Triad Choir of Presbyterian Church Honored

A major social event for members of the Presbyterian church was the reception in honor of the ladies' Triad choir and their director, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, that was given in the main rooms of the church last evening with an attendance of more than 100.

The affair, sponsored by the board of trustees and elders, was given by the congregation to show appreciation for the excellent work of the choir.

A feature of the pleasant evening was the presentation of a lovely bouquet of roses and snapdragons to Mrs. Richardson as a token of appreciation, which she received with a response of thanks.

The Rev. J. George Wals offered the opening prayer. Dr. E. P. Fossum, an elder of the church, presided at the program of the evening, making an interesting talk to the choir. Raymond O. Williams sang a group of numbers, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Richardson. C. M. Humphreys, an elder, gave a talk expressing the congregation's appreciation to the choir, and to Mrs. Richardson. He presented the flowers to Mrs. Richardson. A group of vocal numbers by Paul Knautz accompanied by Mrs. Knautz was the final number of the program.

A delightful social hour of visiting followed, and refreshments were served. Mrs. W. C. Perkins was chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. C. M. Humphreys chairman of the decoration committee.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion.

The vested Triad choir which has been singing at every service this year, will not appear now until fall, although members will assist in the choir during the summer months. The choir has progressed splendidly since its organization and appeared on a number of civic programs during the year.

The visit of Mrs. G. L. Clark, of Caspar, Wyo., in La Grande was the occasion of a delightful picnic supper at the city park Wednesday evening given by a number of her friends. The group of families included 24 persons. Shortly after 5 o'clock supper was served at tables around the fireplace of the park pavilion. An hour or two of visiting passed pleasantly.

Mrs. Clark is the wife of the Rev. G. L. Clark, who was for several years pastor of the Presbyterian church when both Mr. and Mrs. Clark won the hearty respect and affection of their congregation and the community. Later they went to Pendleton and now make their home in Caspar, where Mr. Clark has his headquarters as synodical executive secretary of missions in Wyoming.

Mrs. Clark left Wednesday evening for Pendleton and then will go on to Walla Walla for the commencement exercises at Whitman where her son, James, is a member of the graduating class.

She was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hanna during her stay.

Entertain Club At Dinner, Bridge

At a pretty party at their home on Main avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Zurbriek entertained the club at dinner-bridge last evening.

Dinner was served at the small tables at 7 o'clock. Roses and honeysuckle formed table bouquets, while baskets of blue cornflowers and lupin were attractive. Five tables of bridge were at play, at which Mrs. Norman Freese and F. B. Appleby made high scores, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds received the guest prizes.

Edward Holmes, formerly of La Grande but now of Tacoma, was a guest of the evening. Mrs. Zurbriek and Mr. Holmes will drive to Walla Walla tomorrow to bring Mrs. Holmes to La Grande for a weekend visit when Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Zurbriek.

Members of the Thursday Bridge club had a pleasant afternoon yesterday when Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe was hostess to them at a bridge-luncheon at the Sacajawea Inn. A three-course luncheon was served at 1 o'clock in the hotel dining room at a large table at which a bouquet of flowers in keeping with the season was used.

Following luncheon bridge was played in the card room, with Mrs. J. C. Gulling making high score. Mrs. Lella Jones will entertain the club next Thursday.

Miss Lyman Honor Guest At Shower

Miss Irma Lyman, popular bride-elect, was the inspiration of a delightful miscellaneous shower at which Miss Marie Couture was hostess last evening at the Sacajawea Inn.

Four tables of bridge were at play in the ladies' room during the evening. Mrs. Lester Bramwell winning first prize and Mrs. Addimer Playle consolation. Following bridge, refreshments were served at the bridge tables. Then a large, cleverly decorated box, air-brushed in black and gold, was brought in, containing many beautiful and lovely gifts for Miss Lyman. Opening of the gifts brought the pleasant evening to a close.

Those invited by Miss Couture were: Mrs. Francis Greulich, Mrs. Lawrence Hill, Mrs. William Houghton, Miss Fonda Hanks, Miss Lucille Black, Mrs. Leat Russell, Mrs. Elmer McManus, Mrs. Clark Fitzgerald, Mrs. Dale Cox, Mrs. Melvin Larson, Mrs. Ellis Knight, Miss Ruth Bramwell, Miss Madeline Barbeau, Mrs. John Stoddard, Miss Winona Lyman, Mrs. A. L. Helms, Miss Lillian Sims, Mrs. Addimer Playle, Mrs. Lester Bramwell, Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, Mrs. George Lyman and the honor guest.

The date of Miss Lyman's wedding to Doyle Zimmerman is June 5.

The Me-Way-Tum-a-Lum Bridge club had an enjoyable meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elliott Austin in Ladd Canyon. Three tables of bridge were at play, Mrs. Ray Brown making high score and Mrs. Henry Peeler second. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

During a short business meeting Mrs. Clyde Hoppel was elected president for the coming year and Mrs. Henry Ewin secretary and press correspondent. Mrs. A. E. Peeler is retiring president.

The club will have its next meeting on Thursday, June 14, at the city park.

A farewell party took place at Eagles hall last evening, the occasion being the departure of Mrs. John Smith for near Lewiston, Ida., where Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their children will make their home. Members of the Eagles lodge and the auxiliary were in attendance. Cards and dancing were the diversions of the pleasant evening. Mrs. Smith was presented with a purse as a farewell gift from members of the auxiliary. Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

The family left this morning.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

Yesterday, in the discussion of "following" bids, it was pointed out that when an "original No Trump bid has been made, the next player is apt to be the initial leader if his opponents get the contract, and that consequently his following bid would not be apt to have any lead directing value. With an initial Major bid, the probability once again are that if the side of the original bidder obtain the contract, it will be in the first named and that Second Hand will be the original leader. But after an initial Minor bid the chances are that the Third Hand will change the declaration and Fourth Hand will be the original leader. Therefore when one of a Minor is bid initially, the following bid is likely to be of great value as a lead director, and it also may be of enormous value by shutting out a No Trump bid by Third Hand.

Another important question to consider in Contract is whether the bid following adverse suit-bid may be made by a call of one or whether it necessitates a call of two. It seems wise to adopt the convention that when bids following adverse suit bids are made with less strength than is required for an initial suit-bid, they should be limited to bids of one made over an initial Minor; and that all other following bids, including one Spade over one Heart and two Clubs over one Diamond, should announce the full strength required for an initial bid at Contract.

The following examples will make this clear.

In Contract with this holding by West, if South (Dealer) bid one Heart, a pass would be advisable; but if South (Dealer) bid one Diamond or one Club, one Spade should be bid for the reason explained above.

With the above hand held by West, a bid of one Diamond should be made if South (Dealer) bid one Heart, a pass would be advisable; but if South (Dealer) bid one Diamond or one Club, one Spade should be bid for the reason explained above.
