meeting which will be held in July the day to be on the order of a field day when different farms will be visited for the purpose of inspecting crops, plantings, etc.

A Correction

In Tuesday's Over the Valley an account was given, taken from an Astoria paper of the death of a Mr. Smith who, it reported was the father of Mrs. J. M. Ogilvie of the Cove. It should have stated that Mr. Smith was an uncle of Mrs. Ogilvie.

Sells Cattle at Good Figure

Church Dorrance, prominent farmer residing near Joseph reports having recently sold to parties of Walla Walla, 11 head of his young stock cattle and that he secured a very satisfactory price for them. There were 50 head of purebred yearling Herefords which brought $65 each. The remainder were grades and brought about $50 each.

Twenty-Eight Years Ago—

A very interesting item culled from the columns of the Daily East Oregonian of March 30, 1900 is given herewith: "Sheep are dropping down in price. An eastern buyer bought 1500 sheep at $2.25 for yearling wethers. It is also said that wool has eased off a couple of cents. No wool is offered for sale. Besides the Cunningham sheep none have been sheared."

Little Steam Engines That Burn Up Energy a Mile a Minute

Praise From Great Falls Physician

We have used Tru-Blu Graham Crackers in our family, especially for the children, and I have advised their use by others. I consider them a very valuable adjunct to the diet of growing children, convalescents and the aged.

R. C. Davis, M. D.
Thisted Building,
Great Falls, Mont.

Boys and girls play hard. They do not spare themselves. They are veritable little steam engines that burn up energy a mile a minute. That's why it seems so impossible to fill them up.

Between meal and after school lunches of foods that contain muscle-building vitamins, bone-structure-building mineral salts, blood-purifying-bran will aid your kiddies to sturdy bodies and ruddy cheeks. You give your children ALL these food elements in
