Plenty of Thrills
The baseball game Sunday was full of thrills and during the last three innings most of the spectators were hanging onto their seats and going into "buck fever" as the suspense increased. LaSalle, although his batting average suffered, stole a couple of hits from Pendleton by spectacular fielding. Helms started La Grande's chances will arrive in La Grande to rejoin the team Thursday or Friday. Spellman, the new catcher, took 12 chances without a muff and hit the ball four out of five times, although he couldn't get the apple safe.

Play Bears Next
La Grande sent a large crowd of fans to the game, about 150 or more making the trip over the mountain.

Walla Walla had a bad day at Baker yesterday but is expected to strengthen up for the first game with La Grande, which will be played here next Sunday, May 19.
