Institute Here Will Be Closed Tomorrow Night

Program of Organ Music Will Be Given at First Presbyterian Church by Miss Maguire.

Programs of unusual interest are promised in several churches of the city tomorrow. A musical program of organ numbers, presented by Miss Edna Maguire, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Richardson, I. J. Lindsay and Raymond O. Williams, at the First Presbyterian church classes at the First Baptist church in the evening and a talk by Dr. W. T. Milliken in the morning, a combination hour at the First Methodist Episcopal church at 7:30, and special messages in various other churches are particularly outstanding.

The leadership training institute at the First Baptist church, was initiated last weekend and the first class was held at that time. The institute is being conducted by Dr. W. T. Milliken, state director of religious education for the Baptist church, and Miss Louise Handrup, elementary director and Oregon secretary for the World Wide Guild. Dr. Milliken returned to Portland after last Sunday's meetings and has now returned to La Grande again for this week's classes. Miss Handrup has been in the county all this week and most of last week meeting with the various departments and societies for conferences while the institute is not in session.

Two periods of classes were held last night at the church and were well attended. Tonight there will be two periods again, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, and tomorrow night there will be four periods, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, which will close the institute. Miss Handrup is conducting classes in the elementary work and Dr. Milliken has charge of the classes in which the more advanced work of the church is being taken up. Credit will be given for those finishing either course, and passing the tests given at the close of the institute.

Tomorrow morning during the Sunday school hour at 9:45 o'clock Miss Handrup will organize and conduct a model junior department. Dr. Milliken will be the speaker during the morning church services at 11 o'clock.

First Presbyterian Church
In addition to the prelude "Cathedral Grand March" by Ryder and the postlude, Miss Edna Maguire will play three groups of organ numbers in her program Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Raymond O. Williams will sing "Leave It With Him" by Edna and Mrs. A. L. Richardson will sing "Ave Maria" by Bach-Gounod. I. J. Lindsay playing the violin obbligato. The program arranged is "one of interest and is being looked forward to by La Grande music lovers. Following is the program:
Prelude—"Cathedral Grand March" by Ryder
Lundendary Air—Old Irish
Forest Vesper—Johnston
Air du Roi Louis XIII—Glynn
Solo—"Leave It With Him" by Edna

Mr. Williams—Grieg
Peer Gynt Suite—Morning Mood
Solo—"Ave Maria" by Edna and Mrs. A. L. Richardson
"Japanese Sunset"—Deppen
Solo—"Ave Maria" by Bach-Gounod
"Vocal Obligato" by Mrs. Richardson
Offertory: Berceuse from "Jocelyn"—Godard
Solo—"Ave Maria" by Edna
Mr. Lindsay—Tchaikowsky
Theme from "Symphonie Pathétique"—"Love's Old Sweet Song"—Malloy
Transcribed by Leonard
"Rex Gloria"—Hay

At the morning service at 11 o'clock the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. George Wain, will bring a May Day message, speaking on the subject "The Unseen Loan." The choir will sing the anthem "In Heavenly Love Abiding" by Spittler. Miss Maguire will play the prelude "La Fontaine" by Lyberg, and the offertory "Angels Serenade" by Bragg.

The Sunday school will open at 9:45 o'clock in the morning with classes for all. The Christian Endeavor societies will hold their regular meetings at 11 o'clock.

spective meetings at three o'clock in the afternoon and at 6:30 o'clock in the evening at the church.

First M. E. Church
Members of the First Methodist Episcopal church will observe the Holy Communion with the use of the two well known hymns written by Isaac Watts and William B. Tappan Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock hour worship. The special music of the morning will be rendered by Mrs. George Richardson and Miss Minnie Cooper, who will sing a selection entitled "Hark, Hark, My Soul." The pastor will speak on "A Primitive Sunday."

The Bible school will meet at 9:45 o'clock. The lesson theme is "Jesus' Standard of Greatness." The lesson exposition in the men and women's adult classes proving helpful and interesting. It is announced.
At 7:30 o'clock in the evening there will be a combination hour by the Epworth League and the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Parker. The league, under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Cooper, will have charge of the music. Mrs. Cooper will sing "Prayer Perfect" after which there will be a lesson on "Sources of Power." This will be followed by a debate, announcements and an address by Mr. Parker on "The Fountain of Good." The service will begin promptly at 7:30 and the members of the league and pastor are urging the members and friends of the church to meet with them at that time.

Central Christian Church
There will be a Stewardship service at the Central Christian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, following the Bible school at 9:45. The choir will furnish special music and the pastor, the Rev. L. E. Putnam, will bring a message on the subject "Paying God What We Owe Him." There will be enrollment of titheers in the Tithe League at this time.

The junior, intermediate, young people's and senior Christian Endeavor societies will meet at 6:30 o'clock in the evening and at 7:30 o'clock there will be an evangelistic service.

The young people's choir will assist with the song service and the Rev. Mr. Putnam will talk on "What Must We Believe to be Saved?"

Episcopal Church
There will be clerical celebration of the Holy Communion Sunday morning during the 11 o'clock hour of worship at St. Peter's Episcopal church, and the Rev. Oliver Hilly, rector, will deliver a sermon on "What is the Vital Thing in Life?"

There will be Holy Eucharist at eight o'clock in the morning and at 9:45 o'clock the church school will meet. Evening services at this church have been discontinued for the summer.

English Lutheran Church
Church school begins promptly at 9:45 o'clock at the English Lutheran church. The pastor, the Rev. Leif H. Aasen, will deliver the fourth sermon of the series on "How Christ Appears in Our Daily Lives." The choir will sing the anthem, "There Were Ninety and Nine."

The intermediate Lutheran League will have an open air meeting Sunday evening. Members and friends of the league will meet at the home of Miss Verla McLane, 2307 North First street at about 7:30 o'clock.

M. E. Church South
"Christian Education" will be the subject on which the Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church south will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. There will be special music.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 o'clock and the Epworth League at seven o'clock in the evening, followed by devotional services at eight o'clock. Both the Sunday school and league are being well attended.

Church of God
The Rev. Carlos Plummer will preach tomorrow morning at the Church of God on the subject "The Government of the Early Church." The evening services will be in the form of a Union meeting with Lloyd Day and Forest Day in attendance.

The Sunday school meets at ten o'clock in the morning and the young people's meeting is at 6:45 o'clock.

Lighthouse Gospel Mission
Announcements for next week's services will be announced Sunday evening during the evangelistic services at the Lighthouse Gospel Mission. Rachel Henriksen will be the speaker. Morning services are

Musical Program To Be Presented Tuesday Evening

De Moss Concert Company Will Appear Here Under Auspices of the Christian Church.

The De Moss Concert company, under the auspices of the Central Church of Christ, will be in La Grande Friday and will present an exceptional musical program here in the high school auditorium Friday evening at eight o'clock. This family of entertainers have been on the concert stage for more than 55 years, beginning at Cove, Ore. In that time they have been in every state of the United States, every province of Canada, and in many of the countries of Europe, and have entertained large crowds in the various places. They have been very successful.

The company invites music lovers and music critics to the concert. Piano teachers and pupils will be interested in Miss Smith, pianist, who is a graduate of the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago. Homer De Moss, flute soloist, is a pupil of George Barrere and his technique is excellent. Elbert De Moss, violin soloist, has studied in the Leopold Auer school of New York City. He is a technician of rare ability on the violin. Mr. and Mrs. George De Moss are the oldest members of the group and are accomplished musicians.

Performs Unusual feat
Mr. De Moss performs the feat of playing two cornets at one time, the soprano part on one and the alto part on the other. Other features of the program are vocal music, readings, pianoforte, banjo playing in real plantation style and home melodies on hand bells. The closing number of the program will be the playing of two guitars while swinging them as "dumb bells" by George De Moss, a poem by the reader and a hymn changed by the quartet.

A house to house canvass is being made in an effort to have a full house. Those purchasing tickets can make reservations at the Forty-Nine cent store on Adams avenue any time after Monday.

WINNINGS

The monthly meeting of the official board of the Central Church of Christ will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church. Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be Bible history study. The subject will be "Period of Wanderings."

The intermediate Epworth League of the English Lutheran church will have an open air meeting Sunday evening. The members will meet at the home of Miss Verla McLane.

The La Grande Ministerial Association will meet Monday morning at ten o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Remington were in the city from Pendleton this week. Bishop Remington conducted confirmation services at St. Peter's Episcopal church here.

The public is invited to attend the program of organ music tomorrow night at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

Christian Science Church
Services are held regularly every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ Scientist, corner of First street and Washington avenue. The subject for tomorrow morning is "Adam and Fallen Man." Sunday school meets at 9:45 o'clock. Meetings are also held every Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, which include testimony of healing. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

The reading room in the West-Jackson building, corner of Adams avenue and Elm street, is open every day from 12 o'clock until 4:30 except Sundays and holidays.
