Cabbage Plentiful; Strawberries Scarce and Prices High

PHILADELPHIA, May 21 (AP)—A lively market for the opening of local wholesale produce this morning and trading was brisk. Potatoes were generally firm in demand, but some supplies of most commodities were scarce.

Cabbages were plentiful and at low prices, mostly at 10¢ per bushel. Strawberries were scarce and prices high, some 5 to 6¢ per bushel, depending on variety and quality. Apples were scarce and prices high, some 10¢ per bushel. Potatoes were plentiful and prices low, some 10¢ per bushel.

Violent Breaks Occur In Wall Street Trading

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Violent breaks of 4 to 15 points in a number of high priced stocks unsettled today's stock market in the last hour of trading after an earlier advance led by the oil and copper stocks. The market which had been steady at the opening, most of the day dropped back under the influence of short-circuit speculation.
