Uneasiness Is Reflected In Bullish Trend

NEW YORK, June 3 (AP)—Financial uneasiness over money market conditions which was indicated by the increase of June 2, 1927, was reflected in a sharp downward movement of prices in the money market today.

In view of the money market in general and the fact that the money market was generally expected to be active during the day, the money market was not expected to be so active today.

The money market was active today in the afternoon when it was a point lower in the money market.

10 Years Ago Today

Raymond (Toots) Goetz, La Grande champion football player, has returned in quarterback department. We don't know whether or no Toots slipped anybody a 22 blow when a 44 would have been better, but we do know that when we hit a prescription you get exactly what your doctor orders. "We never substitute."
