BEAVERS DEFEAT DUTCH REUTHER

Triple Play Feature of Game--Seattle Drops Another One

The Beavers threw their third left hander in six many days against Portland but this one, Dutch Reuther, was no puzzle to the Beavers, who took a 7-5 decision. Tomlin, who started for Portland was hit hard despite a triple play by his mates that stayed off a rally, and retired in favor of Bert Cole. Batteries: Tomlin, Cole and Alumnick; Reuther and Spina. Sacramento won a free hitting affair from Hollywood 4-7 in ten innings, three star hitters failing to stop the Solons. The defeat prevented the much-touted boys from closing up the gap between them and the Seals, who also lost. Batteries: Rhodes, Pallerton, Mulohy and Agnew; Reuther, Vinnie, Gould and Koshier. Four hit pitching by Tex Weatherly and weird fielding by the Seattle defense carried Los Angeles to another win over the Indians, this time 6-1. Shortstop's circuit drive robbed the youthful Angel Southpaw of a whitewash victory. Batteries: Collier and Horvath; Schmidt, Weatherly and Sandberg. Ernie Nover, late of Stanford and the St. Louis Browns, displayed the best brand of pitching he has exhibited since joining the Beils and broke into the win column for the first time by defeating Oakland 4-2. The Beils bunched hits off Cooper in the sixth to sew up the game. Batteries: Nover and Whitney; Cooper, Wetzel and Lambard.

The Cincinnati Reds will were at the top of the heap today but their advantage over St. Louis had shrunk to half a game—three percentage points to be exact. The Reds lost ground yesterday when they were washed out by rain at Philadelphia while the Cardinals were inflicting 4 four in a

Flying Cloud In Marathon Lead; 28 Rivals Near

SANTA ROSA, Cal., June 15 (AP)—Flying Cloud, entered by the Oregon Cavelmen in the 432-mile Indian marathon from San Francisco to Grants Pass, Ore., had a slight lead over his 28 rivals in the race today, the second day of the contest. Flying Cloud was some distance north of here, with two Arizona Hopis, Arthur Pohutumpewa and Dan Comahungicoma, closest on his trail. The Hopis camped two miles beyond here. Fourteen of the Indians had checked in here early today and the others were strung along the highway at various points between here and San Francisco. The Zuni Indians expected by fans to divide the $10,000 prize with the Hopis got a poor start yesterday and observers practically

Pendleton's Grid Schedule Prepared

PENDLETON, Ore., June 15—The Pendleton high school football team's schedule for the 1928 season was announced here by Bob Quinn, coach, and includes eight contests. The schedule follows: Pasco, October 6 at Pasco; Hood River, October 6 at Hood River; Kennewick, October 12 at Kennewick; Hermiston, October 20 at Pendleton; McLaughlin of Milton-Freewater, October 27 at Pendleton; The Dalles, November 2 at Pendleton; La Grande, November 12, and the season will close Thanksgiving day with Pendleton meeting Baker on the latter's grid-iron.

Suspend Hornsby For Bottle Riot

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—Charged with responsibility for the bottle throwing that marked yesterday's game between the Braves and St. Louis Cardinals at Boston, Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Braves, today was ordered suspended for five days "for excusable but conduct on the ball field." The suspension was announced by John A. Heydler, president of the National League. Science now has produced a mechanical man that talks, talks! This is presidential year and we've seen a lot of 'em.
