THE GARDEN

AN OLD FAVORITE COMES BACK

With the developing interest in the arrangement of flowers in the house, an old garden favorite has regained its former prestige because of its color as well as its ease of growth and this is the nasturtium. It is an ideal flower for lawns, the flame-colored types in black or green bowls being favorite exhibits at flower shows. No more brilliant color can be furnished than by this most easily grown of annuals, nor is there any annual that gives a greater supply of bloom over a longer period.

It is a plant for poor soils and reveals in heat, asking only a reasonable supply of moisture in parching weather. In rich soils it is likely to develop its strength in luxuriant foliage at the expense of bloom, so do not give nasturtiums any fertilizer. It is one of the handsomest of plants for edgings and is perhaps grown best in this manner.

The flowers are mingled with the leaves in an artistic arrangement that is often imitated with excellent effect when the bloom is full. It also is a climber and an excellent long trailer for window or porch boxes in city apartments, giving a supply of flowers to cut with little trouble. While it climbs if assisted, it is really a rambling plant, as it has no tendrils and is not a twiner, so the long reaching stems must be tied up.

The colorings are the same in both the tall and dwarf sorts and include velvety, almost black, crimson through shades of scarlet and orange to brilliant yellows with some handsome rose shades and a brilliant series of blotched and flaked sorts. There are golden leaved, purple leaved and variegated leaved sorts to add to the attractions of the plant, all with beautiful bloom.

The Lobb type is a favorite among the climbers because of the brilliancy and intensity of its coloring. Empress of India, a fiery crimson with dark foliage, is much used as a bedding plant. Seed should be sown in the open after danger of frost is over.

AT THE THEATERS

"Midnight Rose" Sunday Only At Arcade Theater

One of the most gorgeously colorful productions which has ever been built around the spectacular night life of the Gold Coast will be shown at the Arcade theater on Sunday only.

It is "Midnight Rose" with Lya De Putti and Kenneth Harlan and was produced by Universal.

A large part of the action takes place in a cabaret, the prototype of the present day night club. In this rather hectic setting has been set a natural and gripping story of the refining influence of love between a reformed gangster and a cabaret dancer.

The action of the story takes place before the enactment of the 18th Amendment and presents the glamorous days of old San Francisco.

The cabaret sequence was staged at great cost with a troupe of dancers, the most beautiful girls that could be located in Hollywood, as atmosphere to Miss De Putti, who is herself an excellent dancer having been on the stage prior to her entrance into pictures.

A beautiful dance floor, gorgeously decorated with expensive silk drapes was populated with the most typical of atmosphere players as guests. Pounds of confetti and streamers were thrown around in staging a riotous New Year's Eve Party.

James Young directed with a superb cast including Henry Kolker, Loretta Johnson, George Larkin, "Gumbo" Smith, Wendell Franklin and Frank Brownlee.

Pola Negri Starring in "Three Sinners" Sun., Mon. At Star

Pola Negri has portrayed the heartless vamp. She has appeared in roles of practically every degree and color but in "Three Sinners" she is a real woman, suffering tragically over the loss of husband, child and home. The picture will show at the Star theater Sunday and Monday.

The story is based on one of the most successful stage plays recently seen in Europe, "Her Second Life." It tells the story of a woman who leaves home to visit her sister. Yielding to the importunities of a friend, she goes for a motor ride while the train stands in a station. The train goes on without her, is wrecked and everyone is killed. Believing her dead, her husband mourns for his wife. The wife, afraid to reveal herself because of the gossip which will inevitably arise, relinquishes her home and loved ones.

The denouement of "Three Sinners" is said to be one of the most smashing dramatic climaxes seen on the screen in years. Featured in support of Pola Negri are Paul Lukas, Tullio Carminati and Olga Baclanova.

Rowland V. Lee, who has directed Pola Negri in a number of her greatest successes, also directed "Three Sinners."

Short subjects of unusual interest will also be shown.

To clarify fat used in deep frying add raw potato cut in small cubes and allow the fat to heat gradually. When the fat ceases to bubble and the potato is brown, strain carefully. The potato absorbs any odors or gases and collects some of the sediment. The rest settles to the bottom.

"—And here's my receipt"

IT happens to each of us some time or other—a bill rendered twice. It's often annoying and embarrassing. But when you pay with a check drawn on this bank, your cancelled check is a legal receipt. There's no room for argument.

This is just one advantage of a checking account here. We'll gladly tell you more.

COMFORT

Soft wheat flour for cake and pastry making is far superior because it contains only a small amount of gluten. Hard wheat flour is best for bread making because of this strong elastic gluten which allows the bread to expand and rise satisfactorily. Corn starch added to bread flour does not change the quality of the tough gluten, hence is ineffective in making bread flour into cake flour.
