Delores Del Rio Divorced; New Wedding Rumor

LOS ANGELES, June 8 (AP)—Rumors rife in the film colony that the divorce of Delores Del Rio granted yesterday at Nogales, Sonora, from her husband Jim Del Rio meant immediate wedding bells for the sensational new star with her discoverer and mentor, Edwin Carewe, were denied by the actress.

In view of the fact that Carewe recently filed suit for another Mexican divorce from his wife Mary Akin, the rumor linking Carewe and Miss Del Rio persists. Concerning if the Mexican society girl says:

"I am happy that it is over with. I am only interested in my work, and do not at this time, contemplate any other matrimonial venture."

The suit just culminated in Nogales followed a four months trial separation, initiated by Del Rio who is said to have left for New York to strive for success as a writer rather than be known as the husband of the beautiful Delores.

Following their wedding in 1921 which was a brilliant society event in Mexico City, Carewe met the then Senora Del Rio some two years later. He interested her in picture stardom and induced her to come to Hollywood under his tutelage to try her fortune in motion pictures. Her subsequent rise was rapid and sensational.

At the time the decree was being issued Del Rio was en route to Europe having left yesterday morning.

"The aviator's wedding seems to have been quite a come-down."

"Yes, he married a girl who is flightier than he is."

S O S Thought From Italia Is Heard in North

MOSCOW, Russia, June 8 (AP)—A radio amateur named Smith of Cosnessensk, Dvinsk, near Archangel, who last Sunday received what was thought to be the first SOS message from the missing dirigible Italia, reported today that he had heard a third call from the Nobile expedition at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Smith said that the call read: "Storm NW SOS Peterman."

There was no one named Peterman in the crew of the Italia. (The name of the radio operator aboard the ship is Giuseppe Biagi.)

HAGEN, Germany, June 8 (AP)—A radio amateur named Gammbusch reported to an official at the telegraph office that he had been hearing distinctly on a short wave length SOS calls since 10:30 o'clock last night. The official listened in and said the SOS signals were in various languages and that he believed they were from the missing dirigible Italia. He asserted the last call was picked up at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

In view of the report the technical telegraph bureau of Germany today decided to make special tests.

BOURTS HEED

RINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, June 8 (AP)—Increasingly doubtful that direct radio signals have been heard from the missing dirigible Italia, the naval ship Citta di Milano today kept sending out messages of confidence and cheer in the vague hope that the Italia might get them.

While the radio operator of the Citta di Milano had picked up faint messages yesterday which he thought were were from Italia, he was unable to get any answer today in response to incessant calls.

Flyers have be signalled for the Italia, sending messages telling her that wherever she might be in Franz Josef Land or elsewhere rescue expeditions were under way.

Weather conditions were again unfavorable today and Captain Riiser Larsen, the Norwegian aviator, was unable to make the flight to northern Spitsbergen that he had been planning. The captain is anxious to fly north to help Lieutenant Lutzow Holm, a brother officer, to carry on the air work now in progress off northern Spitsbergen.

Carroll Yerkes added eight Angels to his strikeout list and another game to his win column as he pitched Portland out of the cellar with a 8-4 victory over Los Angeles. The Beavers saved up the game in the seventh when they counted four times off Gabler, Batteries: Weathersby, Gabler, and Hannahan; Sandberg, Yerkes and Ainsmith.

Sacramento slapped Speed Martin off the mound in the second inning, scoring five runs, but could not get the semblance of a score off his successors, Nelson and Davenport. Meanwhile the Missions kept peeking away at Earl Jane and Piggy Gould until they tied count in the ninth and finally won out in the 12th, 6-5. Batteries: Kirby, Gould and Sevreid; Martin, Nelson, Davenport and Baldwin.

Oaks Trim Stars

Led by Caveny with five hits in five times at the plate and gavanor, with four in five, Oakland smashed its way to a 7-4 win over Hollywood, the first of the series. Hasty kept ten Hollywood hits effectively scattered. Batteries: Hasty and Read; Fullerton, Mulcahy, Donnelly and Bassler.

Walter Mails, aided and abetted by eight other Seals, shoved Seattle back into the cellar once more before one of the biggest week day crowds in the Islands' history. The ecentric left hander not only held the tribe to two runs, but started what proved to be the the winning rally with a double. The final count was 5-2. Batteries: Mails and Spring; Graham, Bryan and Schmidt.

Rallied by Brooklyn fifth-five Cincinnati Reds today found most of the National park yelling uncomfortably close upon their heels.

Old Bill Doak, who gave up baseball to dabble in real estate and then decided it was a mistake, pitched the Dodgers to a sensational 11-inning 4 to 3 victory over the Reds at Brooklyn yesterday. Meanwhile the New York Giants raced out the St. Louis Cardinals 6-3, at the Polo grounds and moved up to within a game and a half of the league leaders.

Pete Scott's home run, a single by Snarky Adams and Lloyd Waner's double gave the Pittsburg Pirates two runs in the twelfth inning and a 3-2 triumph over the Boston Braves. Five home runs were made, Scott getting two, the others going to Hornsby, Bressnahan and Taylor.

The Philadelphia Nationals broke their nine game losing streak at the expense of the Chicago Cubs, Ray Benge turning in a 4-3, six hit victory. Hack Wilson hit his tenth homer of the season and went into a tie with Del Bissonette of Brooklyn for league leadership.

The New York Yankees stretched their American lead to 13 full games by defeating the Cleveland Indians 8-3. Ruth hit his 20th homer of the season and Lou Gehrig his 11th.

Alvin Crowder allowed but four hits as the Browns defeated the Philadelphia Athletics at St. Louis 4-1. Ty Cobb turned thrice.

The Boston Red Sox found Owen Carroll a puzzle and Detroit took a 5-2 win at Navin field.

Chicago fell into last place in the standing when the Sox bowed to Washington 7-5. Bucky Harris returned to the mound.

McTigue Loses Close Decision To Frisco Boy

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—There's still plenty of life in the body of Mike McTigue, the ancient mariner of the light cavlet, plenty of sting in his right hand and plenty of grey matter under his thinning thatch.

For the benefit of Armand Emmanuel, latest light heavyweight sensation from San Francisco, Mike proved to all last night in Madison Square Garden. Although he lost the decision in ten rounds to the clever, strong youngster who fought him a draw several weeks ago, Mike thrilled 2000 customers with a dazzling display of ringmanship and punching power that had Emanuel on the floor for a count of nine in the first round.

Before the bout was well under way Mike carried Armand into leading with his chin. The old one promptly hung a right on it that deposited Armand for a count of nine, thereafter Emanuel was careful, whenever of that right and Mike took full advantage.

But the legs that have carried Mike into ring battles for almost 20 years tired as the pace grew hot.

Emanuel, with a two-pound advantage over McTigue at 157 rallied after the first round to win the next five. Mike battered his way to an edge in the next three but lost all chance of victory when Emanuel racked him about the ring in the final session.

Champion Golfer Returns To U. S.

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP)—Welcomed by the cheers of a big delegation of golfers and the tones of a brass band, Walter Hagen recrossed today as British open champion for the third time.

Accompanying the American homeward were one of his professional rivals Aubrey Boomer and Archie Compston. Compston beat Hagen by the lopsided margin of 13 and 12 in a 72-hole match held prior to the opening of the tournament.

Oregon Man Heads West Point Nine

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—William Hall of St. Louis star sprinter, will captain the West Point track team next season. Announcement of his election today follows the choice of Don Zimmerman of Eugene, Ore., as baseball captain for 1929.

Both are all-around athletic stars, in addition to which Zimmerman ranks among the highest in scholastic standing. Hall has played football for three years and has been on the wrestling team. Zimmerman, aside from his baseball activities, is a star at basket ball and a football player.

YANKEE DOODLE DOWS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 8 (AP)—The monoplane Yankee Doodle, in which Lt. Schaechair, pilot and Harry Tucker, sportsman, were attempting a non-stop flight from San Diego to New York, landed at Norton field here at 9:45 o'clock this morning.

The fliers say they had gone as far east as Harrisburg, Pa., but were unable to break through the fog, and turned back on their tracks, landing here. They said they had enough gasoline to have taken them to New York.

Strangler Pins Billy Shaw, of Ohio, in Medford

MEDFORD, Ore., June 8 (AP)—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, heavyweight wrestling champion, defeated Billy Shaw of Warren, Ohio, here last night in two falls, the first secured in 19 minutes with a punishing headlock, and the second in 20 seconds with the same hold. A crowd of 1500 saw the contest.

Just before the first fall Shaw broke a headlock by ramming his of grain in the northwest.

knee into the champion's stomach. Lewis then applied the full force of his headlock, and Shaw had to be led from the ring. He returned strongy, and after Lewis had again applied the headlock twice, the referee stopped the bout.
