The republican party is doing more than just a candidate it's picking a leader. And that's going to prove vitally important in this particular campaign.

Tomorrow the republican national convention gets under way and by Thursday evening it begins the county stock show.

It's a good many years that the Stock Show at Union has received financial support from the state in the form of a legislative appropriation.

Considering the fact that a blue ribbon and possibly an individual prize constitutes the only encouragement for owners of large stock, the entries this year were remarkable and the owners of the animals showed a great deal of credit for standing by the show, for making rather severe financial cuttings in order to take part when there was no chance to recompense.

The important thing now is to lay plans for reinstating the legislative appropriation when the session opens at Salem next January. That is the only thing that stands in the way of the continued growth and advanced influence of the Stock Show.

There'll be no difficulty in securing the unanimous support of the Union and Wallowa county legislators for passing the state appropriation next year and it's the Observer's opinion that the aid for the show from the county will be secured with certainty.

A famous actress and her feet

THE world knew her as a brilliant talented artist—she, alone, was conscious that her feet were just a bit too large. But that mattered little, in fact, everyone admired her brilliant, graceful walk. And grace and poise are easy to achieve in perfectly fitting Shoe—Red Cross Shoe. Made over the exclusive "Linn" last and embodying the remarkable Arch-Tone arch-support, the shoe lends distinction to the feet it carries so well.
Come see the new models—soon.

A typical shoe for street wear, of tan calf with smart leather heel, saddle and tongue of harmoniz-ing lizard calf at $35.50.

"It's No Fun Paying For A Dead Horse"

This year brings another income tax payment date—and in come taxes often seem like "dead horses" that have to be paid for when they have no value.

Your tax is paid on last year's income. It must be paid even if you have no income this year, even if you are suffering greater losses than you made in profits a year ago.

The only consolation you may have in paying taxes is in knowing that at least part of last year's profit is saved—invested—already earning more income for you. Then you avoid the feeling that you are "paying for a dead horse"—you are protecting your self against bad years when your income may be turned into loss. And invested in a "C. D." at 4%, it becomes a profitable, dependable, accessible investment.
