Theatergoer (to couple in next row who are conversing audibly):
"It's impossible to hear a word in back of you."
Husband: "What business is it of yours what I say to my wife?"

GOOD FOR WHAT AILS YOU
One of the local teachers received this note from a parent of one of the students: "Please excuse my son's absence yesterday. He was not feeling well so we kept him at home to chop wood."

MORE ABOUT FLIES
The Irish and the Dutch. They did accomplish much. Where others met defeat. But now their stunts have been beat. It's proved beyond debate. For flying far and straight. No one as yet outranks. Australians and Yanks.
—J. H. Blumenstein.

The boys of today are all right. Some of them can hold a job, a girl and a steering wheel all at the same time.

When Bobby had finished his first music lesson. His teacher said to him, as she stopped the metronome which had been indicating time on top of the piano:
"Now, Bobby, you must practice when you get home."
"And teacher, shall I tell father we must get a windshield cleaner for the piano?"

"Is this pre-war stuff?"
"Yes, sir. It's always followed by a fight."

A POME
I have my dreams of heaven filled with angels bright and fair. But unless they're some one who makes shortcake I could not be happy there.

He: "This dining room table goes back to Louis Fourteenth."
She: "That's nothing. My whole sitting room suite goes back on the fifteenth."

"How's the boy getting along at college, Ed?"
"Fine." He's taken up swimming now. In his last letter he says he spends all his time at Kelly pool."

Ghosts And Mysteries In Hersholt Film

Fear of the unknown, the supernatural, is responsible for the success of many of the comedy situations in Universal's mystery feature, "13 Washington Square," which will be screened at the Star Theater, starting today, with Jean Hersholt and Alice Joyce in the starring roles.

Many people claim to have seen ghosts, but Hersholt denies their existence. Nevertheless, if people didn't have a healthy awe for the unknown, "13 Washington Square" wouldn't be the uproarious hit that it is.

Every city has its haunted house, the scene of an early murder or a mysterious death. The spirit of the victim is claimed to walk on certain nights. Yet, has a ghost ever hurt anyone, supposing there were such things, asks Hersholt.

Of course, fiction has made a lot of ghost stories. They have fascinated readers on down through history, first by word-of-mouth and later through the printed word.

It is the fear of ghosts and the unknown that motivates the various members of the cast of "13 Washington Square" once they are all in the house at this address, which is supposedly vacant but actually quite well populated.

George Lewis, Helen Foster, Zasu Pitts, Hersholt and Alice Joyce are the occupants, most of them unknown to the others. The cast also includes Helen Jerome Eddy, Jerry Gamble and Jack McDonald.

A special added attraction, "The Hustling Swede," stage production presented by Van Howard and company, will be at the Arcade tomorrow evening in conjunction with the regular picture featuring Bebe Daniels in "The 50-50 Girl."

"The Hustling Swede" is a Swedish said final account, and for the settlement of said estate.

Dated this 28th day of May, 1928.

FOR SALE

2 Acres, close in in Fruitdale, 4-room house, wired for light, water right that means something, berries and family orchard. Will sell or exchange for larger acreage.

An exceptionally well improved farm, equipped with high-grade cow, an 11 sheep and a city milk route bringing in $450 per month. Farm produces sufficient hay to feed all the stock and last year there was a surplus of 80 tons. This is no shoe-string proposition—a real farm, real equipment selected stock. It requires a few thousand dollars as a first investment. While the owner desires to sell, his reason is not financial, for it is a real money maker and will stand the acid test upon investigation.

40 Acres well improved on market road near La Grande, all in cultivation, and an additional 10 acres of timber, all for $5,000. Investigate this.

WOMAN "BOOKIE" ADVANCES

LONDON (AP)—Mrs. Helen Vermet, England's only woman bookmaker, who four ago astonished her friends by taking her stand by the race track and shouting the odds in the approved manner, has been elected a director of Ladbrokes, an important firm of commission agents whose clientele is representative of the great families of England.

NEW BEACH COSTUMES STRIKE PIRATE NOTE

PARIS (AP)—Bathing and beach suits with long trousers of black, belted with gray handkerchiefs that match the bathing turban, which are also handkerchiefs, are offered by a dressmaker here. The suits give a piratical effect and had an almost instantaneous success on the Riviera.

THE STRIP IS TOO GREAT FOR THE HEADSTRONG MISS DANIELS, however, when she is chased by a gang of cut-throats in the dark tunnels of the mine and, after swallowing her pride on countless occasions, she finally succumbs to help. Thanks to the strong right arm of Hall, the day is saved. And Bebe admits that the man really is some good after all.

Incidentally the cast is exceptionally good. James Hall gives a fine performance and William Austin, George Kotsaros and Joanne Morris are excellent in their respective roles. Clarence Badger directed.
