Library Benefit Bridge Party At Sacajawea Inn

More than 80 women attended the library benefit party which took place Saturday afternoon at the Sacajawea Inn. Twenty-eight tables of bridge were at play during the afternoon and 40 attended the Kennington department. All reported a delightful afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Landry made high score at bridge, Miss Art Verity second and Mrs. Paul Russell third. May baskets were made by the Kennington group, which was under the direction of Mrs. Stella Ingie. Mrs. Isaac Shater won the first prize, Mrs. Sherwood Williams second and Miss Ruth Garrick third.

The rooms were prettily decorated with many large baskets of flowers, and these were given as a part of the prizes.

The affair was sponsored by the various parent-teacher associations of the city and the Neighborhood Club, with Mrs. Beatrice Young as chairman in charge. It being for the benefit of the children of the city, to equip the children's room of the library, the four schools of the city each furnished a program.

Misses Alice Jeanette and MacElkath Cooper represented the Central school and played a violin duet, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Brown at the piano. Misses Gertrude Conrad, Grace Scully and Marion Webb presented a violin, saxophone and piano number for the Riviera school. Misses Frances Alexander and Dorothy Campbell, accompanied by Misses La-Veda Milboin gave a musical reading for Willow school, and Misses Yvonne Baxter and Jean Burke gave a Swedish dance for the Greenwood school.

During the afternoon, punch and waters were served by a committee headed by Mrs. C. A. Bingham.

It is hoped that about $100 will be realized from the benefit party after all tickets have been turned in. About $200 is needed and Meyers and Bowen, proprietors of the Arcade and Star theaters, will present a benefit movie May 11, to help raise the amount.

Mrs. J. K. Wright and Mrs. John Hodgin have been appointed as a committee to have charge of this benefit. Mrs. Turner Oliver is general chairman of the benefit fund committee.

Mrs. H. R. Hanna was re-elected president of the Central Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon when the regular meeting of the association was held in the high school auditorium. Mrs. R. E. Tyler was elected vice president. Mrs. Norman Eves, secretary, and Mrs. Ray Williams treasurer. Mrs. Walter H. Guild and Mrs. W. P. Mohr were chosen as chairmen of the silver tea, which will be held during the annual art exhibit May 11. Funds from the tea will go toward furnishing the rest room.

The meeting was opened at 2:45 o'clock by the Rev. H. W. Parker. Mrs. Geibel's fifth grade students presented an Arbor day exercise. Mrs. John C. Macpherson, chairman of the milk committee, gave a report showing that milk had been served to 136 children every day for the past 21 weeks.

Dr. Margaret Ingie told of the "Summer Round-Up," a clinic for examining children of the preschool age, which will be held some time during next month and again in the early part of September. She said that a retarded child was due mostly to physical ailments and showed how the summer round-up would help.

Mrs. Stella Ingie talked on "The Use of Lessons," her remarks being based upon children's books. She gave short sketches of several of the new books which are now on the shelves in the children's room of the library.

There was a large attendance at the meeting. Miss Geibel's room was the picture for having the largest number of parents present.

Music Recital Is Given at Hotel

About 150 music lovers of the city gathered at the La Grande hotel yesterday afternoon for an excellent recital program which was given by Miss Mildred Spencer, presented by her teacher, Mrs. Lee Reynolds.

The program was one of interest throughout, although "Crescendo" by Lassen in the first group and "The Boat's Rag" by Campbell in the final group, were the favorites of the audience. These numbers were more melodious and pleasing to hear. The interpretation and expression of the young artist in both was very good. The first number of the program, "Prelude" by Bartok calls for a variety of interpretations, and this was handled in a most capable manner. The work in the last number of the group, "Soleres de Vienne" by Schubert-Liszt was clean-cut, the technical part requiring this to be beautiful. The shading of this number was also good.

In the second group "Tocatta" by Muzio Clementi was a sparkling number and was very pleasing, and in her "Sonata" by Mozart, which made up the remainder of this group, each number was played with sufficient variety and contrast. The shading was good and the technical parts were well executed, showing much work.

The outstanding number technically was the final number, "Rondeau Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn. This gives the pianist an opportunity to display every phase of ability, and has many difficult passages. The octavo work in this drew much praise.

Miss Spencer received many beautiful bouquets of flowers. Assisting her were Mrs. Audmer Russell, violinist, and Mrs. Leal H. Russell, contralto soloist, with Mrs.

H. N. Ashley as accompanist. Mrs. Playle's first number, "Madrigal" by Simonetti was of a melodious type and was very well received. Her second number, "Concertante in G" by Beethoven was more dramatic. Mrs. Russell delighted the audience with two numbers, "By the Bend in the River" by Edwards and "The Prayer Perfect" by Stenstrom. The first was especially suited to her voice and was enthusiastically received.

Miss Dorothy Lee Reynolds presented the flowers.

Thirteen of the beginner music student of Sacred Heart academy were presented in recital Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. W. Wall. The recital was the first to be given by the students of the academy this season and most of the pupils had part had studied only a few months.

Each little student played from memory and showed very good training and technique. A large number of parents and interested friends heard the program.

Those taking part were: Paul Cook, Anette Turn, Harriet Beckor, Elizabeth Dolan, Betty Mae Allen, Brewster Wilson, Kenneth Albert, Dorothy Wall, Patricia Carroll, Richard Carroll, Blossom Carntobal, Clarke Atkins and Nola Rae Mosby.

Annual Dinner Is Held by 2 Orders

About 100 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers and the Ladies' society and their families attended the annual dinner given by the women's organization Saturday evening at Roman hall. An excellent dinner was served with Mrs. Fred Williams as chairman. Bouquets of snapdragons and tulips were used to decorate the tables.

After dinner members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and their auxiliaries joined the party and the remainder of the evening was enjoyed dancing. A suitcase race between the women and the men caused much merriment during the evening, the women winning. Mrs. W. L. Lane was in charge of the dance.

Walter H. Guild, superintendent of the second division of the O.-W., and Mrs. Guild and their children, Robert and Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leavitt were guests.

The regular meeting of the La Grande Assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls was held Saturday evening in the Masonic lodge rooms. It was Rainbow history night and many interesting talks were given. Mrs. G. N. Tarkington, mother advisor, gave the national history of the Rainbow organization and something of its growth. Miss Margaret Anthony, sister of religion, told of the organization in Oregon and of its growth in this state. Miss Helen Jones, drill leader, talked on the subject "What Rainbow Means to Every Girl."

Two candidates were initiated during the evening. There was a good attendance, including several Eastern Star members and Masons. The next meeting, which will be a mothers' and daughters' banquet, was announced for Saturday evening, May 12. Each Rainbow girl will bring her mother to the banquet, which will be held in the Masonic lodge rooms. Miss Bernice Gray is chairman of the decorations committee and Miss Mary Culp is program chairman. Election of officers and initiation will follow the banquet. A candy sale for next Saturday morning, May 5, was also announced and Misses Barbara and Beverly Guye were appointed chairmen.

A report was heard on the trip to Baker by the officers and choir members before adjournment.

Miss Hunderup Is W. W. G. Speaker

A missionary talk by Miss Louise Hunderup on the subject "The Living Christ" was the outstanding feature of Saturday's meeting of the World-Wide Guild of the First Baptist church, which was in the form of a noon luncheon at the home of the grand counselor, Mrs. W. P. MeAdory. Miss Hunderup is Oregon secretary of the World-Wide Guild and is also director of elementary work for the Baptist church. She is here assisting Dr. W. T. Milliken with a religious education leadership institute at the local church.

About 29 girls of the guild attended the meeting in addition to several guests. The guests included Miss Zella Pearl, Miss Hanch Spears and Miss Henri Herzog, teachers in the public schools here. Mrs. Minnie Bynum, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. William Hunt and Mrs. Lulu Hunt Baird, mother and sister of the hostess, who are here from Birmingham, Ala.

After luncheon the regular meeting opened with a devotional, followed by the business session during which the many items of interest were discussed, including the house party fund which is increasing rapidly. Plans were made for a rummage sale, the proceeds to go toward the fund and for a pageant, which the guild plans to present sometime soon. The girls voted to enter the song and yell writing contest, which will be a feature of the house party.

Miss Heiring spoke on the "charism chest" which is a part of the guild work. Gifts were received for the friendship school bag which the guild is sending to a little school girl in Mexico. The meeting closed with the opening of the book of remembrance and prayer.

The next meeting of the guild will be a mothers' luncheon, May 25, and will be held at the church.

A family dinner was served, after which the time was spent visiting.

Announcements

The Riviera Parent-Teacher association will hold a tea tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 until 4:30 at Lane chapel. There will be an interesting program, including a group of songs by Mrs. A. L. Itchardson, a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Brown and a reading and planologue by Mrs. H. C. McClay. The Rev. Oliver Riley will speak.

The Imbler Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Gaskill Thursday afternoon. The meeting was at first announced to take place at the home of Mrs. Littreal.

The Community Women's Bible class will meet tomorrow at 2:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. A. Russell, 1802 Third Street. The meeting is being held early so that all who desire can attend the missionary tea to be given by the missionary society of the First Presbyterian church on that afternoon. As this is the last meeting of the class this season all members are asked to be there to answer to the farewell roll call.

The Missionary society of the Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman with Mrs. Arno Voelz as leader. Mrs. J. D. Smith, Mrs. Oma Lapham, Mrs. Voelz and Mrs. R. J. Kiteien will be the hostesses.

The Parkdale club will meet Wednesday afternoon, May 2, at the home of Mrs. Homer Wilson in Fruitdale. Mrs. Fred Henning, Mrs. John Bennett and Mrs. C. E. Gump will be the hostesses.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the community room of the church, Wednesday afternoon, May 2.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Stewed figs with lemon, cereal, cream, crisp bacon, soft cooked eggs, whole wheat and date muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Clear bouillon, jellied shrimp salad, rye bread and butter sandwiches, strawberry fluff, milk, tea.

DINNER—Ham baked in milk, twice baked sweet potatoes, new turnips in cream, cottage cheese, spring onions, rhubarb meringue pie, milk, coffee.

Jellied shrimp salad is a very pretty dish and worthy of a place in a company menu as well as the family one.

Jellied Shrimp Salad
Two cups strained tomatoes, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 4 whole cloves, 1 bay leaf, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 small onion, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatine, 1 cup cleaned and diced shrimps, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1 green pepper.

Combine tomatoes, water, salt, pepper, cloves, bayleaf, sugar and onion peeled and minced. Put over the fire and simmer, closely covered for 20 minutes. Strain. Soften gelatin in 4 tablespoons cold water for five minutes. Re-heat tomato juice to boiling point and pour over softened gelatine. Let stand until cool and beginning to set. Add shrimps, celery and pepper. Parboil pepper for five minutes, plunge into cold water and rub off thin outer skin. Remove seeds and white pith and cut flesh into shreds. Turn mixture into individual molds or one large mold. Let stand on ice until firm. Serve on a bed of lettuce with mayonnaise or a cooked dressing.

Of course there is nothing for Declarer to do but follow suit on the first trick and wait for the second.

Assuming that west continues to lead Clubs (and shifting suits is about as dangerous for an adversary of the Declarer as swapping horses crossing a stream), declarer will note that while he will not lose any trump tricks, he stands to lose one Club, one Diamond and two Hearts, which would make him one short of game. He has a total of six trumps; therefore one adverse hand must have at least four. He can see that he has just one probable chance of getting game and that is to trump the second Club trick and then, before leading a trump, establish his Diamonds. It is necessary for him to do this because if he exhausts trumps and then lead Diamonds, one adversary will win with the Ace of Diamonds and then they will proceed to defeat the contract severely by running a long line of Clubs. If the King of Diamonds be lead to trick 2, it is probable that the adversary with the Ace will win it and lead another Club to trick 3, with the idea of forcing the 'Closed Hand' once more. This opportunity to trump Declarer will decline and discard the Five of Hearts. It is not likely that the adversaries will continue the Club suit after that because they can see that Dummy could trump and give Closed Hand a discard; they probably will lead Hearts. In that event Declarer would win with the Ace, lead four rounds of Trumps hoping for the probable 4-3 adverse distribution which would enable him to exhaust the adverse trumps. Declarer then would lead his Diamonds, overtake the last Diamond from Closed Hand in Dummy's thirteenth Diamond and thus make game.

"Follow the highway markings and you can't go wrong." . . . That's the advice the Automobile club gives you before starting on a motor trip. You follow the well-known, well-marked roads. And you reach your destination the safest, most comfortable way.

Why not follow the same rule in your shopping? Why not stick to the "highways of buying?" They have been just as carefully plotted, and are just as carefully marked as the great motor roads you've come to depend upon. Marked by the trade-marks of reliable, advertised products.

The next time you go shopping follow these "highways." Before you start, look through the advertisements in these columns. Pick out the products you want. Notice the names and trade-marks that identify them. And then ask for them by name.
