LASALLE, MARLOW LEADING HITTERS

Stokke in Second Place in League; Helms, Walters, Pendleton, in Third

Several changes occurred in the hitting columns of the Blue Mountain league in the seventh league game of the season.
Marlow no longer holds top berth among league sluggers unchallenged. His teammate and captain, Tony LaSalle, batted 1.000 last Sunday while Marlow went hitless and as a result, the two are tied for the top with the healthy percentage of .414 among men who have participated in five or more games. As a matter of fact, only three men have better percentages and none of the trio has played in more than two games.

Walters Tied for Third
Walters, Pendleton first baseman, climbed from 12th place last week to a tie for third this week, and over at Walla Walla, Rybinski jumped above the .300 mark the only Bear that has participated in five or more games who can make that claim. Erickson, Baker pitcher, boosted his hitting mark from .200 to .241.

La Grande's sluggers—Marlow, LaSalle, Stokke, Davis and Helms—all ranked among the leaders and Powell, in two games, is smacking the apple to the tune of .300.

In scoring, holding and hitting as a team, the Pirates maintain a wide lead. Team field standings are nearly the same as last week, although Pendleton climbed nine points. Team hitting changed some, with Walla Walla jumping from third to second place, and Baker changing berths with the Beavers.

Team averages for the first seven games follow:

Club	W.	L.	Per.
La Grande	25	7	.779
Walla Walla	24	8	.750
Baker	23	7	.769

SOME YOUNGSTER FELSTED WINNER OF EPSOM DERBY

Given a chance for regular work when Harper was traded to St. Louis, Melvin Ott, 19-year-old Giant rookie, promises to become one of the best ball players in the league. Ott can bat, play the infield and outfield, catch and hit. McGraw has had him on the bench for several years and has always said that when the seasoning process had been finished, he would send the youngster out as a sensation.

Beavers Arrive In Cellar Again; Angels Win 9-1

Fred Ortmann made his first start in several weeks, but he was no puzzle to the Angels, who sent him to the showers under a barrage of hits before the fourth inning was over. Meanwhile Pitt tied with the Beavers and the Angels finished on the long end of a 9-1 count.

Batteries: Pitt and Hannah; Ortmann, Couch and Almsmith, Saunders.

A pair of home runs by McDaniel and superlative relief twisting by Bill Hughes carried the Missions to a 5-1 win over the Senators in the initial episode of the week. McDaniel's second homer came with two men on in the sixth and served up the game. Hughes came to Holling's rescue in the fourth with no outs and white-washed the Senators with one hit the rest of the way.

Batteries: Rache, Gould and Saunders; Hollings, Hughes and Baldwin.
Hollywood went into a tie for second place as the Utah sensation, Gordon Rhodes, out-pitched George Boehler of the Oaks in an 11-inning duel, 2-2, each hurler whiffed eight batters.

Batteries: Boehler and Read; Rhodes and Basinger.
Johnny Mitchell's long sacrifice fly in the tenth sent Sullivan home from third and gave Seattle a 4-3 decision over San Francisco. The victory also lifted the Indians from the cellar.

Batteries: Jacobs and Sprinz; Wilson and Parker.

ACE HUDKINS AND CHAMPION FINISH TUNING

Nearly a Million Racing Enthusiasts See 148th Annual Classic

EPSON, England, June 6 (AP)—Duplicating the victory of his sire, Spion Keep, Pelsted, a rank outsider, captured the English derby at Epsom Down today, leading a field of 19 horses over the famous mile and a half course. Pelsted, quoted at 5 to 2, was second—a length and a half behind the winner, while Black Watch, quoted at 23 to 1, was third, six lengths behind Pelsted.

It was the 148th running of the great English classic and the usual crowd of English racing enthusiasts was on hand at the course, some of the spectators having waited 24 hours for favorable positions. Pelsted, a bay colt by Spion Keep, is owned by Sir Hugo Cunliffe.

Million Spectators
Pelsted's victory was before a crowd of nearly one million spectators who massed historic Epsom Down and it was estimated that an equivalent of at least $15,000,000 were wagered on the race, including the great Calcutta sweepstakes.

The laps were broken three times before the race could get a good start, except for Royal Crusader, left behind.

Pelsted, the second choice for the derby, led all the way to Tottenham corner. Sunny Trace, also among the favorites, pressed hard, but at the last quarter Pelsted drew ahead and led the rest of the way winning fairly easy by a length and a half.

The official time was 2 minutes, 24.25 seconds, equalling the record made last year by Call Boy.

Palway, owned by Lord Derby and the favorite, over the rest of the field, was never up in front during the entire race and did not threaten the leadership.

So great was the crowd of spectators that King George and Queen Mary had difficulty in getting to the royal box and had to leave their automobile and make their way through the crowds on foot to the doorway leading to their stand.

The Prince of Wales, who would miss the derby for a good deal, had to fight his way through the throng with two big hobbles to reach the royal party, while the Duchess of York needed the assistance of the Duke to squeeze through the great jam of people.

It had drizzled through the morning but cleared up in time for the race.

ACE HUDKINS AND CHAMPION FINISH TUNING

CHICAGO, June 6 (AP)—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, and Ace Hudkins, who will seek to win that title when the two meet here June 21, won their last "tuning up" fights last night. Walker by decision, Hudkins by knockout.

At St. Paul, Minn., Walker devoted 10 rounds to giving Jack Malone a boxing lesson. Hudkins ended his fight quickly, winning by a technical knockout in the second round from Buck Holley of Oakland at Lincoln.

Both fighters will start immediately on intensive training here, they announced. The championship is to be decided in Comiskey park, home of the White Sox.

Dixon Given Nod Over Oakland Boy

PORTLAND, Ore., June 6 (AP)—Georgia Dixon, Portland middleweight, won a close ten round decision over Frankie Denny, Oakland, here last night. Dixon's right hand punches to the heart, stomach and short ribs carried weight and drew ahead and led the rest of the way winning fairly easy by a length and a half.

The official time was 2 minutes, 24.25 seconds, equalling the record made last year by Call Boy.

Palway, owned by Lord Derby and the favorite, over the rest of the field, was never up in front during the entire race and did not threaten the leadership.

YOUTH WINS 500-MILE SPEEDWAY RACE

Driving a car that had stood the grind of the 1927 race, Louis Meyer, a smiling 23-year-old, won the annual Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile race on Memorial day. It was his first major racing victory. Meyer drove a Miller Special and averaged 99.482 miles an hour. The upper photograph shows the start of the 23 cars in the race. The lower panel shows Meyer's smile of victory as he slowed down near the pits after the finish. At the left, is a close-up of Meyer.
