the Giants from the National league crest while the Indians were doing the same thing to Babe Ruth and company in the American.

"Jumbo" Jim" Elliott gave up only three hits in Brooklyn's 5 to 1 victory over the Boston Braves at the hub.

George Uhl registered his fourth straight win of the season as the Indians routed Detroit at Cleveland, 10-1-6.

At St. Louis, the Browns frolicked to a 14-5 verdict over the Chicago White Sox. Sam Gray turned in his fourth victory in five starts for the Browns.

The Chicago Cubs fell victim on their home lot to Jess Haines and the St. Louis Cardinals, 4 to 2.

Track Carnival At Eugene, Ore. This Afternoon

EUGENE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Twenty-eight Oregon high schools will be represented this afternoon on Hayward field, in the second annual Oregon state high school relay carnival which was scheduled to get away at 1:30 o'clock.

More than 4,000 people are expected to witness the carnival.

And The Scorer Became Exhausted

ATLANTIC, Ia., Apr. 28 (AP)—If Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and their slugging New York Yankee mates ever come to Atlantic, they will have a difficult time showing the natives anything new in baseball.

The reason is that nearly everything except an extra inning and errorless game happened when Atlantic beat Graceland, 10-9, in a high school game here.

While their pitcher, Don King, hurled a no hit, no run game, struck out 16 and got 15 hits in 17 times at bat, this is what the Atlantic boys, second stringers too, did to Graceland's only pitcher, Gustin.

They made 92 hits in 139 attempts. They hit 16 home runs, six triples and 23 doubles.

They scored in every inning, getting 20 in the second and 27 in the seventh.

One of them made five home runs and another scored 14 times in 14 times at bat.

The game stopped at the end of the eighth inning when the score keeper became exhausted.

Beavers Buck Up And Whip Stars; Seattle Winner

Pacific Coast League Standings table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct. Rows include San Francisco, Hollywood, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Mission, Oakland, Portland, Seattle.

By the Associated Press The left handed Mr. Yerkes had too much stuff for Hollywood, the Beavers winning a closely contested water several times, but buckled down to pull out of it unscathed nearly every time.

Batteries: Fulterton, Rhodes and Bassler, Arnow; Yerkes and Almsmith. San Francisco continued her vicious assault on the Sacramento hurling staff by smashing Ruchae and Shea for 20 hits and a 11-5 victory, their third of the week. Huetner held the Solons safe for eight innings, easing up in the final frame to allow them to score four times. Batteries: Ruchae, Shea and Koeber; Huetner and Sprinz.

After trying the count at 7 all with a two run rally in the ninth the missions faltered and Seattle pushed over the run necessary for an 8-7 win in the 9th inning. The fielding of both teams was atrocious, the Bells hitting six chances and the Indians four. Batteries: Davenport, Nelson, Ludolph, Holling and Whitney; Teachout, Grandham, House and Horvath, Schmidt.

After dropping three straight to Los Angeles, Oakland came to life in the ninth frame and when the fireworks had subsided, an Angel lead had vanished into thin air and seven Oak runners had centered over the plate. That ninth inning spurge was enough to give the Oaks their initial win of the week. B. E. Batteries: Wright, Forra, Cunningham and Hannah; Cooper and Boel.
