Pythian Sisters have been very busy this week preparing for the district convention which holds forth here tomorrow, Saturday afternoon and evening. Delegates from the lodges all over the county are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKinnis were shopping in La Grande yesterday.

A growing interest in livestock in the south leads new importance to the curing of hay, a process facilitated by the use of hay "caps." Those who have used them, particularly east of the Mississippi river, are almost universally enthusiastic over results obtained by capping haycocks.

Spring calves fed a supplement of grain on grass while they still are nursing usually can be marketed in the fall, when weaned, at a weight of approximately 500 pounds. Such animals are in demand and bring greater net returns than if kept for another year or two.

And remember, too, that when you are through, there are no failures, no rebakings, because everything comes from the oven light and evenly raised. Try the famous Calumet Biscuit Recipe. Of course, everybody will want more of them—but you won't mind because they can be made in a jiffy.

MAKES BAKING EASIER

CALUMET BISCUIT RECIPE

Small Biscuits

1 cup flour
1 level teaspoon Calumet Baking Powder
1 level tablespoon sugar
1/4 cup milk
1 level teaspoon salt

Stir flour, sugar, and salt together. Add baking powder. Mix thoroughly. Add milk. Knead in flour. Roll out on a well floured board. Roll to 1/8 inch thick. Cut and bake in 150° F. oven (350° F.) 10 minutes.

Beck & Robbins Service DISTRIBUTORS

We just received yesterday a large shipment of Monarch paint. We told you yesterday that we were out of Monarch outside white. We are selling the Extra Star-A-Star shingles now for $3.75 per M. and the No. 2 common Stars for $1.95 and lincos oil $1.25 per gallon if we furnish the can or $1.20 where you furnish it. Hot water kalsomine 55c per package except a little job lot that we are cleaning out for 39c a package. We have a good trade on screen doors and we have a job lot of paint of different colors and kinds we are selling out for 18c a quart. You will find it on the bargain table as you go into the big door. There are some more people here from North Powder getting paper for a large roomy house. I don't think it is on the farm but they do put part of their stuff in one room and a kind of apartment house after all. We have to have two bears around the lumber yard to get along with the public—bear and forbear.
