LA GRANDE NINTH IN STATE MEET

Anson Wins Mile in Fast Time--H. Wolfe, Charlton Make Points

La Grande High school placed ninth in the state track meet at Corvallis Saturday with 7.5 points. Anson, distance man, winning the mile run in 4:39.1-5. Benson high of Portland, won the meet with 32.7 points. Pendleton's team, largely due to Penland's work in the hurdles, placed seventh. Lynn Knutze's record in the 440-yard dash, made last year, still stands although it was tied by Harno, of Salem, Saturday. Anson's time in the mile was less than three seconds slower than the state record.

Other Places Taken by La Grande places were taken by: Charlton, fifth in discus; and H. Wolfe, tie for fourth in high jump, and tie for fifth in the pole vault.

Some exceptional marks were made Saturday. Penland, of Pendleton, topped the low sticks in 28.4 to set a new low hurdle record. The half mile relay was run in 1:33 by the Grant high school team and Anderson, of Washington high, threw the discus 116 feet 8 inches. The La Grande team, of 14 men, was accompanied by Coach R. W. Christie and Tom Bruce, student body president. J. H. Peare, of La Grande, was also in attendance as timer. The team returned yesterday in time to attend baccalaureate services at the L. D. S. tabernacle. This officially ends La Grande High school's athletic activities for the present school year.

PYLE BLISTER BRIGADE JOGS TO ASHTABULA

ATBOWHEAD, Ohio, May 14 (AP)—The Pyle blister brigade had their eyes today on Ashtabula, 45 miles eastward, the seventy-second control on the trans-continent-al derby.

Andrew Payne, Oklahoma youth, who returned to the leadership of the race Friday, blinged on at the consistent pace that has characterized his performance through the 2,804 miles from Los Angeles with an elapsed time of 463:48:22.

John Sato, Passaic, N. J., second to Payne in the official record, blazed the trail from Elyria Sunday through Cleveland traffic in 7:12:24, thus cutting the Oklahoman's margin by 58 minutes, 13 seconds. Sato was followed by Ed Gardner, Seattle, in 7:45. Third came Mike Joyce, Cleveland Irishman in 7:48:30. Joyce was the recipient of a sizable purse here.

Harry Shear, 48, Alaska musher, who was among the first 25, was struck by an automobile near Elyria and was taken to a hospital where it was feared he had a fractured skull.

Allan Currier, Rogue River, Ore., finished yesterday's lap 11:03:01. His elapsed time was 598:01:19.

He had a great year at Tijuana and his services are much in demand on eastern tracks at this time.

By the Associated Press. Best in the hostile hands of the ferocious Cubs, John McGraw's New York Giants have yielded the National League leadership to the Cincinnati Reds.

Jack Hendrick's crew moved up to the head of the class yesterday by defeating the hapless Phillies 11 to 4, while the Giants were losing their second game in a row to the Chicago Cubs, 6 to 5.

At Brooklyn, the Dodgers broke a five game losing streak by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8 to 5. The Boston Braves ended the Cardinals' six-game winning streak with a six to five verdict at St. Louis.

One-Hit Game. George Uhl turned in a one-hit pitching classic at Cleveland as the Indians downed the Phillies for the second day in a row 2 to 0.

Four singles, a bob and a sacrifice hit gave the New York Yankees four runs in the first inning and the champions coasted on to win from Detroit 7 to 2.

The Senators blasted three White Sox pitchers for 16 hits in an easy 19 to 1 victory at Washington.

Albany Takes 15 Inning Contest

EUGENE, Ore., May 14 (AP)—Pitchers were heroes in yesterday's Eugene-Albany game of the Willamette Valley league, played here as the opening game of the season.

HOLLYWOOD GOES TO FIRST PLACE

Portland and Missions Divide Double Header--Seattle Drops Two

Pacific Coast League Standings table with columns for team, W, L, Pct.

By the Associated Press. Sigafos' home run was the only hit the Beavers could collect off Carl Holting, and the Missions won the afternoon game 3-1, after poor fielding had given Portland a 3-2 decision in the morning encounter.

Batteries: Cole and Almsmith; Phillips and Whitney. Second game: Ponder and Rego; Holting and Haltswin.

Oakland made it four straight victories by taking a pair of contests from the Seals 4-3 and 11-8. Leading 3-1 in the ninth inning of the first game, the great Mails blew higher than a kite, and the Oaks pushed over three runs, enough to win. The afternoon fracas was a free-hitting affair in which Cooper and Craighead outlasted a trio of San Francisco hurlers. Batteries: Mails and Vargas; Hoehler and Reed. Second game: Mitchell, Ferguson, May and Spring; Cooper, Craighead and Lombardi.

Sacramento and Los Angeles split a twin bill, the Senators' 7-5 victory in the second fray giving them the odd game of the series. Wilbur Peters relieved Bob Osborne in the first inning of the morning game when he was struck by a batted ball and pitched the Angels to 3-1 win. Batteries: R. Osborne, Peters and Sanberg; Keating and Sverfeld. Second game: Cunningham, Weatherby, Gabler and Hannan; Sandburg; Baehre, Vinel and Koehler.

Roy W. Ritner Is Expected By His Friends To Win

PENDLETON, Ore., May 14 --With the race for the republican nomination for congressman drawing to a close, friends of Roy W. Ritner say he will be the winner on May 15. They base this view, in part, upon the fact that Ritner is a practical farmer, the only actual grower in the list of republican candidates, and they believe the district wants a congressman who will know from personal experience about farm affairs.

Ritner's 12 years' record as a legislator at Salem helps his candidacy greatly. His firm stand against the state tax for the Portland fair bill when he was president of the senate gave him real prestige. He is a vigorous champion of the Umatilla rapids project and also an advocate of legislation to reimburse counties and states for the fact that forest reserve lands, being owned by the federal government, are not on our tax rolls.

Prominent Umatilla county citizens are backing Ritner regardless of party lines and without reference to previous factional differences, it is said.

Farm Pointers

When using one of the coal-tar creosote preparations in dipping livestock, only soft water should be used to dilute the mixture. When hard water is used a separation of the ingredients often occurs and the first animals to pass through the dip are likely to receive a dangerously large quantity of the chemicals.

There are several kinds of small cellar drainers or pumps on the market, particularly advantageous to the farmer who has a wet cellar and wants to avoid the expense and labor of making it watertight. The drainer usually is installed in a small pit in the lowest corner of the cellar and the water run off on the ground outside the building.

Sudan grass and soybeans are excellent crops for growing in mixture. A better yield and a better balanced forage is obtained, as the Sudan grass is low in protein and the soybeans high. Best results are obtained by broadcasting 10 pounds of Sudan grass seed to 50 pounds of soybean seed to the acre.

Medicated nest eggs will not control chicken lice. It is better to use the hen three pinches of sodium fluoride—one on head and neck, one on the back and one below the vent. For small chicks use two very small pinches.

Frequently a lower churning temperature is necessary in summer. Winter temperature inside the churn usually ranges from 28 to 48 degrees Fahrenheit, and if maintained at that in summer may result in the formation of soft butter. A churn temperature of 52 to 60 degrees usually produces firm butter in summer.

It is not always necessary to produce infertile eggs to insure the best market quality. Fertile eggs may be kept advantageously if they are kept in a cool place and marketed often.

HEAD COLDS VICKS VAPORUB Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Bridge Pointers

It is difficult to say exactly what advice an experienced bridge player would give if he were asked to make just one brief statement, limited to questions of play, for the benefit of the novice. Probably he could not do better than use the four words: "Avoid opening new suits."

"After a suit has been opened, it should be continued by the player who wins the first trick unless some unusual development makes a shift clearly advisable. Shifting to a suit of which the high-card strength is divided between the opposing sides, probably will cost a trick; to lead from any suit which is not headed by Ace, King or a high three-card head sequence (such as King-Queen-Jack or Queen-Jack-Ten) is usually disadvantageous and, as the most advantageous suit presumably was opened in the first place, a shift is likely to result in the opening of a suit subject to one or both of the above disadvantages.

The lead of the partner has been made with some object, so it should be returned except when the holding of dummy or some other development renders such action plainly inadvisable.

The initial leader has to open some suit; perhaps his first lead proves to be a winning card and the completion of the trick discloses that particular lead has been advantageous to declarer; but that situation cannot then be altered. For him to shift to another suit, unless the play of his partner or the holding of the dummy clearly indicates that he should, is apt to increase declarer's advantage—not to diminish it.

Shifting suits and swapping horses while crossing a stream are enterprises to which the same general advice is applicable—Don't. The advice to continue the initial suit rather than risk a new one applies with equal force whether the contract is a trump or a No Trump; except that there are two situations to which the advice does not apply.

(1) When a player who has named a suit during the auction (the opponent on his right having secured the contract) becomes the initial leader and opens some other suit, he plainly wants his own suit led toward him, and partner—winning the first trick—generally should return the suit named, not the one led. (2) When the partner of the initial leader against a No Trump can tell from the card led that the leader held exactly four, and sees only four more of the suit in his own hand and dummy, he knows that Closed Hand has five. Should the leader's partner win the first trick, he should not return that suit because he can see that it really is declarer's suit—not the leader's—and probably nothing would please declarer better than to have it continued.
