AT THE THEATERS

"Coney Island" Showing At Star Today

"Coney Island" a tale of the world-famed resort, is to be brought to the Star theater today only. No expense has been spared to make "Coney Island" the finest amusement park story ever to have been filmed. FHO studio officials claim.

The picture has been directed by that veteran of the megaphone, Ralph Ince, and stars Lois Wilson and Lucia Mendez.

Residents of this city who have journeyed to New York and seen "Coney Island" will recognize many of the famous old landmarks of that international resort. Ince traveled three thousand miles to get actual pictures of the mid-summer crowd.

One of the largest and fastest riding devices in this country, "The Giant Dipper," known to thousands, was taken over for two days and nights when the proper atmosphere might be obtained and a faithful picture be presented to the legal title of the above described property as the same appears of record, is hereby further notified that The Abstract and Title Company, a corporation, will apply to the Circuit Court of the County and State aforesaid for a decree foreclosing the lien against the property above described, and mentioned in said certificate. And you are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the first publication of this summons, exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend this action or pay the amount due as above shown, together with costs and accrued interest, and in case of your failure to do so, a decree will be rendered foreclosing the lien of said taxes and costs against the land and premises above named.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Union, and said order was made and dated this 16th day of April, 1928, and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 17th day of April 1928.

All process and papers in this proceeding may be served upon the undersigned residing within the State of Oregon at the address hereafter mentioned.

Anita Loos' Lorelei a Winner On Screen

Last night at the Arcade theater the audiences were rewarded by the film version of Anita Loos' great success, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." This epic of the modern gold-digger as portrayed by Ruth Taylor will go down in the film annals as one of the great satirical portrayals. Miss Taylor until her great chance as Lorelei Lee was given her, was practically an unknown in the movie world. After the folks have seen her thoroughly admirable performance in the year's best seller, they will vote her definitely "in."

The direction by Malcolm St. Clair is so deft and well done that readers of the book will have nothing but praise for the able production. What a characterization Ruth Taylor gives! She makes this modern Lorelei so real so enjoyable that not for one minute is there any lagging. "Alice White," whose reputation is high now gives a performance as Dorothy, Lorelei's friend, that will enhance her position in the cinema art. The rest of the cast consists of Ford Sterling, Holmes Herbert, Trixie Friganza, Chester Conklin, Emily Fitzroy, Ilanchoe Frierdick, Mack Swain and many more familiar comedy players.

On a farm in Arkansas, little Lorelei Lee starts her gold-digging career. From there she goes to Little Rock where she wins the help of the judge who is presiding over her case. Chester Conklin plays the part of the philanthropic orator. He, softened by the amount of money to go to Hollywood so that she may make a career for herself. From Hollywood she goes to New York where her education begins in earnest. To Paris she goes and manages to win for herself the world's richest bachelor.

All through her travels she conquers hearts to the tune of big brother, dig. Only her wide innocent eyes and guileless manner are her weapons. But the way she "takes" the gentleman is a caution. "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" has the wildest of appeals. The women will love it for its marvelous scenes wherein our little Lorelei appears in the most beautiful gowns. The men will have the time of their lives watching this little "miner" do her stuff. You will enjoy "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" as much as we did and if you do, you will have had one of the most enjoyable evenings of your motion picture-going lives.

"Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" will be the attraction at the Arcade theater again today and Wednesday.
