CONTRACT BRIDGE

Minor Take-Out of Original No Trump

With a Minor the Contract taken out at a low score is very different from the Bridge take-out. Just as in Bridge, a score makes the Minor take-out the same as the Major take-out at low, but in Contract at a low score we have a low proposition. It seems being unknown, it is advisable to bid a five-card Minor headed by Ace-King, Ace-Queen-Jack, or possibly Ace-Queen. With King-Queen it is doubtful and probably inadvisable. The bid of two of a Minor over a partner's one No Trump announces no side help for the No Trump but at least four cards of the Minor headed by Ace-King-Queen, or at least five cards of the Minor with two of the three top honors. With side help for the No Trump, the bid generally should be two No Trumps, not two of the Minor. (With a score, bid the Minor even with side help.) With Ace-King-Queen in the Minor and no other help, bid two of the Minor even from a low score but not with any weaker four-card holding. To illustrate:

With No. 1, bid two of Suit 1, either a Major or Minor, over partner's No Trump. With No. 2, bid two of Suit 1 over partner's No Trump if Suit 1 be a Major, or with a score if it be a Minor, bid two No Trumps. Examples will suffice to make all this clear.

In both No. 1 and 4, if Suit 1 be a Major, bid two of it over partner's No Trump. If it be a Minor, bid the Minor only with a score, at a low score bid two No Trumps. This subject will be continued tomorrow.

Well, the lady that has the poor feet has come down to see our wall paper at last. I was going to call her an old lady but she is so spry, besides I want to sell her some wall paper that she probably wants to buy. I want to be nice and make all the sales I can. We are very pleased with the operation of our sack factory. The gentleman that runs the machines is working just as fast as he can to get the orders out.

We are saving people money on wall paper. Our Red Top, non-rust galvanized fencing will soon be in. We also have lawn fencing coming that is non-flammable. Lots of squirrels coming in all over the country now and they are figuring on taking as much crop as they can for winter use. Some of the alfalfa throughout the country looks pretty well, and some of it ought to be combed out. How are your hens doing? and do you get a cream check once in a while? Which would you rather do or go fishing?
