D. A. R. Will Hold Flag Day Lunch; Baker Lodge Guest

Undoubtedly the most important event of this week in the realm of women's activities is the annual flag day luncheon of the Daughters of the American Revolution which is to be held Thursday, June 14, at the Seward Inn. The Baker chapter of D. A. R. will be here and the affair will be a joint meeting. Mrs. Raymond O. Williams of La Grande is chairman for the day.

A musical program is being arranged and there are to be several other guests in addition to the Baker chapter.

This is the final meeting of the D. A. R. until fall and is one of the outstanding events of the D. A. R. year.

Master Bobby Tribe was the inspiration for a birthday party at which his mother, Mrs. P. L. Tribe, entertained five of Bobby's friends yesterday afternoon at their home on Spring street. This was his fifth birthday anniversary.

Games were played during the afternoon, and at an appropriate hour refreshments, of which the birthday cake was a featured item, were served. Bobby's guests were Philip Stoddard, Bobby Clegg, Patsy and John McManis and Hazel McDaniel.

Five members of Hope chapter No. 13, are in Portland this week for Oregon Eastern Star grand lodge, which began its three-day session this morning. George T. Cochran, grand-sentinel, is among those attending from La Grande. Mr. Cochran was to be a speaker at the reception program. Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., worthy matron of Hope chapter, is among the delegates, while the other three are Mrs. Charles Graham, associate worthy matron, Mrs. E. E. Beatty, conductress, who is proxy for J. S. Hodgins, worthy patron of the chapter, and Mrs. Frank Robinson, associate conductress.

Mrs. Margaret Barnes, of Grants Park, is grand worthy matron, and is presiding at the session. Mrs. Barnes visited in La Grande last fall.

Mrs. Robinson will make a visit to Seattle before returning to La Grande.

Florence Dial And Mr. Beck Wed

William A. Beck and Florence Dial, both of La Grande, were quietly married at the Christian parsonage Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, with the Rev. F. L. Putnam, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, reading the ceremony. The young couple will reside in this city.

Those present for the wedding were Martha Beck and Joe Dial.

Mrs. R. L. Putnam's Eveready Sunday school class of young people picnicked on Catherine creek, near Union, last Sunday. After the regular class session, a picnic dinner was served. Thirty-seven were in attendance for the service and others joined the picnic later in the day.

The intermediate class of girls will picnic on Catherine creek next Sunday. Mrs. Hardesty is the teacher and this will be her last Sunday with the class, as she is moving to Vancouver.

The annual Sunday school picnic of the church will be held Friday, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. A picnic dinner will be served at noon. The affair will be held at Riverside park and a large attendance is anticipated. Games and amusements are in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. Dallas Green.

Those who have no way of going to the park will be provided

Some Babies Are Born with a Savings Account

They are the lucky babies, for they are born into families of the wise. Parents who start savings accounts for babies and help those accounts to grow with baby are doing a great deal to assure education and opportunity. We like that kind of mother or father and welcome them in this bank.

Reunion Picnics To Be Held, Soon

Two family reunion picnics, annual events that are of county-wide and even greater interest, have been announced for this month. The Smith-Conley reunion is to take place at the Riverside park on Sunday, June 24. Both draw several hundred members of the families and friends annually and are outstanding events of the summer.

All relatives and their friends are invited to the Smith-Conley reunion. Those who attend are to bring their lunch baskets. Dinner will be served at 3 o'clock.

"Reminders" of the Hug reunion have been issued inviting all members of the family and friends. It will be an all-day event at the Elgin city park.

To compliment Mr. and Mrs. James Jordan, of Portland, who are visiting here, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Scott entertained at dinner last evening at their home on N avenue.

A three-course dinner was served at a table at which a pretty centerpiece of pink roses and peonies was used.

Those seated at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wain, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott and their children, Evelyn, Shirley and Winifred. Mrs. Jordan is Mrs. Wain's mother.

COVE (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Otho Eckersley, of Portland, were honor guests at a party given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Conley by members of the Woman's club. The occasion was a very happy affair, nearly every woman belonging to the club wishing to honor these old friends by being present. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eckersley are Oregon pioneers. Mr. Eckersley coming here in 1862 and Mrs. Eckersley in 1851, when just three months old. He spent the first few years of his life in the west engaged in running a "pack train" with his headquarters at Cove and in 1865 bought a ranch here. Mrs. Eckersley, nee Mary L. Ownbey, was born in Missouri, Feb. 12, 1851 and when she was three months old her parents came west and settled in the Willamette valley. A few years of her girlhood were spent in Cove, but it was not until July 14, 1870 that she came to the Cove to live, and was then married to Otho Eckersley. For nearly 58 years they have travelled life's journey together. Nearly all of these 58 years have been spent at Cove.

It was only last summer that they sold their home at Cove and moved to Portland. On September 23 of this year Mr. Eckersley will reach his 89th milestone and it will be a serene and happy birthday for time has dealt kindly with him. At this happy reunion of old friends holiday evening visiting and music provided entertainment. After the group had sung many old-time songs, Mr. Eckersley seated himself at the piano and sang, playing his own accompaniment.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Comstock, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mr. and Mrs. Squire Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Day, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Laird, L. G. Iantz, and Mesdames W. Smith, L. M. Lantz, W. A. McNeill, R. Wade, C. Bertsch, A. G. Conklin, H. Lincoln, Cora Bloom, M. Senter, Annie Miller, David Arnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckersley will return Monday to Portland. Cove folk express the hope that they may return to Cove for many more visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckersley have been much entertained during their stay here and have been the inspiration for a number of parties.

COVE (Special)—Mrs. Erma Barker entertained the Fun and Joy bridge club at her home Saturday afternoon at a delightful party. Peonies and other seasonal flowers adorned the rooms. Three tables of bridge were at play, Miss Vina Conley winning the honors.

After play, a delicious luncheon was served. The guests were Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. Presto, Mrs. Charles Hibberd, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. L. J. Chadwick, Miss Beas Kelly, Mrs. A. G. Conklin and Miss Vina Conley.

Women spend four-fifths of all the money passing over the counters of the retail stores, says a commercial statistician. The other fifth probably goes for automobiles.

CRYSTAL distinguishes the new umbrellas. An amber-colored squirrel atop a malacca handle harmonizes with brown silk.

NEW HANDBAGS ARE ELECTRICALLY LIGHTED

PARIS (AP)—The electric torch has been fitted with a handbag now so that fumbling in the dark for small change and lost beauty aids is unnecessary. The illuminated bags are particularly designed to benefit travelers, the first to appear being large leather creations with many pockets.

POLKA DOTS APPEAR ON ACCESSORIES

PARIS (AP)—Even accessories have caught the polka dot idea. Dotted bags, belt and gloves with dotted cuffs, are sold for wear with simple sport or morning costumes. Plain hats with swathed bands of polka dot printed silk are a favorite form with Parisians.

We were just wondering the other day what had become of Miss Gleitze, the war to end wars, the cigar-smoking baby and the Texas horned toad. They don't seem to have followed through.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

We are continuing today the consideration of bidding questions, both simple and complex, of the kind that frequently arise in Auction Bridge.

Today's Hand

♠-X-X-X
♥-X-X-X
♦-X
♣-X

Three questions concerning the above hand; score in all cases favorable to the declarer.

1. What should South (Dealer) declare, holding the above hand?

2. What should North (Third Hand) declare with it; South having bid one Diamond and West having passed?

3. What should East (Fourth Hand) declare with it; South having bid one Club, West having doubled and North having passed?

The Answers

1. One Spade. In spite of the three Aces, a No Trump should not be considered with a hand containing a worthless singleton and a bidtable Major—not to mention a Major two-suiter. As between the two Majors, the Heart is the higher valued; and as there is no difference in length and the difference in strength is not very material, the Spade should be named first because it makes the showing of the two suits much simpler. Only when the Heart is both stronger and longer, or when it is at least two cards longer, should it be named first.

2. One Spade. Here we have the case of a Third Hand who should show a better bid over partner's Minor. In this case there is quite a good chance that partner may have the Clubs stopped, giving North a good No Trump bid; but with a Major two-suiter, the Club risk ought not to be taken. South must have some side strength, but it may be in Spades or Hearts and not in Clubs. This is a hand in which the Spades should be named first, so as to show a two-suiter if possible.

3. One Heart. With this bidding, West's double having announced strength in both Hearts and Spades, and East having such great help for the double, there is every probability that East's selection will stand and that he will not have a chance to make a second

One cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1-2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg.

CHARGED WITH CRUELTY

LOS ANGELES, June 11 (AP)—Jim Tully, once a tramp, later a prize fighter and now a successful novelist was charged with cruelty in a divorce complaint filed here today by his wife, the former Margaret R. Myers.

Now that the rubber industry has a czar, we hope he'll do something about the price of restaurant pancakes.

Improved Kotex Lowered Prices

Now 45c, was 65c formerly—great volume puts Kotex within reach of all

A MILLION new users of a hearing of the remarkable improvements in Kotex, have come to know it in the past few months.

They had heard that this wonderful sanitary pad, leader in its field, and the first disposable pad ever offered women, had been made—

Infinitely softer and more comfortable, ending binding and chafing. —Shaped for better fitting—for non-detectability when worn.

They found it supreme, as always, in its other features. In high and instant absorbency, for instance. In disposability, too. Kotex filler is water-soluble, so disposing of it is a problem no longer. Kotex deodorizes actively when worn. And simple to purchase wherever you are—at any drug, dry goods or department store.

The great demand made prices much lower. This greatly increased demand by women meant greater manufacturing efficiencies. And now, instead of charging more for the Improved Kotex, we are happy to announce prices are permanently reduced.

Today, madam, buy the new Improved Kotex, at the lowered prices. Sold everywhere.
