PRACTICAL SOLUTION

Mrs. A.—I sat up for hours last night with a wet towel around my head trying to solve the help problem.

Mrs. B.—And I stood up half an hour with a dish towel in my hand, solving mine.

While—We had chicken four times last week.

Nellie—How extravagant!

While—Oh, no! It was the same chicken.

"Knees Are Passing"—Headline, "Uh-huh, in review. But what of it? And who cares?"

The emigrant to America was buying his ticket at the shipping office.

"And what about your trunk?" demanded the clerk.

"For what would I be wantin' a trunk?" asked the bewildered emigrant.

"You put your clothes in, of course."

"What?" cried the scandalized emigrant, "and me go naked?"

It seems that the income of Harold Bell Wright was several times larger than the salary of the president of the United States. In which case he had rather be Wright than to be president.

His wife had gone to visit her mother, and had telephoned that she would not be returning until the morning.

When she got home she said to her husband, "You managed to find some thing to eat last night, didn't you, dear?"

"Oh, yes," he replied cheerily. "I had the steak that was in the pantry and fried it with some onions that I found in the cellar."

"Onions?" she gasped. "Darling, you've eaten my flower bulbs!"

AT THE THEATERS

Clara Bow At Star Tuesday

Clara Bow, Herbert Rawlinson and Earle Williams are the featured players in the picture, "The Adventurous Sex," which will be the attraction at the Star theater Tuesday and Wednesday, but the cast includes other well-known names as well, among the most prominent being Harry T. Morey and Flora Finch.

"The Adventurous Sex" is an ultra modern story of the young generation and Miss Bow, perhaps the screen's best known flapper, has the part of an adventurous young thing, who, tiring of parental interference and a constant stream of "don'ts," takes life into her own hands and starts out to blaze a trail. Her striving for freedom brings about a very embarrassing situation and puts her in a bad light with the man she really loves, but who, for the present at least, seemed entirely too straightforward to suit her.

The gay life of the young folks is said to be pictured with fidelity. The climax of the story comes with a sensational rescue from an airplane which is a thrilling and girl plunging into the Niagara river and is being swept on toward the great falls.

Park Personals

THE PARK (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Morris and son Roy and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Burton and Bertha Moody, of Baker, spent last Sunday at the Clarence Vanorder home here.

The Jerry Thompson bridge was washed out some time Wednesday night because of the great amount of snow in the mountains above here.

Mrs. Bert Vanorder and Mrs. Tony Britton visited at Pondon Monday afternoon.

Elda Hunter, of Catherine creek district, is visiting Frances Miller near Pondon this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vanorder moved to the Henry Wanker ranch on Big creek Thursday. Mr. Wanker expects to take a trip East this summer and visit his old home in Kansas.

Charley Hodges is moving his family from the Grande Ronde logging camp to the Johnny Doughan ranch on Big Creek, this week.

Gilbert White, left Sunday for Weiser, Idaho to join his father who is there.

Miss Mary Vanorder was a Pondon visitor Saturday.

Senator Fess, Republican keynoter, was asked the other day what the issues in this election might be. The senator couldn't answer. He probably has been too busy working on his keynote speech to think about issues.

Charley Chaplin Here Tuesday in "The Circus"

Charley Chaplin in "The Circus" (Special)—awdod — pink lemonade — crows, tigers, elephants, roaring lions, acrobats, wire-walkers, and Charlie Chaplin in his brand new comedy will all be at the Arcade theater for two days starting Tuesday. Written, directed and produced by Charlie Chaplin, "The Circus" was a two-acter in the making and it is the first Chaplin comedy since "The Gold Rush."

Charlie plays a wandering lad who is mixed up in a series of hilarious adventures, chases, arguments and evasions that land him in "The Circus" as a very fine fellow. Merna Kennedy, with red hair and just five feet two, with eyes of blue, is his leading lady; she makes her screen debut in the role. Other in the cast are Harry Crocker, Henry Bergman, Betty Morrissey and Alan Garcia.

According to officials of United Artists Corporation, which released the new Chaplin comedy, "The Circus" presents the Chaplin of old class ever graduating from the North Powder high school.

Mrs. O. J. Hallard and Mrs. Chas. O. Hallard, Jr., entertained the five hundred club at Mrs. John Burden, Sumpter; Neva Riggs, Union; Mr. and Mrs. Hopper and Jane McKay of Baker.

Professor Hammerly has a new Chrysler "52" coupe.

Dick Williams has purchased the Horned pool hall. Mr. Horned has taken over a logging contract and will work in the camps for the Jacobs Brothers.

Mrs. Mary Hutchison, of Union, is spending a few days with her son, C. E. Hutchison and family.

The senior class held the annual games play Thursday night entitled "Anne's Little Affair."

Byce Denning was a Baker visitor, Friday.

The senior class held commencement exercises Friday evening. James Donald, of Baker, spoke to the seniors and Mr. Senecor of the school board presented the diploma to the senior class. There were fourteen seniors who graduated, including seven girls and seven boys, this being the largest

North Powder Personals

NORTH POWDER (Special)—Mrs. Kelsey and Kathel and Audrey Forsstrom were Baker visitors Friday.

Mrs. May McGregor left Thursday evening for Portland, to attend her mother who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson and daughter Inez returned from Portland Tuesday after a couple weeks visit there.

Mrs. May Gilkison was laid to rest Thursday afternoon. Funeral services were held at her daughter's home, Mrs. Nora Atterbury. Rev. Gibson officiated the services. Out-of-town friends who attended the funeral were Laura Burden, Sumpter; Neva Riggs, Union; Mr. and Mrs. Hopper and Jane McKay of Baker.

LOST

Al Smith is wearing a brown derby these days. Well, if you were running for president and had to throw some kind of a hat into the ring wouldn't you pick that, too?

Commandant Fitzmaurice said the crew of the Bremen began to see mirages on nearing America. Well until they're here a white. They ain't seen nothing yet.

Feel Tired and Achy?
Too Often This Warns of Sluggish Kidneys.

LAME? Stiff? Achy? Sure your kidneys are working right? Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to accumulate and make one languid, tired and achy, with often dull headaches, dizziness and nagging backache. A common warning is too frequent, scanty or burning urinations.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of bodily waste. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's!

Mrs. D. V. Dickson, 812 Cascade Ave., Hood River, Ore., says: "I have Doan's Pills will do what is claimed for them and I gladly recommend them. My kidneys were not functioning properly and frequent backaches made me miserable. I had cystitis and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills were just what I needed. They helped me right away and I was soon free from the troubles."
