OFFICE CAT TRADE MARK REG. By Junius

BETRAYED BY A KISS
(And right in his own office, too)
She came, a look of love Upon her face,
Which rivaled stars above
Their golden grace.

She sat upon my knee,
Her youthful arms
With ardor folding me
Within their charms.

She left me with a kiss
A wifely look—
"Kiss me!" (It's then I miss My pocketbook).

"My dear," remarked Jones, who had just finished reading a book on "The Wonders of Nature," "Nature is marvelous! When I read a book like this it makes me think how puny, how insignificant I am."

"Huh!" said his wife. "A woman can't read a book through 400 pages to discover that."

The world is full of fools who are spending two dollars for every one they make and trying to make themselves believe settlement day won't come.

A lay preacher was lost in the happy selection of his text, when he repeated in vigorous accents of pleading "Brothers and sisters, at the last day there are going to be sheep and there are going to be goats. Who's going to be the sheep and who's going to be the goats?" A solitary fishman who had been sitting in the back of the church listening attentively, rose and said:
"Oh, be the goat. Go on and tell the joke."

The movie exhibitor had just insured his theater against fire. As he signed his name he turned to the insurance agent and asked:
"What would I get if my theater were to burn down tomorrow?"
"Oh, I should say about ten years," replied the insurance man, nonchalantly.

The condemned man had once been an actor, and as he sat down in the electric chair, he thought he recurred to him.

"Say, warden," he demurred, "is this a rehearsal or the real thing?"

Willie—What would happen if the baby were to eat a gold fish?
Father—I am afraid it would kill him.

Willie—Well, it didn't.

AT THE THEATERS

Jean Hersholt
At Star
Tuesday

The ingenious lead in Universal's "12 Washington Square" which will open at the Star theater Tuesday, is played by Helen Foster, a very pretty and clever new-comer to big roles in feature length pictures.

Jean Hersholt and Alice Joyce are co-starred in this screen version of the popular New York play which was directed by Melville Brown.

Miss Foster was born in Independence, Kans., and attended the local grade school. She went to Westport high school in Kansas city and then her family moved to Hollywood.

Three years ago she decided to go on the screen and not with instant success. Her first role was a lead with one of the biggest western stars. Western leading women have little to do but Miss Foster acquired herself with honors and continued in leading roles.

She played opposite Jack Dougherty in "Haunted Island," with Al Wilson in "The Skyride" and in several films starring Rex, the King of Wild Horses.

George Lewis shares the honors in the love story of "12 Washington Square," while others in the supporting cast include Zasu Pitts, Helen Jerome Eddy, Jack McDonald and Jerry Gamble.

Several minor traffic accidents occurred in and near La Grande over the weekend, but no one was injured and in most cases, only slight damage was done to the cars.

collided with a car at Depot and other car was backing from the curb and Mr. Barnhardt was unable to avoid it, the report made
