Joe McCarthy's Cubs, unwontedly docile for the first month of the National league season, must have gotten hold of some raw meat somewhere.

Down in the depths of the second division two weeks ago, the Cubs suddenly came to life and today were resting in second place, only a game back of the league leading Cincinnati Reds.

An 8 to 2 victory over the Giants at Chicago yesterday stretched the cubs' string of victories to nine straight, the last three over New York which was leading the pack and now is in fourth place.

Reds Stay at Top

The Reds maintained their hold on the lead by downing the Phillies at Cincinnati, 8 to 4, the game marking Quakers' tenth straight defeat.

Rallies in the last three innings gave the Cardinals a 4 to 3 victory over Boston at St. Louis.

Thirty-five players struggled through three and a half hours of weird baseball at Forbes field before Brooklyn eked out a 7 to 6 victory over Pittsburg Pirates.

Yanks Up to .800

Their third victory in a row over the Detroit Tigers 7 to 5, sent the New York Yankee American league average up to the .800 mark, figured on the basis of 20 victories and only five defeats. Babe Ruth hit his ninth homer in the seventh inning, and now is four games ahead of his record-breaking pace of last year.

Lefty Grove, crack southpaw of the Philadelphia Athletics, struck out 11 men as the A's beat Cleve-

LA GRANDE HIGH DEFEATS BAKER

Tiger Tennis Team Wins Return Match with Ease on Local Courts

Walloping the Bulldog racqueteers in straight sets that only went to deuce the L. H. S. tennis team proved itself decidedly superior to its Copper City rivals when they played on the municipal courts last night. The Tiger racquet wielders had a fairly easy time of it throughout the games and never once were Ben Oesterling, first ranking player, and Lawrence Bay, second ranking player, compelled to take more than an easy pace in order to win. Had competition in play in their single sets been a little keener, the spectators who saw the matches might have seen some brilliant tennis.

In winning 6-2, 6-0 from Franklin Richards, Baker first ranking man, Oesterling displayed a polished and dynamic drive that aced his opponent on several occasions.

Oesterling is a rangy player, with a steady return and he is hard to beat in high school competition.

Bay just naturally outwitted Glenn Adrian, determined but less experienced lad from Baker in winning 6-1, 6-2. Bay has "tennis sense" in that he understands how to cover the court to best advantage. His drive is hard and dependable and he has a knack of drawing his man up to the net and then driving a ball to the backline—in short he is a "heady" player and is up on his toes all the time.

Harold Herr Wins

Harold Herr won from Bill Ryder in a third singles match, 6-2, 6-1. Herr showed a smooth and reliable return stroke.

The most exciting match of the day for score, was the doubles played between Adolph Siegrist and Bob Oesterling of La Grande and Richards and Adrian of Baker. The local lads won 7-5, 6-3 and were compelled to play a hard game. Siegrist and Osterling are younger players of promise who early mastered the fundamentals of tennis and play a surprisingly finished type of game.

Ben Oesterling and Bay walloped Bob King and Bill Ryder 6-1, 6-1, in the final set of doubles.

Ross Fage, Baker principal, accompanied the Bulldog tennis players to La Grande last night and officiated at the matches. This was a return play, La Grande having won last week in Baker.

land 6 to 5 in 10 innings.

Ed Morris, big righthander from Mobile, registered his third win in a row as the Boston Red Sox nosed out the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 2.

Milton Gaston pitched the Washington Senators to victory, 4 to 2, over the Chicago White Sox.

Notice of Delinquent Assessment Sale

Notice is hereby given that I, A. C. Haynes, Chief of Police of the City of La Grande, Oregon, under and by virtue of a warrant of date, the 30th day of April, 1928, issued by the Recorder and under the seal of the City of La Grande, Oregon, attached to the city assessment roll for each Improvement District and Sewer District in said City, hereinafter mentioned and placed in my hands for execution, directing and commanding me to collect, as by charter and ordinance of said city provided, the delinquent assessments shown upon each said assessment roll with accrued interest and penalties thereon, will, as directed by the warrant, in each case attached to the respective assessment roll for the Improvement and Sewer districts hereinafter mentioned, on Friday, the 1st day of June, 1928, at the outside of the front door of the County Court House in La Grande, Oregon, at 2 o'clock p. m., sell at public sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, each of the hereinafter described tracts, lots, and parcels of real estate in the said City of La Grande, for the payment of the unpaid and delinquent assessments, with accrued interest, penalty and costs of sale, set opposite the description of each said tract, lot or parcel of real estate in this notice, to-wit:

Dated at La Grande, Oregon and first published May 1st, 1928.

The Portland Beavers took sweet revenge on Bill Hughes yesterday by taking a postponed game from the Missions 12-7. Home runs by Barbee and Sheafoos had much to do with the result.

Woman Golfers Take Measure of England's Stars

HUNSTANTON, England, May 15 (AP)—Led by Miss Glenna Collett, who won her third victory of the British women's golf championship, all the Americans in the title event today stroked their way into the fourth round, which will be played tomorrow. Miss Collett won her third match while her three companions had to play only two to enter the fourth round.

Miss Collett continued to kill off champions and former champions by defeating Mrs. Temple Dobell, 4 up and 2 to play. Mrs. Dobell, the former Gladys Ravenscroft, has won both the British and American titles.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, former British and American champion, won from Miss Dianna Esmond, a French girl, 6 and 5.

Miss Elizabeth Curtis, Clinton, Iowa, had the hardest fight of the American quartet, disposing of Miss Couper, a Scotch player, 1 up.

Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Detroit, defeated Miss Alice Fircbrace, of England, 2 and one.
