Bridge-Luncheon Complimentary To Mrs. H. B. Coburn

A spring bridge-luncheon that was one of the largest and prettiest ever to be given in La Grande took place at the Sacajawea Inn yesterday when Mrs. H. N. Ashby and Mrs. Clyde H. Seltz entertained 63 of their friends. Mrs. H. B. Coburn was honor guest. Mrs. Coburn is leaving soon for Walla Walla where she will join Mr. Coburn in establishing their home.

An excellent four-course luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock at tables that were arranged in the hotel dining room. Centerpieces of pink azaleas, roses and tulips were charming and suggestive of springtime.

Following luncheon, bridge was played on 14 tables. Fourteen tables were arranged around the perimeter, overlooking the lobby. Here, huge bouquets of pink azaleas and baskets and bowls of tulips and narcissus, in profusion, again suggested the spring motif.

First prize went to Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. W. G. Sawyer won second and consolation went to Mrs. Delia Green. The honor guest, Mrs. Coburn, was presented with a gift.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. David I. Stoddard, of Baker, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, of Enterprise, and Mrs. G. E. Holt, of Enterprise, who is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Bagge.

The members of the St. Peter's aid of the Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. George Hedden on Y avenue yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There was a good attendance reported.

Committees were appointed for a rummage sale to be held May 26 and an apron sale was discussed. To be held the first of June. After the regular business meeting Mrs. Harriet McDonald read a book on "The Golden Broom," which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Hedden served refreshments at the close of the meeting, assisted by Miss Elsie Sheely. The next meeting of the aid will be held at the home of Mrs. B. W. Carr, June 12.

The Baker visitors, who were the special guests of the evening, were entertained at the La Grande hotel until the hour of the chapter, when they were escorted to the hall. There, the hostess committee, Mrs. Emma Kliddle, Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, Mrs. Mae Noyes and Mrs. Carrie I. Steincamp, acted as the hostess committee and cared for the welfare and enjoyment of all the company.

At 8 o'clock the chapter opened in due form with the officers of the local chapter, Mrs. Lydia Loney, worthy matron, in their respective stations. At the proper time for the exemplification of the initiatory work, the La Grande officers retired and their places were taken by officers from the Esther chapter, who in a most beautiful and impressive manner went through the beautiful ceremony of initiation, with two candidates from La Grande. The work was made exceptionally impressive by the music furnished at regular intervals by the quartet from Esther chapter, composed of Dr. Carlsson, tenor, Mrs. June Finch, soprano, Mrs. Grace Ross, alto and W. C. Ross, bass. Another very beautiful feature was the introduction of the use of a set of lights which have recently been presented to Hope chapter by the officers serving in the respective stations this year.

The officers from Baker, through whose wonderful presentation the work was made so impressive, were as follows: worthy matron, Mrs. Mabel Henderson; worthy patron, Roy Wheeler; associate matron, Mrs. Mabel Dreisbach; conductress, Anna Grace Brown; associate conductress, Mrs. Angie Wheeler; secretary, Mrs. Caroline Penrod; treasurer, Mrs. Clara Langrell; marshal, Mrs. Florence Willer; Adah, Mrs. Helen Herr; Ruth, Mrs. Mary Rosina; Esther, Mrs. Helen Lee; Martha, Mrs. Alice Welkand; Electa, Mrs. Fred McCallough; plans, Mrs. Mary Brokaw; ward, Mrs. Mabel Romig; sentinel, Jack Jackson; chaplain, Mrs. Marguerite Bradshaw.

After the initiatory work, a number of the visitors were called upon and responded with short talks. This preceded a very excellent program which had been arranged by the committee, Mrs. Margaret Ingie and Miss Blanche Clark. Mrs. Andrew Place sang a violin solo, "Madrigals" by Simonetti. She was accompanied by Miss Ruth Brantwell. Miss Mima Cooper sang "Until You Come" by Metcalfe, with Mrs. George S. Birnie at the piano. "The Princess" by Grieg and "The Linnets Is Tuning Her Flute" by Maxton Browne were sung by Mrs. George Richardson, Mrs. Birnie being her accompanist.

Following the program the company, numbering in all over 200, were invited into the dining room. Here tables enough to accommodate the large company were spread, all having for their centerpieces bouquets of the pretty spring blossoms. Mrs. C. M. Humphreys and Mrs. Frank Robinson were chairmen of the committees which served a delectable two-course luncheon.

In the lodge room were many bouquets and baskets of the tulips so beautiful at this time. Mrs. Andrew Loney having had charge of the decorations, while Mrs. Charles Graham had charge of the decorations in the dining room.

An hour of informal visiting was enjoyed before the company dispersed, thus concluding a most delightful evening for all who were privileged to share it.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Herr entertained Monday evening at a surprise party, the occasion of which was the birthday anniversary of their son, Harold. Mr. Herr is a member of the graduating class at the high school. His friends surprised him at about 7:30 o'clock. The evening was spent playing games out of doors and later in the home. Mrs. Herr served delightful refreshments at about 10:30 o'clock. MENUS

By SISTER MARY
BREAKFAST—Stewed dried apricots, cereal, cream, bread, crunk pancakes, maple syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—English monkey, radishes and onions, rye bread, orange blane mange, milk, tea.

DINNER—Chicken loaf, sautéed carrots and peas, green sweet potatoes, tomato and green pepper salad, rhubarb sherbet, milk coffee.

Keep in mind the trick of using carrots to stretch more expensive vegetables. They are particularly good with green peas and should be cut in neat dice about the same size as the peas.

Rhubarb sherbet is delicious and refreshing after a hearty dinner.
Rhubarb Sherbet
Two pounds rhubarb, 1 lemon, 1½ cups sugar, ½ cup seedless raisins, 1 tablespoon gelatine, ¼ cup cold water.

Wash and peel rhubarb and cut into inch lengths. Cook in just enough water to prevent burning until tender. Add sugar and rub through a colander. Drop raisins in boiling water to cover for 20 minutes. Add raisins and lemon juice to rhubarb puree and return to the fire. Bring to the boiling point and add gelatine softened for 15 minutes in cold water. Remove at once from the fire and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Let cool and pour into mold of ice cream freezer. Pack in four parts ice to one part ice cream salt and let stand two hours or longer.

Begin at once taking care of your skin the EATON'S Liquid Cleansing Cream way. Upon retiring, or during the day, whenever the skin feels dusty, drawn or tired, pat this cream gently on the face. Let it remain for a few minutes so that its fine, pure oils may penetrate the pores and remove all dust and powder. Then remove with a soft cloth or tissue, and note the velvety, refreshed appearance of your skin.
