NOTICE

I am sick and doctors advise that I will not be able to work for at least three months. I am being sent to Portland, and do not know how long I will be away, so am leaving all my accounts with Mr. Thompson, manager of the Northwest Oregon Merchants' association, so that if you wish to pay all or part of your account, you can do so by calling at his office in the West-Jacobson Building, 112 Elm street, or mail check to me addressed to La Grande.

Hoping to be able to return at an early date, I beg to remain,
Yours very truly,

W. P. McADORY

Evangelistic Services Part Of Church Day

Numerous interesting sessions scheduled for tomorrow in La Grande.

Numerous interesting church sessions are scheduled in La Grande for tomorrow, including evangelistic services at three churches.

Children's day will be observed at the First Presbyterian church where the program of the Sunday school will be given at 9:45 o'clock, to which not only the children of the school are invited, but also their parents and friends. All departments of the school will assemble in the auditorium of the church for the program.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning the pastor, the Rev. J. George Walsh, will speak on "The Plan of Salvation" as suggested by Peter in Acts 2:21. Mrs. R. G. McCall, organist, will play the service, and Mrs. A. M. Moore will sing "Journey's End" by Wheelock. Mrs. McCall will play a prelude by Gleason and the offertory and postlude by Guilmon.

First M. E. Church
Church school will start the Sunday services at the First Methodist Episcopal church at 9:45 o'clock in the morning.

At 11 o'clock the public service will be held in the church auditorium and there will be a special number by the choir. The pastor's theme will be "A Notable Gathering and Its Outreach."

At 7:30 o'clock there will be a combined service in which the Epworth league and the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Parker, will take part. This service is for the general public as well as for the members and friends of the church.

Christian Church
Following Bible school at 9:45 a. m., the morning worship hour at the Central Church of Christ tomorrow will feature a sermon on "The Christian Laid to an Epistle." Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:45 p. m., both the young people and the seniors.

An evangelistic service will be held at 7:45 p. m. The song service will be assisted by the young people's choir and orchestra. The sermon will be on "The King of Kings." A baptismal service is to be held.

On Monday at 8 p. m. the evangelistic committee will meet with the official board of the church.

Baptist Church
Classes for all are arranged in the First Baptist church Sunday school, which has Mrs. Bynum as superintendent. "Let's go, remembering that about eighty per cent of the church is from the school," the pastor, the Rev. F. O. Hess, urges.

The morning worship hour is at 11 o'clock and will continue for just one hour. The subject of the morning sermon is "The Inner Life" and Mrs. Bynum will sing a solo.

At 1 o'clock all Baptists will go to Riverside park for a get-together dinner. All Baptists of La Grande and the valley are invited to join in the meeting. Others who have children or relatives of members of this faith are also invited.

In the evening at 7 o'clock is the B. Y. P. U. meeting. Preaching will be at 8 p. m. All are invited to join in the services.

Prayer services are held on Thursdays at 8 p. m.

Episcopal Church
The Sunday services at the St. Peter's Episcopal church will begin with holy eucharist at 8 a. m., followed by church school at 9:45 o'clock. The morning prayer hour begins at 11 o'clock and the sermon subject is announced as "Being Different."

Lighthouse Gospel Mission
Evangelistic meetings are conducted by the Rev. Kelsey G. Prineas in the Lighthouse Gospel Mission, 1606 Jefferson avenue, every night excepting Monday. The services tomorrow evening will start at 7:45 o'clock and Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m., according to L. A. Ellsworth, pastor. Everybody is invited to attend.

Lutheran Church
The Rev. Chester Webber will preach during the morning worship at the English Lutheran church, the service to begin at 11 o'clock. Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a. m.

In the evening the Luther league will meet in the annex of the church at 7 o'clock. The topic will be "Church Echo Meeting."

Island City Church
The Rev. H. P. Hansen, pastor of the Island City Community church, will speak on the subject "The Servants in the Footsteps of Their Lord" tomorrow during the 11 o'clock hour of worship.

Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning and Epworth league service at 7 o'clock in the evening. All are invited.

M. E. Church South
The subject for the morning sermon at the Methodist Episcopal Church South will be "Sweetening the Bitter Waters," according to the pastor, the Rev. J. A. Hall. Special music will be provided.

Sunday school will convene at 9:45 a. m. and Epworth League at 7 p. m. with Mrs. J. A. Hall as leader. The subject for study will be "Unroofed Recreation."

Evangelistic services will be held at 8 p. m. with the Rev. Mr. Webber to preach the sermon. Evangelistic services have been held during the week by Mr. Webber with special music at each service. The attendance has been good.

Christian Science Church
Services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the First Church of Christ Scientist, corner First and Washington. The subject will be "God the Preserver of Man." Meetings are held each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock which include testimonies of healing. The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day from 12 until 4:29 o'clock.

Choral Society Gives Program, Including Play

With a very satisfactory attendance and an excellent program the entertainment given at the Lutheran church last night under the auspices of the Lutheran choral society was a pronounced success. The program included a one-act play "Me and Betty" that was delightfully amusing, and in addition a number of instrumental and vo-

Summer School Opens At Cove Monday Evening

Excellent Faculty This Year Promises Big Attendance at Episcopal Sessions.

What is expected to be one of the most successful sessions of its kind held in this part of the state, will be the Episcopal summer school which is to open at Cove Monday evening, June 11.

Besides the bishop and clergy of Eastern Oregon, the following are included in the faculty:

The Rev. P. G. M. Austin, Long Beach, Cal.
Miss F. R. Edwards, secretary of the national department of religious education, New York.

The Rev. F. B. Bartlett, general secretary, national field department, New York.

Expect Big Attendance
With such an exceptional faculty, it is anticipated that the summer school will be widely attended.

The school is to be held at the Asenodon church and will continue until June 25.

In addition to the more serious side of the school, entertainment will be provided in swimming, volleyball, quads, croquet, baseball, picnics and hikes. Many are planning on camping in tents at the school. For registration, persons should communicate with Miss Sophia Robertson, of Pendleton, Oregon.

cal numbers. Mrs. J. G. Stitzinger was chairman of the evening. Those who took part in the play and appeared on the program were Fred Matthes Jr., Mrs. Stitzinger and daughter, Juanita, Mrs. H. R. Ostlund and daughter, Vera, the Misses Anna and Lina Lottes, Miss Emma Wurl and Walter Puhman.

Following the program, salad, cake and coffee was served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

Sixty persons attended, which the committee in charge thought very satisfactory, particularly in consideration of the numerous other community events of the evening.

Many expressed the hope that another program for the same purpose, the swelling of the play fund, might be given and members of the choral society said today that they planned to give a similar program in the future.

WINNINGS

Evangelistic services are being held at the Methodist Church South with the Rev. Chester Webber in charge. Services during the last week are reported to have been very successful and they will be continued during the coming week. Mr. Bunch has been serving the church with song services and special numbers.

The evangelistic committee of the Central Church of Christ is calling for a special meeting on Monday evening at 8 o'clock with the official board of the church. This is an important meeting and all members of the board are urged to be present.

A children's program will be given during the Sunday school hour tomorrow morning at the Presbyterian church. Parents and friends are invited.

Members of the First Baptist church are completing arrangements for an enjoyable get-together at Riverside park tomorrow. All Baptists of La Grande and the valley are invited.

There will be a ministerial meeting at the First Methodist church.
